FAILS LIE TEST; DIES IN CHAIR

HOPKINS PLEADS FOR SUPPORT OF COURT PACKING

Says Tribunal Is Blocking Jobs.

BY CHESLY MANLY.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., March 1.—[Special.]—"I am the man who directs the spending of more public money than anybody else in the federal government."

WPA Administrator Harry L. Hopkins, a social worker by profession who has never studied law, thus bluntly told a radio audience tonight why he was appealing for support of President Roosevelt's proposal to pack the Supreme court with six New Dealers.

Hours before this extraordinary speech was delivered it had been assailed on the senate floor as "propaganda" by Senator Edward R. Burke [D., Neb.] in a colloquy with Senate Majority Leader Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas.

Robinson Raises Issue.

Not Senator Burke but Senator Robinson raised the isue of "propaganda" in the controversy over packing the Supreme court when he denounced what he termed the "untruthful, unfair, and deliberately dishonorable" representations being sent to members of congress by a Wichita, Kas., minister.

Senator Burke, defending the right of any citizen to petition congress, mentioned the radio speech to be delivered by Mr. Hopkins, appealing to "thousands upon thousands" of WPA workers, and asked: "What about that kind of propaganda?"

Later Senator Burke mentioned the activities of "labor's nonpartisan league," which is circularizing its membership urging pressure from back home on members of congress. and said it was common knowledge that the Democratic national committee was operating on a full campaign basis in connection with the court fight.

44 Oppose Scheme.

With scheduled hearings by the senate judiciary committee on the President's bill still six days off, senate opposition leaders claimed two accretions to their ranks over the week-end, bringing the opposition total to forty-four. The two additional, uncommitted senators claimed by the court packing foes are William J. Bulow [D., S. D.] and George L. Radcliffe [D., Md.].

In addition to the forty-four senators now claimed as certain, the opposition leaders are counting upon an even break among the twenty-two senators still regarded as uncertain. With forty-nine constituting a majority in the senate, only thirty are committed for the President's proposal.

While the "propaganda" charges and the claims and counter claims of strength were occupying the senate, President Roosevelt signed the Sumners-McCarran bill permitting voluntary retirement on full pay [$20,000 a year] of Supreme court justices who have reached the age of 70 and served ten years.

Hope Some Will Quit.

It is the hope of some of the administration leaders that two or more of the six justices now past 70 will retire and permit Mr. Roosevelt to appoint successors, thus giving him a face-saving pretext for dropping his scheme to pack the court. However, it is regarded as extremely unlikely that any of the justices will quit while the court is under the fire of the administration. During the senate debate on the measure Senator Burke and Hiram Johnson [R., Cal.] said any justice who would retire at this particular time would be unworthy of respect.

Hopkins told the WPA workers that he was trying to find jobs for them in private industry, but that the Supreme court made it impossible for him to do so.

Calls Court Dictator.

Hopkins said the present majority of the Supreme court were exercising a dictatorship—"a negative one, perhaps, but a dictatorship none the less."

Hopkins was followed on the radio by Senator Bennett C. Clark [D., Mo.], who likened the contention that Mr. Roosevelt had a mandate from the people to "sack the Supreme court" to the doctrin that "the king can do no wrong."

Senator Clark outlined what he termed the "bald, naked proposition of the packing of the court with re- to a particular situation."

CARNEGIE-ILL. STEEL AND C.I.O. PARLEY ON PAY

Six Boost Wages by 125 Million.

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 1.—[Special.]—The mounting determination of labor organizers and workmen to win union recognition and wage increases in the 5 billion dollar steel industry was rewarded tonight by two outstanding concessions which a union leader hailed as "the greatest story in the history of the labor movement in America."

1. The Carnegie-Illinois Steel corporation, largest producer in the field, surprised the industry by recognizing the claim of John L. Lewis' Committee for Industrial Organization to bargain on terms for that union's members in the company's mills.

2. Wage increases approximating an annual total of 125 million dollars effective March 16 and the inauguration of a forty hour week were announced by six steel companies—Bethlehem, National Steel, Republic, Inland, National Tube, and the Youngstown Sheet and Tube company. Other concerns are expected to join the movement.

Hold Wage-Hour Parley.

An unheralded conference between Benjamin F. Fairless, president of Carnegie-Illinois, and Philip Murray, high official of the C. I. O., marked a long awaited "break" in the militant Lewis' drive to force mass unionization on the industry.

Carnegie-Illinois employs 120,000 of the industry's 550,000 workers and is the largest subsidiary of the 2 billion dollar United States Steel corporation, which persistently has refused to deal with "outside" labor unions in its steel mills since it was formed in 1900.

News of the conference was withheld until after the close of the stock market and then only a brief and formal statement was issued by Murray, who is chairman of the C. I. O. unionization committee.

"The conference will be continued tomorrow afternoon," the statement said. "We wish to report a very cooperative spirit existed throughout the meeting."

Company Announces Action.

The company declined to make any statement, but did announce its action in negotiating with the union to employé representatives in the corporation's 27 plants.

Without exception other steel executives declined to be quoted on the developments, but expressed surprise at the Carnegie-Illinois conference with Murray. Most of them had said privately they expected the union's demand for recognition to be made direct to the American Iron and Steel institute, the members of which comprise approximately 95 per cent of the industry's producers.

The institute spoke for the industry last June in advertisments after formation of the steel workers' organizing committee, stating the operators would resist efforts of "outside" labor organizers to effect a "closed shop" in steel.

Boost 10 Cents an Hour.

A boost of 10 cents an hour in the pay of common labor and the equitable adjustment of all other rates was announced during the afternoon and evening by the Bethlehem, Republic, Inland, National Tube, and Youngstown Sheet and Tube company. The National Steel corporation granted many of its employés a $5 daily minimum wage. National Tube is a United States Steel subsidiary.

Modification of the present overtime schedule in the plants to provide time and a half pay for more than 40 hours of work a week conforms with regulations of the Walsh-Healy act and will permit steel companies to bid for government contracts.

The industry, now operating on a 48 hour week basis, recently declined to bid on approximately 10,000 tons of steel for the navy.

LOSS IN SHOE LETHER AND WEAR AND TEAR ON COINS EXCITE NAZI

BERLIN, March 1.—(AP)—Germany's determined campaign against waste has started statisticians thinking about how much material is irretrievably lost without even being noticed.

A person normally grinds about a pound of shoe lether into dust a year, some one figured in the Acht Uhr Abendblatt. He calculated the invisible loss—assuming 300,000,000 persons in the world wear lether shoes—would fill eight large liners.

And the wear and tear on coins in nations where silver and gold money circulate was calculated to dissipate a ton of gold and 85 tons of silver a year. Nobody has suggested what can be done about it.

7 SOLDIERS SLAIN BY MEXICANS IN IRRIGATION ROW

MEXICO CITY, March 1.—(AP)—Residents of Xalatlaco, State of Mexico, put to death seven soldiers today, according to advices from Xalatlaco, sent by Brig. Gen. José Aguilar, chief of staf of the Twenty-second military zone. He reported that the 800 residents of the village became incensed at reports the government intended to divert to other uses the water that irrigated their fields. When eleven soldiers arrived in the village to maintain order, the church bells rang out and the villagers came running with rifles, pistols, machetes [knives], and other weapons and disarmed the detachment. After killing the seven, the attackers slashed the bodies.

Big Knee Pants Crisis for U.S. Envoy Solved

BY DAVID DARRAH.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, March 1.—American diplomats were able to steer their way out of a dilemma today when it was learned that they will not be required by official court regulations to don silk knee breeches to see King George VI. of Great Britain crowned May 12.

Only a short time ago the state department at Washington, D. C., barred short pants or other gaudy dress for diplomats, but up until this week the earl marshal's office, which is handling the coronation show, insisted on full court dress for any one who wanted a place inside Westminster Abbey.

Labor Leaders Object.

Labor party leaders don't like knee pants at official functions, either. Their objections led to the announcement that "fresh concessions are being made in regard to dress for the coronation ceremony for the benefit of a number of those who will be attending." This means that evening dress will be permitted inside of the abbey as well as knee breeches by special dispensation from the duke of Norfolk, hereditary earl marshal.

This was chiefly a concession to the executives of the Labor party, whose representatives, it was announced, will wear evening clothes at the abbey, but the action nevertheless will let in American diplomats. This will make it unnecessary for Ambassador Robert W. Bingham of the United States to give any embarrassing reminders to Downing street about the recent Washington ruling. It appears that Americans will go to the coronation in clawhammer or tails.

Russians Also Relieved.

Some of the colonial and dominion visitors also disliked the idea of full court regalia and the new dispensation was also a gesture in their direction. The Russian delegation doubtless was relieved too, for it was dismayed with the idea of trying to fit communistic conceptions into short silk pants.

Most of the continental representatives will be dressed in uniform and all naval and military representatives—even American—will wear their gold braid.

Normal regulations for those other than peers and peeresses—who wear rich, colorful robes, coronets, and the paraphernalia of their rank had made full uniform or court dress obligatory for every one else, including full court dress without trains for women. This means evening dress with three small white feathers tucked in the hair.

Some trade unionists and Labor members of the house of commons inquired what would be the "alternative dress."

"A mitigated form of court dress might be allowed," the earl marshal replied.

Later on, however, the new concessions were made and it was stated that women who so desire may wear morning dress without a hat. but in deference to ecclesiastical custom they must not appear bareheaded in church. This will make it necessary for women to have a scarf or lace covering over the head.

GEISHA GIRLS DEMAND RIGHT TO PICK OWN GENTLEMEN FRIENDS

OSAKA, Japan, March 2 [Tuesday].—(AP)—Offering prayers by the hundreds before images of the sacred Buddha, 300 Osaka geisha girl singers and dancers today carried on the fifth day of their "sitdown" strike in the mountain top Gyokuzo Buddhist temple.

The little women in rainbow-hued kimonos are standing pat on two demands, the right to join a guild of their own, and "autonomy." By "autonomy" the girls—who correspond to chorus girls or night club hostesses more than any other class of American society—mean the right to pick their own gentlemen friends rather than follow the dictates of the management under which they may be working.

Spokesmen for the geisha general staf declared that until their demands were granted they would not yield "even though we starve." That seemed unlikely, for their sympathizers sent money. food, wine, and cheers There are 82,000 geisha girls in Japan.

THIS 1937 BRODIE PLANS DIVE FROM COAST BRIDGE

Oakland, Cal., March 1.—(AP)—Tom Conroy, amateur high diver, announced today he would dive 218 feet into the water from the Bay bridge here—and started a flood of bets ranging from $500 to his own life.

"Steve Brodie jumped 135 feet [from the Brooklyn bridge in 1886], got arrested, bought a saloon, went on a vaudeville tour, and made himself famous. Tom Conroy's going to do the same. Watch me."

He said the date would be March 13—for a $500 bet.

Highway Patrol Capt. Rudy Schmoke declared: "You can bet $5,000 we won't let Conroy dive off the bridge, but if he does, you can bet another $5,000 we'll lock him up."

Dr. J. C. Geiger, San Francisco health officer, commented: "There's a slight possibility" a man could survive a 218-foot dive, "but at best it would be a gamble."

Fears to Tell Papa of Crash; Girl Is Jailed

A girl, 19 years old, afraid to tell her father of an automobile accident and the resultant damage suit, was taken to the county jail yesterday to satisfy a $650 judgment obtained by three persons who were injured in the collision.

News of the arrest of his daughter, Virginia Marie Schmitt, while she was at work in a loop department store where she was a salesgirl, was the first inkling the father, Frank E. Schmitt, had of the case, though the suit named both him and his daughter as defendants. Schmitt, a baker, and Miss Virginia live at 8643 South Paulina street.

Yesterday morning Attorney Herman W. Smith appeared in the office of Sherif John Toman, depositing $4 to pay the first week's board for Miss Schmitt at the jail. He represented Alick Ordman, his daughter, Sarah, and her husband, Sidney Turek.

Collision in Fall of 1935.

Ordman and the Tureks were injured on Oct. 13, 1935, in a collision at 72d street and Yates avenue with Schmitt's automobile driven by Miss Schmitt.

Neither Miss Schmitt nor her father appeared to defend the suit against them. On Feb. 14, 1936, Judge A. G. Kennedy of De Kalb, sitting in Superior court, entered a default judgment to cover all medical expenses of the injured persons as well as damages to their car.

Because Miss Schmitt was the driver, the judgment against her contained a malice count. Under the law holders of the judgment may keep her in jail in satisfaction by paying her board bill.

Driving Car without Permission.

"I guess it's all my fault," sobbed Miss Schmitt as she sat in the sherif's lockup waiting transportation to jail "After the accident I got scared because I wasn't supposed to be driving dad's car. So whenever a summons about the suit was sent to the house I would tear it up so dad wouldn't know."

It was reported last night that Mr. Schmitt was making arrangements to settle the judgment so his daughter might be released from jail.

On Jan. 31, 1935, Schmitt's wife. Anna Marie, 36 years old, was shot and killed by three young robbers who invaded his bakery, then at 7745 South Halsted street. Arrested a month later, the gunmen were sent to prison for long terms.

1 Pound 15 Ounce Baby Is Born to 19 Year Old Pair

Under the ministrations of Dr. Covalie Michaud, and with the father, a WPA worker, serving as nurse, the baby was born prematurely last week. He is the first child of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Poulin.

DRAMA OF LIFE AND DEATH ENDS FOR RAPPAPORT

Last Chance Snuffed by Truth Machine.

Joseph Rappaport, convicted murderer of Max Dent, a government informer, died in the electric chair at 12:12 o'clock this morning at the end of a futile struggle for a reprieve—the high drama of which was reached when a lie detector was carried into Rappaport's death cell and scientists, lawyers, jailers, and witnesses stared at two tiny recording needles tracing mute lines of doom over a slowly moving paper ribbon.

Did Rappaport tell the truth in denying that he killed Max Dent?

The verdict of the recording needles was:

Last Hope Flickers Out.

With that curt verdict Rappaport's last hope went flickering. The lie detector was closed and borne away. The witnesses filed out through the steel doors. Jailers deftly and silently prepared Rappaport for his last movements on earth. Before the end he wrote a farewell letter to his mother and bitterly complained, "I hope the federal men are satisfied now." He walked calmly to the electric chair. At 12:04 a. m. the current was applied; eight minutes later he was pronounced dead.

Not since the dramatic efforts to save Russell T. Scott, bandit, from the gallows in 1927 had such a determined move been made to save a convicted murderer here. Never in the history of Chicago—probably never anywhere—had such a move been made to save any murderer.

Gov. Horner's Hint.

The move was unique because a human life depended upon the rather novel instrument commonly known as a lie detector, scientifically called a polygraph. Yesterday Gov. Horner hinted tacitly that he might spare Rappaport's life—temporarily, at least—if Rappaport took the detector test and the test indicated he was guiltless of Dent's murder. Rappaport took the test between 9 and 10 o'clock last night; he failed to pass.

Judge and jury were Prof. Leonarde Keeler of the scientific crime detection laboratory of Northwestern university. On his word—and his alone—based on the recordings of the detector, rested Rappaport's fate.

Emergency Court Is Held.

Prof. Keeler administered the test after a hectic day and night, in which Chief Justice Michael L. McKinley of the Criminal court held emergency court in his home and in which the governor made himself available by phone at Springfield. The busiest actor in the drama was W. W. Smith, Rappaport's lawyer, who entered the case after Rappaport's conviction in 1935.

Rappaport himself was, of course, the central figure in the case. He had denied Dent's murder from the beginning. This was his last chance. He had appealed to Gov. Horner, to the Illinois Supreme court, and even to the United States Supreme court. He had received five stays, one from the state Supreme court and four from the governor, and he was hopeful that he would receive another through the detector examination.

March to Death Cell.

A little after 9 o'clock, then, Prof. Keeler and Attorney Smith, armed with an order from Chief Justice McKinley authorizing the truth examination, marched into the death cell, where Rappaport was quartered, adjacent to the execution chamber.

Keeler set up the detector, which resembles an old fashioned radio. Standing around were Sherif John Toman, Warden Frank Sain, Assistant State's Attorneys Marshall Kearney and John Boyle, who prosecuted Rappaport, and Jail Physician Konstantine Theodore. Keeler adjusted a paper ribbon on which rested two needles, then bound an attachment to Rappaport's arm and chest.

How Lie Is Recorded.

Everybody, including Rappaport, eyed intently the paper ribbon on which Rappaport's fate was to be scrolled—at a double set of lines over a small checkerboard. These lines showed Rappaport's respiration, pulse, and blood reactions. Briefly, when a subject lies during the test the needle charting the breathing makes a series of cramped "N's"; the needle charting the pulse and blood pressure makes jagged recordings above a more or less straight line.

Keeler asked Rappaport a few casual questions as to his age, how he was feeling and so on. Then—

"Do you know who shot Max Dent?"

"No," replied Rappaport.

The needles flickered unsteadily, indicating, Prof. Keeler said later, that Rappaport was lying.

"Did you shoot Dent?" "No."

Again the needles wavered unsteadily, indicating another falsehood.

"Did you have anything to do with Dent's death?" "No."

A third time the needles flickered fatefully, this time more heavily than before.

Needle Again Writes Doom.

Keeler turned again to casual questioning. The needles graphed a steady course. Suddenly he asked again "Did you shoot Dent yourself?", "Did you murder Dent?" "Did you ever sell narcotics to Dent?" "Were you present when Dent was shot?" In each case Rappaport replied "No," and in each case the tell-tale needles more deeply wavered and wrote his doom.

After the tests Prof. Keeler, Attorney Smith, the latter glum, and the others emerged quietly. "It's the end," said Smith. Prof. Keeler immediately telephoned Gov. Horner his findings: "Rappaport lied when he denied killing Dent."

Immediately Assistant State's Attorney Boyle revealed publicly for the first time that a note had been found in Dent's pocket the night he was killed. The note stated: "If anything ever happens to me Joe Rappaport did it."

An hour after the execution Anton Zeman, 11111 Forrestville avenue, was arrested on a charge of making a phone call threatening to kill Sherif Toman for electrocuting Rappaport. Police said he was disgruntled over losing a $50 bet on the case.

STORY OF DAY'S DRAMA

Gov. Horner's arrival in Chicago yesterday from New York raised the curtain on the day's drama. As he left the train he was approached by Miss Rose Rappaport, the condemned man's sister, who had been struggling for months to save her brother. She caught the governor's arm.

"Please, governor, please listen to me," she pleaded. Gov. Horner walked straight ahead.

He later received her at the Congress hotel, however, with Attorney Smith. There Miss Rappaport repeated her pleas for mercy, but was given no encouragement. To Smith, however, came the first hint of hope.

The Governor Asks a Question.

"Why don't you sustain Rappaport with a lie detector?" suddenly asked Gov. Horner.

"Do you advise or recommend it?" shot back Smith.

"No," was the answer. "That is up to you. But if you get me a report from such a test I will consider it."

"I am a great believer in the lie detector," said Gov. Horner. "If Rappaport takes the test between now and midnight and the test shows he is telling the truth when he denies killing Dent I might grant another reprieve."

Attorney Smith needed no further cue. He engaged Prof. Keeler to make the test, but struck a snag when Sherif Toman refused permission to make it without a court order. The sherif had prepared five times for Rappaport's execution and had been thwarted as many times; he was admittedly in no mood for a sixth fizzle.

Special Court Is Held.

Smith, unable to find a court in session, finally reached Chief Justice McKinley, who consented to hold special court in his home in the Edgewater Beach apartments. His bailif and clerk were rounded up and at 7 o'clock court was convened. The judge signed an order authorizing the test by "application of a certain machine or contraption commonly known and spoken of as the lie detector."

Smith and Prof. Keeler then sped to the county jail, where a dozen officials already were on hand. The test started a little after 9 o'clock.

An hour later the test was over. Rappaport had failed. The governor, who had returned to Springfield earlier in the evening, was informed of the result. Less than two hours later the condemned man was executed.

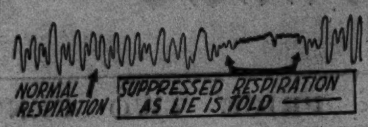
The test was the beginning of the end of the Rappaport case. The case began properly on the night of Oct. 8, 1935, when Dent, known as a government spy, was shot to death near his home at 1859 South Lawndale avenue. Dent's mother, Anna, said she saw the shooting and named Rappaport. Rappaport surrendered the next day. He was out on bond on a federal charge of peddling narcotics at the time, and Dent, it was understood, was to be used as a witness at his trial.

Rappaport was given the death sentence by a jury before Judge Joseph Burke in December, 1935. His defense was an alibi—that he was in a movie house at the time of the murder.

Rappaport appealed his conviction. From time to time his lawyers announced they had new witnesses, but the courts and later the pardon board held generally that since they were not eyewitnesses their testimony was not weighty enough to warant a new trial.

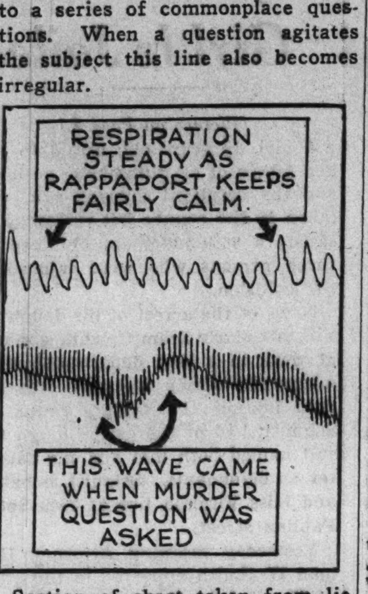
Judge Burke sentenced Rappaport to die on Feb. 14, 1936. The Illinois Supreme court stayed the execution to Oct. 23. On that day Gov. Horner granted a reprieve to Jan. 15, this year, but on Jan. 13 allowed a second one to Feb. 19. On Feb. 18 he granted a third stay to Feb. 26—last Friday—and three hours before the scheduled execution gave Rappaport a fourth reprieve, because of a Jewish holiday, to this morning.

GIVING LIE TEST

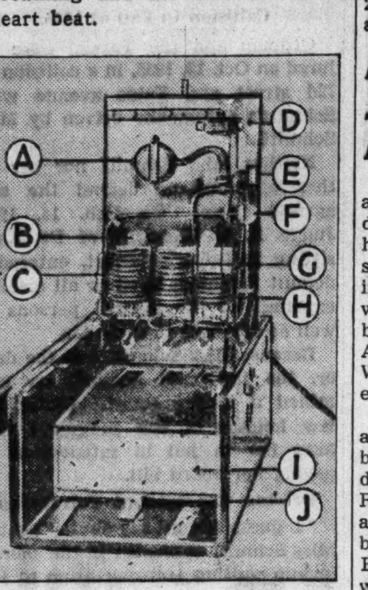


This line, charted on paper by lie detector, represents the breathing of the person as recorded during a test. The significance of the line lies in the distance between the upper points. When the subject becomes agitated at a given question the regularity of the intervals is interrupted.

This charted line records the pulse beat of the subject, who establishes normalcy through answers to a series of commonplace questions. When a question agitates the subject this line also becomes irregular.



Section of chart taken from lie detector after questioning of Rappaport before his execution last night, the line above indicating his breathing and the line below his heart beat.



This is the lie detector apparatus. Different parts are indicated as follows: A—Machine to measure pressure of blood in artery. B—Pivot shaft assembled. C—Tambour or drum, blood pressure unit No. 1. D—Signal magnet. E—Toggle switch. F—Selector valve. G—Blood pressure unit No. 2. H—Drum for respiratory unit. I—Drawer for accessories. J—Space occupied by clockwork apparatus (motor, gear train, and paper roll sprocket) drum on which lines indicating responses are charted on graph paper.

NEW JUDGE JAILS TEN ON FIRST DAY IN SAFETY COURT

Weiss Will Continue Policy of Severity.

Judge George B. Weiss took charge in Safety court yesterday and announced that he would continue the policy of his predecessor, Judge Charles S. Dougherty, of imposing jail sentences on drunken and reckless drivers. Judge Weiss then sentenced ten defendants to county jail.

Claude Burke, 38 year old, of Decatur, Ill., a truck driver, was sentenced to 20 days in jail for driving while intoxicated. Police testified that his truck hit two parked automobiles and a street car at Randolph and Halsted streets on Sunday. Burke admitted he had had "ten or twelve shots."

Five others charged with drunken driving were given ten day sentences:

MICHAEL PAULOK, 26 years old, 5125 West 31st street, Cicero, arrested on Sunday after his car struck another at 1539 North Cicero avenue.

JAMES DAVID, 24 years old, 1024 West 19th street, seized at 26th street and Western avenue on Saturday after driving past a red light.

DOMINICK PANGALLO, 22 years old, 2851 West 25th street, seized at 14th and Loomis streets on Sunday while driving erratically. Pangallow's wife asked Judge Weiss to "teach my husband a lesson."

CARL FINKE, 21 years old, 2642 Lincoln aveue, arrested while driving aimlessly in Milwaukee avenue near Gale avenue early yesterday.

EDWARD VAN BEZEY, 21 years old, 5811 South Whipple street, whose car struck an elevated pillar at Lake Street and Cicero avenue on Sunday.

Two men were given five day sentences for reckless driving. They are John Szafranski, 21 years old, 2614 West 47th street, and William Yates, colored, 49, of 440 Michigan avenue.

Norris Wallace, colored, 29 years old, 5901 Prairie avenue, was given three days in jail for leaving the scene of an accident, and John Milus, 27 years old, 4403 South Sacramento avenue, three days for drunk driving.

FIND DIVORCEE SPENT $2,000 IN HER LAST 10 DAYS

Mrs. Norma Schmidt, slain in her apartment at 317 Belden avenue Friday night by one of her divorced husbands, Dr. Frank J. Furch Jr., spent $2,000—all in new $100 bills—in the last ten days of her life. This was revealed last night by Jack Rubens, chief investigator for Public Administrator Martin J. O'Brien. Where the money came from remained a mystery.

Mrs. Schmidt was receiving $250 a month alimony from her first husband, John C. Schmidt, wealthy president of the Fulton Asphalt company. Rubens will continue his search for a safety deposit box or a mysterious benefactor today. Schmidt's attorney, Benjamin H. Ehrlich, said Schmidt will appear before Probate Judge John F. O'Connell today, seeking custody of their adopted daughter, Jacquelyn, 10 years old.

Insanity will be the plea of Dr. Furch, who attempted suicide but is recovering in Augustana hospital, his attorney, Joseph A. Kolb, said.

Passing motorists took him to County hospital, where he died. They also obtained the license number of the car that hit him. The license was traced to Frank Rendziak, 4730 Laflin street, a tavern owner, whose son, Mathew, 21 years old, admitted that he was driving the car when it hit Dumblauskas, but said he intended to surrender. The youth was locked up by New City police for the inquest today.

Mrs. Evelyn Holm, 52 years old, 103d street and Stony Island avenue, was killed early today when she was struck by one automobile and hurled under the wheels of another at 130th street and Indiana avenue. Her husband, Arthur, walking ahead, just missed being struck also. The street is poorly lighted where the accident occured.

Mrs. Holm was struck by an eastbound car driven by Raymond Bradford, 27 years old, 13014 Houston avenue, and knocked in front of a westbound machine driven by Henry Biewenga, 23, of 254 West 118th street. Both drivers told police they did not see Mrs. Holm.

Walter Christensen, 42 years old, 174 Throop street, Hazelcrest, the other driver, was held.

John Snook, 60 years old, 1736 Monroe street, died in county hospital yesterday of injuries incurred on Sunday when he was struck by a cab driven by Albert Oswald, 34 years old, at Van Buren and Aberdeen streets.

Not a Laxative

"The continued use of laxatives and cathartics only aggravates constipation," says a prominent medical authority.

Nujol is an internal lubricant, not a laxative, so it cannot gripe. Take Nujol regularly and you will escape the consequences of the "laxative habit."

Constipation is dangerous for anybody. Nujol is safe for everybody. It does not affect the stomach, and is not absorbed by the body. Medical authorities approve Nujol because it is so safe, so gentle and so natural in its action.

Nujol makes up for a deficiency of natural lubricant in the intestines. It softens the waste matter and thus permits thorough and regular bowel movements without griping.

Just try Nujol regularly for the next month and see if you don't feel better than you ever suspected you could.

Ask your druggist for Nujol and insist on the genuine.

CALL NEW OUTER DRIVE BRIDGE OUT OF DATE IN DESIGN

Officials Say They Lack Cash to Build Better.

BY HAL FOUST.

Ten months before it is to be opened to trafic, Chicago's outer link bridge and its approaches were described yesterday as of an antiquated design, outmoded during the decade since it was first projected.

Robert J. Dunham, president of the Chicago park district, yesterday told of minor refinements that have been made on the design in the course of construction but admitted that major improvements will be necessary before Chicago has a modern lake front motor artery as viewed by today's trafic engineers.

Since construction began in 1929, said Otto K. Jelinek, trafic engineer for the park district, a center curb has been added to separate five north bound lanes from five south bound lanes. On the turns, the crown of the pavement has been corrected to increase the safe speed on outside lanes to 20 miles an hour, which is still far below today's express travel pace.

Two 90 Degree Turns.

Just south of the bridge proper, two right angle turns will be encountered by motorists. They are on the causeway under construction over Illinois Central railroad yards to connect the bridge with the present terminus of the outer drive at Monroe street.

First the causeway turns west along what may be some time a part of Wacker drive. Then there is a turn south on a line with the present outer drive.

"It is the only right of way for which the Illinois Central would relinquish air rights without our resorting to condemnation," said George T. Donoghue, general superintendent of the park district. "We acquired this right of way in 1926 and 1927, when turns did not seem so objectionable as they do today."

No More Millions to Spend.

"We are proceeding with construction along the old right of way," Mr. Dunham added, "because we are without funds to add a few million to the cost for a more modern job. It was a question of building this or building nothing, and the demand was urgent for the relief of congestion on the Michigan avenue bridge.

"The limited amount of money available dictated our course in building this south approach to the bridge just as it has dictated our plans for immediate construction on the north approach, from Ohio street to North avenue.

"Our north side plan has been criticized by the Chicago Motor club and by the Chicago Association of Commerce, each suggesting changes that would cost approximately $1,400,000.

Several Good Ideas Out of Reach.

"The intersection of Michigan avenue and the new outer drive at Oak street will be a congestion point. An underground grade separation, at a cost of $3,000,000 or $5,000,000, might be worth the investment if we had the money to invest. An outer drive in the lake between Oak street and North avenue might be worth the $3,000,000 it would cost in addition to the expense of acquiring riparian rights.

"It's not from any lack of vision that we are not building such improvements. We are planning for them at some future time when money is available."

"We'll get multipl- deck grade separations for the approaches of the outer link bridge," said Hugh Young, chief engineer for the Chicago Plan commission and consulting engineer on the present design of the bridge, "when Chicago awakens to the value of modern trafic facilities."

GETS A HOME

Baby Kenneth Schue, whose father deserted him because he couldn't pay for support while buying an auto, with Mrs. Ambrose Dorsey, wife of policeman, who signed adoption papers yesterday.

The baby's appeal wins him a happy home.

Despite objections raised by two institutions, Kenneth Schue, unwanted 7 month old baby, was adopted yesterday by Policeman Ambrose Dorsey of the Maxwell street station and his wife, Grace, who live at 711 West 68th street. Judge Edmund K. Jarecki of the County court signed the adoption papers.

Frederick Schue Jr., 4150 Monroe street, and his wife Frances, who is critically ill in the Municipal Tuberculosis sanitarium, consented to the adoption. Policeman Dorsey said Mrs. Schue might see her son occasionally. Schue is held in the county jail awaiting action by the grand jury for child abandonment. He chose to abandon Kenneth in order to continue payments on a second hand automobile.

C. V. Williams, superintendent of the Illinois Children's Home and Aid society, where the baby was once a ward, urged that the adoption be postponed because Mrs. Schue "later might want her son." Dr. Edwin J. Randall, of the city missions of the Episcopal church, objected on religious grounds.

YOUTH INJURED IN 'HELL WEEK' STUNT AT N. U.

17 Pile on Wayne Fisher, Brother of Athletes.

Wayne Fisher, freshman brother of two famed Northwestern university athletes, was in the Evanston hospital last night as the result of a pile-up of 17 students in the fraternity "hell week" festivities at the university.

Wayne Fisher.

Dr. Samuel J. Lang, university physician, denied reports that the young man's neck was broken, but said Fisher was in a serious condition, with his neck muscles and ligaments strained.

The injury was incurred last Friday night, it was learned, in the Delta Tau Delta fraternity house in the north campus quadrangle. Not until yesterday afternoon was a report made to the police, but when questioned later the fraternity members refused to discuss the accident.

A Pledge of Fraternity.

Police were advised that Fisher was on the bottom in a "piling" match begun in the gayety of "hell week," the probationary period preceding initiation. Fisher is a pledge of the fraternity.

Fisher, who is 20 years old, is a brother of Waldo and Lyle Fisher. Both were basketball stars and Waldo was a football celebrity as well. He is now on the university's football coaching staf.

The injured young man was a member of the freshman football team this year. The brothers Fisher come from Fargo, N. D.

Asserts Condition Is Better.

William Buntain, member of the university board of personnel supervision, said:

"The university will take no action in this case because the boy seems to be improving. The reason his injuries appeared serious at first was that he also had an old football injury.

"The fact that he was tired and worn out from loss of sleep during the "hell week" activities combined to make it seem much worse at first."

Brushed Off Freight at Viaduct, Dies of Injuries

Brushed from the side of a Rock Island freight train on which he was riding when it passed under a viaduct Sunday at 135th street, Blue Island, Jesse W. Staggs, 40 years old, died yesterday in St. Francis hospital, Blue Island. He was on his way home to Seymour, Ia.

Chief Justice Michael L. McKinley of Criminal court reported to his associate judges yesterday that the court entered the March term with 339 cases pending, a slight increase over the average for recent months. This does not mean that crime is increasing, the chief justice said.

NANCY TRAYLOR SWIFT IS WED 2D TIME; A SURPRISE

Marriage Court Bride of Dancing School Mate.

Mrs. Nancy Traylor Swift, daughter of the late Melvin A. Traylor, and Marcy T. Weeks were married yesterday in Marriage court in the county building a few minutes after they obtained a license. Judge Paul A. Jones of Benton performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Swift, who wore a mink coat and dark brown turban, gave her age as 23 years. Last June she won a divorce from Nathan Butler Swift of Lake Forest, a great-grandson of Gustavus F. Swift, founder of the Swift Packing company. Since then Mrs. Swift has lived with her mother at 426 Barry avenue. Her father was president of the First National bank.

Mr. Weeks, who is 25 years old, is employed as assistant to an executive of the Local Loan company. He lives at 1335 North Dearborn street with his mother, Mrs. Harvey T. Weeks, widow of a one-time partner of Carter H. Harrison Sr. in the real estate business, and his sister, Mrs. Diane Winans.

"It's a surprise," admitted Mrs. Winans, "but Marcy and Nancy had known each other for several years." mance really started last September."

"I don't exactly know how it happened," commented the new Mrs. Weeks at her mother's home after the marriage, "but I'm glad it did. Marcy and I have known each other since dancing school days."

ASK SPECIAL LAW TO FORCE ROSOFF INTO NEW JERSEY

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, March 1.—[Special.]—Progress in the investigation of the slaying of Norman Redwood, head of the tunnel workers' union, hinged tonight on special legislation providing for the exchange of witnesses between New York and New Jersey.

The plan was urged by Prosecutor John J. Breslin Jr. of Bergen county, New Jersey, in a move to force the reluctant Samuel Rosoff, millionaire subway contractor of New York, over to Jersey jurisdictions for questioning. Rosoff had been troubled with the calling of a strike on his tunneling jobs prior to the shooting of the sandhog leader near his home at Teaneck, N. J., on Feb. 19.

Rosoff has offered to submit to questioning in New York, but he has refused to deliver himself into Breslin's hands on the Jersey side for fear of inhospitality.

New Jersey did have a reciprocal law providing for the exchange of witnesses with New York, but the Jersey law was declared unconstitutional by Circuit Judge Wilfred Jane.

FLOATING MINE CRIPPLES FRENCH SHIP OFF SPAIN

Britain Moves to Arrange Peace Parley.

LONDON, March 1.—(AP)—Floating mines crippled another foreign ship off Spain today while official British pronouncements hinted at certain renewal of attempts to bring Spanish peace.

The stricken ship—third to be menaced by mines in the ship lanes off Spain's east coast within five days—was the French freighter Marie Therese le Borgne.

She made port at Palamos, Spain, but shipping circles showed alarm. The place where she hit the mine was near the spot where the British merchantman Llandovery Castle was damaged similarly last week. Moreover, the French transport Sebaa reported she narrowly had avoided a mine off Barcelona.

Lloyds translated the risk into an immediate boost of 150 per cent in the rates for insuring ships passing the straits of Gibraltar. The cost jumped from 10 cents to 25 cents for each $100 of coverage.

Consider Plans for Parley.

Hope for new international efforts to find a peaceful solution of the Spanish war, now seven and one-half months old, was buoyed by British Foreign Minister Anthony Eden's declaration to the house of commons that the government had proposals for halting the war "constantly in mind."

Authoritative sources said they believed Eden was considering new mediation attempts if and when the European neutrality committee's arms-and-men embargo shuts off foreign interference in Spain.

Joint efforts by France and Great Britain to enlist other European powers in support of a mediation plan several months ago proved futile.

The foreign secretary's assurances that "every effort will be made" to make the committee's embargo "as effective as possible" came as he prepared to send the first contingent of 130 British observers to Portugal to check up on the Lisbon government's compliance with the agreement.

See Delay of Patrol.

Much remains to be done before the land and sea patrol of Spain and Portugal becomes effective, well informed quarters declared. International diplomats acknowledged that the control plan, by which the neutrality committee hopes to localize the Spanish struggle, could not be fully operative by next Saturday midnight, the date originally set.

Seeking to hasten completion of the complicated details, the nonintervention subcommittee met to rule on important regulations. Lord Plymouth, British chairman of the main committee of 27 nations, said he would call a meeting of the full group tomorrow if possible.

Busy with defense, the house of commons rejected a Labor amendment to the defense loans bill, instrument of Britain's $7,500,000,000 five year rearmament program, which would have cut the borrowing powers of the chancellor of the exchequer by half. The government is seeking authority to borrow $2,000,000,000. Neville Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer, declared he was sure there would be no financial difficulty "nor any undue inflation' as the result of such a loan.

Evangelist with Abandoned Babies

Aimee Semple McPherson and her son, Rolf, each holding a baby found in the balcony of Angelus temple, Los Angeles, last Saturday.

NOW IT'S PARENTS OF JUDGE CRATER WHO ARE MISSING

New York, March 1.—(AP)—The mysterious case of the disappearance of Supreme Court Justice Joseph Force Crater, missing since August, 1930, took on another puzzling angle today when Surrogate court action revealed his parents could not be found either.

The action was a petition brought by the missing justice's wife, Mrs. Stella M. Crater, to settle matters of allowance and rent for her parents-in-law whose last known address was Apopka, Fla.

The parents, Frank E. Crater, 75, and Lelia M. Crater, formerly lived in Hershey, Pa., and the elder Crater conducted a produce business in Easton, Pa.

The father retired and moved to Florida when Justice Crater promised to buy a home and care for his parents financially.

Offers Father Job

Los Angeles, Cal., March 1.—[Special.]—Aimee Semple McPherson, the evangelist, today offered a job to the unknown father of the two baby boys who were abandoned Saturday night in the balcony of Angelus temple. A note left with the babies said their parents were living in an auto without food and were unable to care for the infants.

LOYALISTS BALK REBEL EFFORT TO BLOW UP CLINIC

Trap Foes Tunneling to Set Off Mine.

MADRID, March 1.—(AP)—Madrid's defenders were reported tonight to have strengthened their positions with victories on opposite sides of the capital.

On the Jarama front, to the southeast, where government forces have defended the strategic Valencia highway, a successful sortie was said to have driven a Fascist insurgent garrison from a section of front-line trenches. For the most part the coldest weather in more than a month seemed to freeze both armies in their tracks.

In sharp, brief fighting loyalists drove rebel besiegers to cover in University City, northwest section of Madrid. Militiamen routed an attack from the dental clinic and forced the insurgents to retreat hastily into their shell-torn redoubts under heavy machine gun fire.

100 Insurgents Slain.

At least 100 insurgent infantrymen were reported killed in the swiftly ended skirmish. Defense troops counterattacked and occupied a small building adjacent to the Santa Cristina Sanatorium.

Insurgent sappers, excavating a section of tunnel left intact after government "dinamiteros" blew up the rest last week, attempted to place a mine under the hospital.

Again, however, the keen-eared government sentries heard the pickaxes at work underground. They undermined the insurgent tunnel and set off an explosive, blowing up both charges of dynamite without damaging the building.

The only other heavy fighting reported in government communiques was at Oviedo, in the northwest, where steady attacks were said to be driving besieged insurgents into an increasingly compressed area.

Fear Foreign Attack.

Government authorities at Valencia, temporary seat of the administration, expressed fear Italian and German warships in the international coastal patrol of Spain might attack the long stretches they have been assigned to guard.

At Andujar government authorities reported Italian troops still were being landed at Cadiz and Malaga, insurgent ports, and sent to the Cordoba front.

Capture Toledo Suburb.

VALENCIA, Spain, March 1.—(AP)—Government sources tonight reported their militiamen had entered a suburb of insurgent-held Toledo and defeated its defenders in a battle. They said militia advance was aided by artillery fire from the government base on Los Cigarrales hill, across the River Tagus from Toledo, which is 41 miles southwest of Madrid.

Further amelioration of overcrowded conditions in the county's Juvenile Detention home was reported yesterday by Arthur J. Audy, supervisor of the new intake staf at the institution. Only 237 children were there yesterday, compared with 336 on Feb. 1, he said. This also represents a reduction of nine since Audy made his first report on Feb. 23.

BRITISH THREAT TO REARM MET BY MUSSOLINI

Orders All Active Forces from 18 to 55 Trained.

ROME, March 2 [Tuesday].—(AP)—The Fascist grand council today met Great Britain's rearmament threat with a five point program to increase Italy's armaments and war forces.

The governing body of Fascism, meeting at the call of Premier Mussolini, decreed the "integral militarization of all active forces between the ages of 18 and 55 with periodical recalls of the mobilizable classes."

Is Far Reaching Program.

Il Duce, who recently boasted Italy could put 8,000,000 armed men into battle, personally put through the far reaching program to answer the British announcement that 7 billion 500 million would be spent on war defense in the next five years.

The other four points announced by the official communique, after a session lasting until near dawn, reached through every phase of Italian life:

1. An "adequate increase" in the armed forces.

2. Extension for five years of the general commission for war supplies.

Science Asked to Coöperate.

3. "Total sacrifice if necessary of civil necessities to military necessities for attainment of maximum self-sufficiency regarding military needs."

4. An invitation to Italian science to collaborate in reaching self-sufficiency.

The grand council, in the official announcement approved by Il Duce as he ate breakfast after a few hours sleep, hailed the "realistic efficiency" of Italy's policy of coöperation with Germany in international affairs.

The council, the communique said, "Is happy to note Italo-German policy and understanding has developed and shown a progressive realistic efficiency."

Approves Policy in Spain.

Although the formal call for the meeting was issued shortly after Britain's white paper made known her rearmament plans, the meeting reaffirmed the policy of coöperation with Britain in the Mediterranean.

The council "considered with satisfaction that the Italo-British accord of Jan. 2 represents a useful clarification of relations between the two countries as concerns the Mediterranean," the announcement said.

Full approval was accorded Italian policy in Spain and "expressed solidarity" with the insurgent forces of Generalissimo Francisco Franco.

Hopes for Rebels Victory.

"The council greets," the announcement said, "the armed forces of Franco whose victory must represent the end of every bolshevik effort in the west and the beginning of a new epoch of power and social justice for the Spanish people."

In presenting the five point program, the council declared:

"The grand council after an extensive report by Il Duce on the state of our military preparations considers it satisfactory but believes every possibility of limitation of armaments now has been definitly excluded."

The five point program to increase the armed forces then was set forth.

LINDYS SECLUDED ON ANNIVERSARY OF LOSS OF SON

CALCUTTA, India, March 1.—(AP)—Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh, after spending in seclusion most of the fifth anniversary of the kidnaping of their son, late today paid a surprise visit to the parliament of religions.

The celebrated flying couple, now on a tour of India, remained throughout the sitting. They appeared to take keen interest in the proceedings, which started today. Their friend, Col. Sir Francis Younghusband, authority on Indian affairs, who is attending the parliament, was flown here Friday by Col. Lindbergh. The Lindberghs came here by train yesterday from Nagpur, where their monoplane is undergoing minor repairs.

It was five years ago that their infant son, Charles Augustus Jr., was kidnaped from his crib in the Lindbergh home at Hopewell, N. J. He was later found dead.

JURY OF HONOR PREVENTS DUEL BY ITALIAN LEADERS

[Copyright: 1937: By the New York Times.]

ROME, March 1.—A jury of honor, composed of four parliamentarians presided over by the president of the council of state, today settled a personal controversy between Alessandro Lessona, minister of colonies, and Marshal Emilio de Bono, who was commander in chief in East

Marshal Emilio de Bono.

Allessandro Lessona.

Africa during the first part of the Ethiopian campaign.

The dispute had led the fiery marshal of 71 years to challenge the minister of 46 to a duel. The jury unanimously decided there was no ground for a duel, as on neither side was honor in question.

The break between the two men came a few days ago when Lessona prohibited publication in Revista Delle Colonie—a magazine dealing with colonial affairs—of an article by one of De Bono's secretaries praising his work as commander in chief in Africa. De Bono considered himself insulted and immediately replied with a challenge.

HITLER AID ASKS WORLD TO SHARE 'MILK AND HONEY'

Ribbentrop in Plea for Return of Colonies.

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, March 1.—"In our enlightened age of newspapers, telephones, telegraph, radio, and airplanes it is not right that milk and honey should flow in some countries while others are fighting for their bare existence." Joachim von Ribbentrop, German ambassador to Great Britain, made this statement today at the Leipzig fair in an appeal to the world for the return of colonies Germany lost in the world war.

The ambassador warned that "It is in the interests of all countries to eliminate unrest in the world and reestablish a balance between the 'haves and the have-nots,'" a balance which he said was upset by the Versailles treaty.

Demands "Generous Gesture."

"We hope that common sense and business judgment will be victorious and help bring about a fair solution of the question of colonies and raw materials," said Von Ribbentrop. "The growing recognition in foreign lands that Germany is being treated unjustly on the matter of colonies will, we hope, induce the mandatory powers to make voluntarily the generous gesture which we are expecting of them. This would greatly help to clear the atmosphere. I believe Germany can demand such a gesture."

Von Ribbentrop cited three reasons why Germany wants colonies: the need for raw materials that can be obtained without paying for them in foreign cash; the need of markets for manufactured goods, and a belief that the third reich can make much better use of colonies than did pre-war Germany.

May Help Trade Bars.

"The world should be grateful to Germany that through the new four year [self-sufficiency] plan she is attempting to provide herself with necessary raw materials through her own genius and strength," he said. "If Germany succeeds in placing herself in the ranks of the economically sound nations then she will be able to eliminate restrictions imposed on foreign trade."

Elmer Sampson (left) showing Policeman M. Schrieber how he carried safe out of a tavern.

His name is Elmer Sampson—and he is a stout fellow, though he weighs only 150 pounds. He broke into the tavern at 543 Van Buren street early yesterday and Policeman John Devereaux caught him there gathering up bottles of whisky. In front of the saloon was a stolen car which Sampson drove here from Gary ten days ago. In the car was a 200 pound safe which had been carried from the saloon. The Des Plaines street police asked Elmer who helped him carry the safe to the car.

"I did it myself," said Elmer, and he proved it by picking up the safe and placing it on top of a desk. Convinced, the desk sergeant booked Sampson, who gave his address as 836 Madison street, on a charge of burglary.

$25,000 Appropriated as Lindbergh Reward

Trenton, N. J., March 1.—(AP)—Appropriation of a $25,000 reward for the arrest and conviction of the Lindbergh baby slayer was voted by the assembly tonight, the fifth anniversary of the kidnaping. Haydn Proctor, Monmouth Republican, who intrduced the bill, observed the legislature had offered the reward shortly after the abduction of Charles A. Lindbergh Jr. and urged the appropriation "so that the obligation of the state can be carried out."

Foe of Nazis in Rumania Is Stabbed; 3 Students Held

They admitted membership in the "Iron Guard," militant Nazi organization. Bratu, a leader of the Peasants' party, has been an outstanding opponent of the Iron Guard Fascist program.

LABORER ADMITS ARGENTINE HEIR'S KIDNAP MURDER

Nation's 'Lindbergh Case' Is Solved.

BY HAROLD TATAM.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
(Radiophoto on back page.)

MAR DEL PLATA, Argentina, March 1.—The kidnap-murder of Eugenio Pereyra Iraola, 2 year old heir to a cattle fortune, was solved today when José Gancedo, mentally subnormal laborer, confessed the crime which rocked Argentina as the Lindbergh case did the United States five years ago.

Gancedo declared he had no intention of murdering the boy but merely sought to gag him. He blamed an "impulse" for the kidnaping. From his story, police concluded that the gag strangled the child while Gancedo was carrying him to a cornfield three miles away from his home, where the body was found in a pig pen. Gancedo merely said: "I do not know how he was killed, but he was dead."

May Be Sent to Asylum.

Police did not announce what the next step would be, but if Gancedo is held by a court to be mentally deficient he probably will be sent to an asylum.

Suspected from the start of the investigation after the child was abducted Wednesday from the family's vast ranch 30 miles north of here, Gancedo had stubbornly refused to answer police questions.

He maintained his sullen air even after the body of the boy was found Saturday, stripped of clothing.

Gang Theory Proves Wrong.

Although there had been a belief in some quarters that the kidnaping was the work of a gang, police clung to the theory that Gancedo had committed the crime, even though they admitted that they had no direct evidence. He was seized after it was learned that he had abandoned a job of cutting thistles about the time a brother of the victim reported seeing a man with a beard carrying the child away. Gancedo, who customarily wore a beard, and shaved.

WINS $8,500 DAMAGES FROM A CABARET FOR FALL ON DANCE FLOOR

John F. Ryan, former business agent of the Bartenders and Beverage Dispensers' union, local 278, was awarded damages of $8,500 yesterday against Harry's New York cabaret, 400 North Wabash avenue. A sealed verdict assessing the damages was returned by a jury before Judge Jacob Berkowitz of Mattoon, sitting in Superior court.

John F. Ryan.

Ryan, who lives at the Parkway hotel, 2100 North Lincoln Park West, incurred a broken foot the night of Jan. 21, 1936, while dancing at the night club. He sued for $15,000, charging the club with negligence in permitting a roller skating act to leave the dance floor slippery.

More painful than the injury, however, were these facts, Ryan testified: He lost his union job, which paid $125 a week, and seriously impaired his additional income of $75 a week selling a gin, and $1,000 a month boosting a Baltimore whisky.

KANSAS CITY IS STILL THE SAME WIDE OPEN TOWN

Pendergast Scandals Put Few Lids On.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Kansas City, Mo., March 1.—[Special.]—"Who's next?"

For many years Boss Tom Pendergast has sat in his little office on Main street asking this question as a stream of political workers, business men, and others who wanted something from him, waited in the outer offices of the Jackson Democratic club.

Now Tom has gone to Arizona with a weak heart and his nephew, Jim, who has succeeded to the mantle, has found it wise to stay away from public gaze. The scene has shifted to the office of the United States district attorney, where the question "Who's next?" applies to the Pendergast henchmen now on their way to indictment, trial, or prison for ballot box stuffing in the November election. The investigation continues this week, more trials are scheduled for March 8. The whole picture of Kansas City politics, as well as state, will be reframed as a result.

City Run Same Way.

In the meantime City Manager H. F. McElroy, who was put in office by Pendergast in 1926, when the boss permitted the adoption of a new charter and city-manager system and then appropriated it all to his own uses, continues the affairs of the city in the old way. There has been no change of heart regarding gambling and vice. And he balances the budget.

Within the shadow of the new city-county plaza, where twin skyscrapers give evidence of material prosperity, the "recreation clubs" are crowded, the slot machines are clicking, the poker and blackjack tables are open to the public and the bookmakers are posting the races.

In the suburban neighborhoods the games of skill ball are reaping a harvest from the thin pocketbooks of housewives. The shady hotels of prostitution are operating openly. No slot machines south of 31st street and closing of all racing books when Riverside Park season is on. These seem to be the only restrictions.

Little Reform Evident.

Ministers and other reformers have made little headway against the indifference of the people and the compact strength of the Pendergast organization.

The slot machines are said to clear a million a year, split three ways, the organization, the distributor, and the storekeeper. In hard times they have paid the rent of many a small business man. Pendergast's ready mixed cement and Pendergast liquor are for sale to the wise, while the boss has moved from a shabby house in the river district to a landscaped mansion in the hill section, with period furniture.

Pendergast reached the height of his power in 1932, when he took over control of the state. In 1933 evidences of factional jealousies within the organization were noted. The Irish, open fighters, had been succeeded in many places by Italians of the killer-ganster type. In 1934 the situation reached a high point of scandal with four killings, eleven sluggings, and many ballot box outrages.

"In Hands of Lawless."

"The government of Kansas City has been prostituted and has fallen into the vicious grasp of a small group of public enemies, which derives an illegal annual income of millions of dollars from horse racing, slot machines, gambling devices, speakeasies, contracts for public works, padded pay rolls, vice protection, and racketeering," said the five point program of the Missouri Republican club in the last campaign. "The hour for heroic action has come."

The candidate for mayor on a fusion ticket was Dr. A. Ross Hill, former president of the University of Missouri and former head of the Red Cross in Europe. A distinguished looking, scholarly man, he rallied the Republican elements and a youth movement to his support, but Pendergast came out with 59,000 majority. The Republicans were poorly organized to cope with a year long, active Democratic organization, which had done favors for thousands of the poor and had many of the business men in their debt. Dr. Hill was riding around the town that day when he saw a crowd around the polling place and found two of his colleagues, who had been shadowing Pendergast repeaters, had been slugged. One of these was Dr. Arthur H. Wells, candidate for the council.

Excesses Bring Downfall.

It was the excesses of this campaign that led to the Pendergast downfall, for the opposition, finally deciding that there was no help in controled state officials, finally centered in local federal officials and brought about the present situation. Whether this will end with a chastened Pendergast organization still in power or a new political deal remains to be seen.

Kansas City has progressed mightily even while delegating city affairs and public morals to Boss Pendergast. The new municipal plaza, the parks and streets, the Liberty memorial shaft that crowns the old rugged hill near the Union station, tell of a soaring ambition that nothing can conquer. It is a long cry from this description of the city fifty years ago.

"The city was a sight to make granite eyes shed tears. The old fashioned Missouri hog patroled the streets. At night when the nogs were off duty, a billion frogs in the green ponds at the bottom of the choicest unoccupied city lots told their troubles to the stars.

"In wet weather the town site was a sea of mud and in dry weather a desert of dust. There was no paving and the drainage was poor. A miserable breed of street cars, drawn by dissolute mules over a drunken track, furnished the only means of street transportation by rail. The water supply made whisky drinking a virtue. The population of the city included as fine a collection of the ruffian brotherhood and sisterhood of the wild west as could be imagined.

"In short, there seemed not a single pleasing prospect except the towering ambition, indomitable determination and volcanic energy of the good people of the place. These were destined to triumph."

CLAIM UPHELD

John Brownlee. Vivian MacMillan.

OTTAWA, March 1.—(AP)—The Canadian Supreme court upheld today a $10,000 judgment granted Vivian MacMillan for alleged seduction by John Brownlee, former premier of Alberta.

Miss MacMillan was granted the damages in June, 1934, after charging Brownlee with seduction which, she said, caused another man to refuse to marry her. Her counsel also contended her health was ruined by 2½ years of improper sexual relations with Brownlee.

She formerly was a stenographer for the Alberta government and a frequent guest at the Brownlee home. Her father, a railway engineer, was awarded $5,000 in the same action.

Reconciled by Judge; Now Couple Asks Him for Divorce

On Feb. 11 Judge John C. Lewe of Superior court thought he had succeeded in reconciling Mrs. Lillian Urban, 44 years old, 6010 South Talman avenue, and her husband, Herman, of 7856 South Wood street. Yesterday her attorney, Victor Frohlich, informed Judge Lewe that the reconciliation had fallen through. Judge Lewe awarded Mrs. Urban $5 a week temporary alimony pending settlement of her divorce bill.

Two wives sought relief yesterday before Judge John C. Lewe of Superior court. One bemoaned her fate of a week-end wife, the other disapproved of her husband's drinking.

Mrs. Rose Carp, 28 years old, 3415 Lemoyne avenue, accused her husband of neglect. Her attorney, Norman Becker, declared that Mrs. Carp's husband, Owen, 32 years old, who is suing for divorce, appeared only on week-ends for a change of linen. Judge Lewe awarded her $5 a week temporary alimony.

George A. Heidel, husband of Mrs. Shirley S. Heidel, 30 years old, 1120 Fullerton avenue, started drinking one year after their marriage in 1925, according to her attorney, Harry X. Cole. Since then Mrs. Heidel waged a losing fight for his reform. Now she seeks a divorce, charging cruelty. She was given $15 a week temporary alimony.

DISCLOSES 300% INCREASE IN N. Y. TAXES SINCE 1923

State Senator Cites Even Greater Jump in Debt.

New York, March. 1.—[Special.]—New York state's taxes have increased 300 per cent since 1923 and at the same time the net debt has increased 350 per cent, former State Senator George R. Fearon of Syracuse, said today at the school of politics of the Women's National Republican club.

The total net debt was $676,233,328 Jan. 1, the state controller had to sell an additional $100,000,000 worth of temporary notes Feb. 16 and Gov. Herbert H. Lehman has recommended another bond issue of $60,000,000 to finance state improvements, Fearon said.

"Since 1932, when the first deficit appeared under then Gov. Roosevelt, the rates on all taxes have been greatly increased, and in some cases doubled and even tripled under the guise of 'emergency'," Fearon declared.

Gives Income Tax Figures.

He pointed out that income taxes, increased to meet the emergency of unemployment, increased from $17,786,388 in 1923 to $40,000,520 in 1930 and to $74,328,921 in 1936. He said it was estimated that income taxes for 1937 will be $101,000,000.

"It is amusing to see Gov. Lehman's latest gesture in regard to future financing," Fearon continued. "He proposed to put unemployment relief on a 'pay as you go' basis, but in the same breath insists that we have a new bond issue to take care of capital improvements, including highway expenditures.

Assails Use of Money.

"The governor even says if he does not get the $60,000,000 bond proposal for improvement, he must recommend a bond issue for relief.

"Now this would not seem so bad on the surface, but what had he done with the past improvement bond issues? Has he used the money for new buildings, as was intended? No. He has used it to finance parkway, bridge, and highway expenditures, which should have been financed from the receipts of gasoline and motor vehicle taxes—and to the tune of $40,000,000."

5 AND 10 STORE GIRLS' STRIKE IN DETROIT SPREADS

Messengers and Nurses Join in Walkouts.

Detroit, Mich., March 1.—[Special.]—The possibility of a widespread labor controversy in the F. W. Woolworth company's chain of stores loomed tonight as a strike in the concern's largest Detroit unit spread to a second store and union leaders said the strikes probably would be extended to others.

Clerks employed in the 5 and 10 cent store at Woodward avenue and Grand boulevard this afternoon joined the strike of employés at a downtown store who have held possession of their building since Saturday.

Officials of the Waiters and Waitress' association said all of the 40 clerks employed at the Woodward avenue store had gone on a strike. A company official said ten girls there were engaged in a sitdown strike and that 15 others had gone home.

Management Kept Out.

Strikers at the downtown store today barred the management from entering the building. They are demanding wage and hour concessions.

Louis Koenig, financial secretary of the union local, said leaders were considering extending the strike to all Woolworth stores but that a telephone conversation with the national president, Edward Flore of Buffalo, N. Y., had been deferred.

The management said a wage increase of $1 weekly for all employés on full time was put into effect Saturday. It provided a $14 minimum for counter girls, they said.

The latest strike in the motor industry—the four day old dispute at the Chevrolet and Fisher Body plants in Janesville, Wis.—was settled this afternoon at a conference of General Motors officials and union leaders here. The plants were scheduled to reopen tomorrow.

Leaders of the United Automobile Workers of America made preparations for a collective bargaining conference tomorrow with the Chrysler Motor company, next in the unionization campaign.

Legal Action in Two.

Legal action was invoked today against "sitters" in two Detroit strikes. Circuit Judge Allan Campbell issued an order directing strikers in the Timken-Detroit Axle company plant to show cause Thursday morning why an injunction should not be issued forcing them to leave the premises.

Almost simultaneously the Ferro Stamping Manufacturing company applied in Circuit court for an injunction against strikers who have held its plant since Feb. 18. The "sitters," described by the company as "former employés," were ordered to show cause Wednesday why an injunction should not issue.

About 100 blind workers struck for higher wages at a factory of the Pennsylvania Association for the Blind in Pittsburgh. They rang a dinner bell to start the strike.

Parking their bicycles, 65 messenger boys of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies went on a sitdown strike at Toledo, O. They played harmonicas and let undelivered telegrams mount as they waited for the companies to grant pay increases and union recognition.

Nurses Walk Off Posts.

Seven nurses at Norwalk, O., left their posts in protest against the dismissal of their hospital superintendent, Mrs. Ruth Maloney. The hospital reported the routine was not interrupted, however, and ten patients were receiving proper care.

All moving vans and storage warehouses in Cleveland were tied up by a strike of movers which became deadlocked when representatives of the Van Drivers' union and some 150 concerns broke off negotiations for a new contract.

At Minneapolis Father Francis Haas, federal conciliator, conferred with striking unionists and officials of the Northern States Power company in an effort to end the dispute that is interrupting service to thousands of homes and buildings.

Picket Boat Company.

Groton, Conn., March 1.—[Special.]—A line of 100 pickets were on duty today as workers returned to the Electric Boat company plant, scene of a five day old strike, after the usual week-end shutdown. The management contended 30 more men went to work today than on Friday when there were about 1,400 in the day shift.

2,000 Join Hosiery Strike.

Reading, Pa., March 1.—[Special.]—A long threatened strike in the hosiery industry broke out today with the American Federation of Hosiery Workers claiming it had closed six mills in Berks county, pulled more than 2,000 persons off their jobs and thrown others out of work.

Stevedores' and Sailors' Strike Ties Up French Port

BORDEAUX, France, March 1.—(AP)—A thousand sailors and dock workers struck today for higher wages and shorter hours, paralyzing shipping in this port.

FANSTEEL WORKS OPEN TOMORROW AFTER SITDOWN

Mass Picketing Enjoined; Hold 7 Strike Chiefs.

Tomorrow morning, just two weeks after the beginning of a sitdown strike in which two bitter tear gas battles were fought, production will be resumed in the Fansteel Metallurgical corporation plant at North Chicago which is under the protection of a court order against mass picketing. This was announced last night by Attorney Max Swiren of Chicago, counsel for the company.

Carl Swanson.

The strikers, finally ousted last Friday after nine days in the plant, then resorted to picketing. Yesterday in Circuit court at Waukegan Judge Ralph J. Dady issued a drastic injunction limiting pickets to pairs, no pair to be closer than 300 feet to any other pair.

Hearing on Injunction Thursday.

Six strike leaders, including Carl Swanson, commander in the plant, were in custody in Lake county, and the seventh, Meyer Adelman, representative of John L. Lewis's Committee for Industrial Organization, was under arrest in Wisconsin with no immediate chance that he would return to the scene.

The remaining sitdowners—93 were named at the outset of the strike—agreed last night to surrender on a contempt of court citation for failure to obey an injunction to evacuate the plant. The first group will appear before Judge Dady at 2 p. m. today; the rest at 2 p. m. Thursday.

Attorney Swiren said no evidence of sabotage was found by a cleanup squad of 30 men, including two of the erstwhile sitdowners, and eight foremen who were in the plant yesterday. The strikers, members of lodge 66 of the Amalgamated Association of Iron Steel and Tin Workers of North America, had demanded recognition of their union, a C. I. O. affiliate.

Two Chiefs Out in $7,000 Bail.

Swanson who is 37 years old and who lives at 1416 Lloyd avenue, Waukegan, is secretary of the lodge. He and John Kundrath, 39 years old, 231 South West street, Waukegan, president, surrendered late yesterday. They supplied bonds of $2,000 each on the contempt charge and $5,000 each on a charge of conspiracy to prevent enforcement of the injunction for evacuation of the plant.

Adelman's chief assistant, Oakley Mills, 36 years old, 143 South Elmwood avenue, Waukegan, a C. I. O. organizer from Wheeling, W. Va. was seized in his home yesterday and was freed on $2,000 bond. Ramond [Frenchy] Dubois, 31 years old, of Waukegan, was released on his own recognizance. Frank Latz, vice president of the lodge, and his brother Herman, were allowed their liberty on small bonds.

Adelman, 300 pound director of the steel workers' organizing committee, was arraigned on a fugitive warant yesterday in Kenosha, Wis. Judge Calvin Stewart set his hearing for March 10 and he was freed in $1,000 bail.

Adelman To Fight Extradition.

Adelman, who is wanted in Waukegan on the conspiracy charge, said he would fight extradition. He announced he would present evidence in behalf of the union to the civil liberties investigating committee of the United States senate, headed by Senator Robert M. La Follette [Prog., Wis.].

The injunction against picketing issued by Judge Dady yesterday allows only two pickets at each of the two gates of the $1,500,000 Fansteel plant and reduces the pickets at the plant proper to eight or ten men.

The 300 foot spacing rule applies to pickets anywhere in the county, including routes that workers take from their homes to the plant. The order forbids threats to employés or officers of the company or interference with its business.

Attorney Joseph M. Jacobs, C. I. O. counsel who arranged for the sitdowners to surrender in court, protested the injunction as too severe.

DEMOCRATS CALL FOR $100 EACH TO EAT DEFICIT AWAY

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., March 1.—[Special.]—The Democratic national committee is assessing government employés in Washington, including those in the classified service, $100 each for liquidation of the party's half million dollar deficit. Such political assessments are a violation of law.

The action of the committee leaked out when civil service employés exhibited letters they had received from W. Forbes Morgan, treasurer of the Democratic national committee, suggesting they come across with subscriptions for tickets to the victory dinner March 4 at which the plate price is $100.

Those who have failed to respond promptly have received follow-up letters from Mr. Morgan, of which the following is a sample:

"If you have not already done so, permit me to suggest that you send in your reservation with check to the district victory dinner committee at their offices, suite 130, in the Willard hotel."

Ethel du Pont to Regain Her Health at White House

Washington, D. C., March 1.—(AP)—Miss Ethel Du Pont, who underwent an operation for appendicitis on Feb. 21, left Emergency hospital today to continue her convalescence in the White House. She was a guest there when stricken. Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., Miss Du Pont's financé, and his brother, John, planned to return to Harvard university tonight.

"FISH!!!"

DEALERS MAKE TROUT FLY AND PRICE TUMBLES

Fresh lake trout flew through the air yesterday during a price squabble between 200 members of the Retail Fish Dealers' association and the 14 wholesale fish dealers at Fulton and Union streets. The retailers refused to buy the trout at 28 cents a pound, and piles of fish remained untouched on the sidewalks and loading platforms, except for those tossed during the squabble.

Finally wholesalers reduced the price to 26 cents a pound and the squabble ended. Sol Riskin, head of the retailers, declared the price should be lower because of the increased supply.

Girl Opens Bakery's Back Door; Slugged and Robbed

It was warm in the bakery at 4007 Broadway last evening so the clerk, Miss Jane Rodgers, 23 years old, 1331 Loyola avenue, opened the back door. Later she went back to clean some pans, and a man who had cut away part of the screen door and hidden himself in the shop struck her on the head with a milk bottle. He fled after taking 55 cents from her purse.

HELD ON BOY'S COMPLAINT.

John Prucnal, 24 years old, of Janesville, Wis., who was seized on the complaint of an 11 year old boy, was held to the grand jury in bonds of $8,000 in Felony court yesterday.

Moving Forward

Marshall Field & Company presents here each day observations and opinions intended to be of interest and value to those it seeks to serve.

FIELD UNIVERSITY

By CALEB

A FRIEND of our business writes us from Savanna, Illinois, an enthusiastic letter about this store's leadership and says, "I believe that well organized department stores of the future will be one of the most important units of the American educational system, and why shouldn't they be?"

The answer is that in terms of informal education they should be, and each year in a growing extent they are.

Almost any woman can have a post-graduate course in good housekeeping and good home-making if she will, through the years, closely follow the activities and the offerings of the leading stores. When something new—as a color, or an ingenious new application of an old principle for the benefit of the housewife, or a home furnishings fashion, or a practical new kind of garment—comes into being anywhere in the world, the woman who keeps closely in touch with this store, for instance, is immediately aware of it.

Let a manufacturer on this side of the hemisphere or the other do something which can make a contribution to a woman's appearance or the appearance of her home or her family, and at once she becomes apprised of it. This is education. The business men in no industry can learn of the evolving developments in their fields with the facility the housewife and home-maker learns of the evolving developments in her own.

Periodic counsel in food preparation, style shows, furniture shows, smartly furnished rooms, and other things here, we offer to further facilitate women's gaining full advantage of what the world makes available to them for the most satisfying fulfillment of their jobs. This tendency increases.

This store is the post-graduate university of the home-maker. Indeed, Macbeth indicated that all the world's a stage. Nowadays, all the world's a school.

Education per se is another thing. We are being constantly visited by groups of students who are in pursuit of various kinds of education. Not long ago a large group from the School of Engineering of a distant university spent several hours touring the store and watching wheels behind the scenes.

WALLY PREPARES TO JOIN EX-KING; GETS A PASSPORT

Expect She Will Leave Riviera Aboard Yacht.

BY SAM BREWER.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

CANNES, France, March 1.—Mrs. Wallis Warfield Simpson, for whose love King Edward VIII. abdicated the British throne in December, obtained a new passport two weeks ago at the British consulate here, but intends to stay here until the end of April. When she departs she will sail on a yacht unless present plans are changed it was learned today.

A yacht was chosen to avoid another chase such as preceded Mrs. Simpson's arrival here Dec. 5 when many newspaper men pursued her across France in automobiles. She refuses to travel by airplane.

Barring a sudden change in strategy, it is understood she will slip out of the Herman Rogers' Villa Lou Viei some night in April in her car and race to a secret rendezvous somewhere along the coast to board the vessel.

May Meet Ex-King on Coast.

She then could meet Edward on the Dalmatian coast or she could land secretly and travel to Vienna and join the duke of Windsor who is living in exile at the castle of Baron Eugene Rothschild at Enzesfeld, near the Austrian capital.

It is possible Mrs. Simpson will sail on the yacht Sister Ann, which is owned by Mrs. Reginald Fellowes. When Mrs. Simpson came here it was reported she would use the Sister Ann to continue her flight. Villa Lou Viei apparently proved such a good refuge that she decided to stay.

The yacht now is located in the harbor at Monte Carlo. Mrs. Fellowes long has been a friend of the abdicated king.

Enjoys Perfect Privacy.

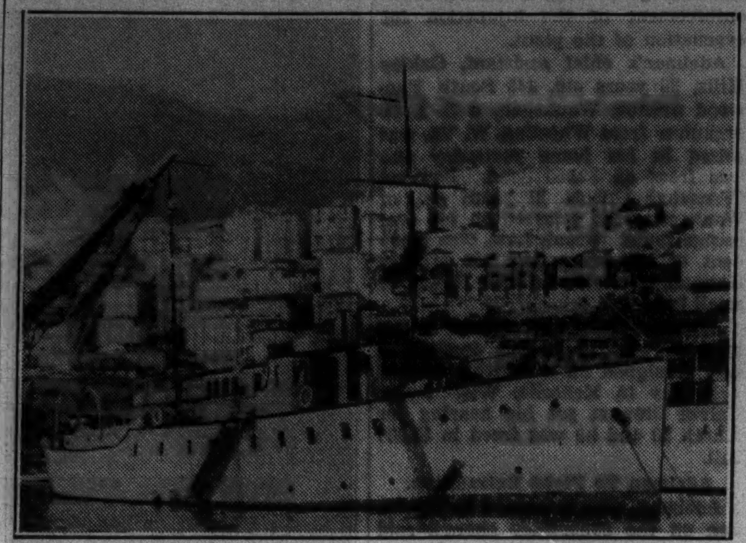
Another possibility is that Wally will sail on Lady Yule's yacht, the Nahlin, aboard which Edward and his fiancée cruised last summer. The Nahlin is one of the world's most luxurious yachts.

It is doubted that Mrs. Simpson will leave before the last day of April. Her divorce decree nisi is expected to become final April 27. Her acquaintances point out that she enjoys perfect privacy at the villa of her New York friends.

Mrs. Simpson continues to visit fashionable restaurants from time to time. Yesterday she lunched at the "Reserve" at Beaulieu. She went for a drive this afternoon and remained at home in the evening.

Edward still calls her on the telephone from Castle Enzesfeld every morning and on Saturday the couple talked without interruption from 11 p. m. to 1 a. m.

Yacht May Carry Wally to Edward



The Sister Ann, which may be used by the former American when she leaves France to wed the duke of Windsor. Mrs. Simpson obtained a new passport two weeks ago, but intends to stay in France until the end of April.

THREE SLAIN BY EX-MINISTER AS RELIEF IS DENIED

Denver, Colo., March 1.—[Special.]—A colored former minister killed three men, seriously wounded a woman, and fired upon three other women in a city welfare bureau today. A crowd of fifty relief clients applying for aid were terrified by the shooting.

The triple slayer, Frank Bailey, 59 years old, who is known to Omaha, Neb., police as a gunman, mumbled to police after his capture that "the Lord will take care of me." He also told them he had been unable to get back on the relief rolls.

The dead were James E. Tunnell Jr., 35, acting director of the bureau; Carlos Didio, 30, a clerk, of Arvada, Colo., and George O. Milliken, 28, former University of Colorado and Denver university student.

Miss Ramona C. Chambers, a case worker who was shot through her head, as were the three men, was not expected to live.

JURY IS CHOSEN FOR RAPE TRIAL OF PARK FOREMAN

A jury was chosen yesterday in Judge John J. Lupe's Criminal court to try Maxwell Dowdell, a park district foreman, on charges of assault with intent to rape and of taking indecent liberties with a 10 year old girl.

Before examination of prospective jurors got under way, Judge Lupe overruled a plea by Defense Attorney William Scott Stewart for change of venue to a court outside of Cook county. The plea was made on the ground that residents of this county are prejudiced because of the campaign by newspapers and women's organizations to curb sex crimes.

The taking of evidence will start today.

U. S. Senator Reynolds says: "Luckies are considerate of my throat"

"Two Southern traditions are oratory—and good tobacco. Lucky Strike shows me how to indulge in both. For this light smoke not only pleases my taste but leaves my throat in condition. Last fall in North Carolina—when I made over 100 speeches—I visited the Lucky Strike factory. I believe I discovered, in the Lucky Strike "Toasting" process, the secret of what makes this cigarette so considerate of my throat. I have been more than ever an advocate of a light smoke since seeing the extra care and expense devoted to making Luckies easy on the throat."

Rob't. R. Reynolds

HON. ROB'T R. REYNOLDS
U. S. SENATOR FROM NORTH CAROLINA

In a recent independent survey, an overwhelming majority of lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc., who said they smoked cigarettes, expressed their personal preference for a light smoke.

Senator Reynolds' statement verifies the wisdom of this preference and so do leading artists of radio, stage, screen and opera, whose voices are their fortunes, and who choose Luckies, a light smoke. You, too, can have the throat protection of Luckies—a light smoke, free of certain harsh irritants removed by the exclusive process "It's Toasted". Luckies are gentle on your throat.

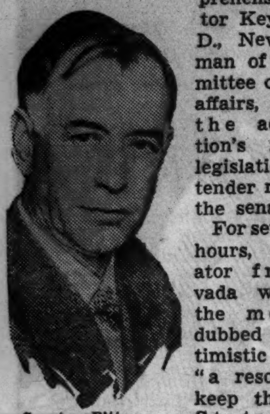
SENATE LEADERS OPEN ATTACK ON NEUTRALITY BILL

Borah Analyzes Dangers to U. S. in Proposal.

BY WILLARD EDWARDS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., March 1.—[Special.]—With certain well founded apprehensions Senator Key Pittman D., Nev.], chairman of the committee on foreign affairs, offered the administration's neutrality legislation to the tender mercies of the senate today.



Senator Pittman.

For several long hours, the senator from Nevada winced as the measure, dubbed in an optimistic moment "a resolution to keep the United States out of foreign wars," was subjected to the critical analysis and the biting oratory of some of the senate's leaders.

The proposed act brought forth from his den Senator William E. Borah [R., Idaho], who displayed something of his old time verbal vigor as he proclaimed the measure more likely to involve us in a world war than keep us out of one. Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg [R., Mich.], also criticized the discriminatory powers granted the President under the bill, although he indorsed other provisions of the act.

Concedes Policy Is New.

In explaining the measure, Senator Pittman admitted the resolution proposed an entirely new peace policy for the government and goes beyond any legislation ever adopted by this or any other country.

"It was the new provision known as the "cash and carry" clause, however, which aroused the ire of Senator Borah. This part provides that belligerent nations may buy supplies from the United States only in this country and that they must transport them in their own ships.

"This section makes us an ally of Great Britain on the Atlantic side and of Japan on the Pacific side in the event of a future war," Borah asserted. "Only those two nations could come to this country for supplies because they have the navies to protect shipments.

"Let us suppose that Great Britain or Japan had their backs to the wall and another nation, at war with them, came over here to purchase supplies. Would they stand idly by? It would merely transfer the scene of war from the high seas to our own ports."

Attacks Discretionary Powers.

Senator Vandenberg argued that the bill gives too much discretion to the President in deciding what commodities shall or shall not be prohibited from sale.

"No matter how faithfully any President may fully desire the objectives sought in this legislation, it would, in my opinion, be impossible for him to use these powers without involving us in a controversy," he declared.

Vandenberg said he would propose an amendment to the resolution striking out the provisions giving the President such discriminatory powers.

U. S. Loses Appeal to Get $15,000 in Drake Swindle

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals yesterday affirmed Federal Judge Philip L. Sullivan's order requiring the United States' marshal to turn over $15,000 to Attorney Edward J. Hess and Attorney George Crane. The money was seized two years ago from Otto G. Yant, a defendant in the Sir Francis Drake estate swindle. The government had appealed the order.

N. U. PROFESSOR NAMED TO HEAD U. S. AIR BUREAU

Senate Inquiry Adviser Succeeds Vidal.

Fred D. Fagg Jr., professor at Northwestern university's McKinlock campus law school, air law expert, and member of the Illinois aero commission, was appointed director of the federal air commerce bureau in Washington yesterday to succeed Eugene Vidal, who resigned Sunday. Secretary of Commerce Roper said the appointment was the first step in reorganizing the bureau.

Prof. F. D. Fagg Jr.

Assistant to Fagg will be Maj. R. W. Schroeder, also of Chicago, who for four years has been chief of the airline inspection service under Vidal.

Victory for Senator Copeland.

Appointment of Prof. Fagg is regarded in Washington as capitulation by Secretary Roper to Senator Royal S. Copeland, head of the senate's air committee, who has severely criticized the secretary of commerce and Vidal for more than two years. Fagg and Dean Emeritus John H. Wigmore of Northwestern university law school were legal advisers to Senator Copeland's committee during the investigation of the bureau after the air crash in which Senator Bronson Cutting was killed in 1934.

Prof. Fagg, who is 40 years old, was born in Brooklyn. He became associated with aviation during the war when he served as a second lieutenant with the 92d aero squadron in France. After the war he returned to the United States and received his law degree from Northwestern university in 1927. He also attended University of Redlands in California and received an M. A. degree at Harvard university.

Formed Air Law Institute.

For two years he taught law at the University of Southern California and in 1929 went to Germany as exchange professor to the air law institute at Konigsberg. Returning in 1930 he joined the Northwestern university faculty. With the aid of funds from the Guggenheim foundation he sponsored organization of the institute of air law at Northwestern and became managing director of the university's Journal of Air Law.

Mrs. Lillian Blaum, 39 years old, 2350 Bloomingdale avenue, and seven of her children, who are on relief, were saved after being overcome by coal gas in their home yesterday. Their rescuers were Roy Bray, 1701 West 35th street, a WPA worker, and fellow employés, who carried the victims into the fresh air. The children are Grace, 8 months old; Ruth, 2; Esther, 4; Rita, 8; Raymond, 13; Dorothy, 16, and Florence, 18. The three last named are by a former marriage. Mrs. Blaum and her second husband, Herbert, separated a week ago.

ARMY AIR CRASH HERE LAID TO ICE AND STEEP TURN

A coroner's jury yesterday decided that an accumulation of ice on the plane and an attempt to make a steep turn which resulted in loss of flying speed at a height of less than 500 feet were contributing factors in the accident which caused the deaths on Saturday of two air corps reserve flyers. Their machine crashed near the Chicago airport.

The two victims, Clyde H. Wood Jr. and John P. Spake, were co-pilots employed by United Air Lines. Both were second lieutenants.

The jury also reported that the maneuver immediately preceding the accident was attempted in order to avoid passing near a large commercial transport plane. Testifying at the inquest, Jack Knight, flyer of the transport, said his plane was picking up ice at the time. He said he believed the training plane would have picked up more because it had been flying longer. He said also that ice causes a plane to become loggy and tends to cause it to stall. Army authorities attended the inquest. They will make a separate investigation.

AN EYE THAT NEVER SLEEPS

A tiny gleam appears on the far horizon . . . yet in that instant the Lookout has its bearing. He sounds one stroke of the bell, and "Light one point on the starboard bow, sir," he telephones to the bridge . . . his eyes intent still on the sea's vast arc. On the bridge, officers of Cunard White Star train their binoculars . . . take a bearing by the compass card. From the bearing of the approaching vessel's side light they know at once that she is heading far to starboard, but they watch until she is finally past and clear. With them, and with the Lookout, the actions are instinctive . . . routine details of seamanship . . . yet eloquent all the more of the vigilance and thoroughness which, for centuries, have stamped the British mariner's code. You will meet the counterpart of this code among all those who serve you. Time and again you are delighted by some small, thoughtful attention: your steward's memory for a preference in cuisine, the care a stewardess shows in laying out a gown. These men and women carry on a charm of hospitality which is also part of the British tradition, and which, for nearly a century, Cunard White Star have been perfecting in their ships at sea.

THE CONVICTION OF DR. TOWNSEND.

Dr. Francis E. Townsend of old age pension fame was found guilty of contempt of the house of representatives by a District of Columbia jury on one count. The presiding judge ruled that he had not refused to appear before the Bell committee investigating pension plans and directed a verdict of not guilty on that charge. The jury was against him on the count that he walked out of the committee room while he was being questioned. Some time ago two of Dr. Townsend's aids, J. B. Kiefer of Chicago and Clinton Wunder of New York, appearing for trial, made their submission and apologies for their conduct and were fined $100 each, sentenced to a year in jail, and put on probation.

Dr. Townsend's conviction will be appealed for a higher court ruling. After the verdict he said he thought he had been done an injustice, that he had welcomed the opportunity to appear before the committee to tell about his pension plans and that he walked out because he wasn't being treated right. Congressional investigations have earned notoriety for the unfairness and brutality with which they are conducted. Their pretext is that information useful in the making of laws is to be obtained and, with this as an excuse, congressional politicians intimidate opponents by putting them on the witness stand where they are treated without any respect for their rights.

Nothing protects the witness. There are no rules of procedure; there's no examining magistrate or presiding judge to whom the victim can look for fair treatment. The committee consists of men acting as police, prosecutors, judges, and executioners. They seek to humiliate the man they don't like, to get such answers as they think will help themselves and hurt the other fellow, to develop half truths and not allow the whole truth to come out.

This system of inquisition has been used to teach citizens that it is dangerous to oppose congress and important politicians in congress. Dr. Townsend was trying to build himself and his organization into a standing of political influence and some of the politicians were afraid he might make them some trouble. Therefore they started to investigate him, and he, being a simple-minded sort of public character, thought he could protect himself from unfair questioning and bulldozing conduct. He did what any American citizen certainly would feel like doing, put on his hat, walked out, and refused to come back.

The pity of it is that when a citizen tries to protect himself against the unfairness of such investigations he finds that he's in the hands of men who can do as they please and make him submit to it. Most of these congressional investigations disclose abuses of power which are all the worse because the citizens subjected to them are not protected by any form of law. Out of these abuses America begins to get political prisoners.

THE FUTURE OF THE DIONNES.

David Croll, Ontario's minister of welfare, is resigning his job as special guardian and business manager for the Dionne quintuplets. He has run their fortune from less than $30,000 to more than half a million dollars and contracts already signed assure that another $200,000 will be earned in the next two years.

In asking to be relieved, Mr. Croll told the provincial legislature that "the ballyhoo days are over." Ballyhoo, he said, was all right as long as the children didn't know it was going on, but now that they are beginning to understand, ballyhoo must cease.

From this it would appear that Mr. Croll knows more about making contracts and investing money than he does about some other things. The Dionnes are fated to live amid ballyhoo and to die amid ballyhoo. Ballyhoo will attend their downsitting and their uprising. They haven't a chance to escape it ever, as long as they live. Curiosity will always seek them out; cupidity will seek to profit from the curiosity.

Quite likely they will not mind. Certainly they can expect to live comfortably on their present fortune and their future earnings. But they can never live anything remotely like the "normal family life" which Mr. Croll talks about. There isn't a chance. Their cottage hospital is already a place of pilgrimage, one of Ontario's most prosperous industries. It will always be so as long as women are interested in lyings-in and babies and as long as sideshows attract the public.

Of course, if the quintuplets have the misfortune to grow up to be sensitive, their lives will be accursed. They were born to be public characters and it is their fate—a kind of Greek fate—to live as public characters whether the rôle pleases them or not. Prince Edward could tell them a thing or two about what lies in store for them. For their own peace of mind it is to be hoped that they have the temperaments and nerves to accept the estate to which they have been called with calmness, good humor and dignity.

Some people, after only a few weeks or months in the limelight, become permanently unbalanced by the experience. They think they are interviewed because they are wise and snapshot because they are beautiful. They think that the public interest in them results from their own intrinsic worth. Harry Thaw called at this office years ago during a national convention to be interviewed on the political issues of the day; he was obviously puzzled and a little hurt that no attention was paid him and the little essay on the progressive spirit in national government which he had brought with him. That is only one example among scores which will occur to every experienced newspaper man.

The Dionnes, with a little luck, will escape that kind of aberration. They were born to the front page and should be fairly secure against its unstabilizing force if only because they will always live on the front page. What they say and what they look like will be of continuing interest. They will not become forgotten celebrities. The chances are they will lead contented if not enviable lives.

ELEVATED HIGHWAYS.

With many smaller cities constructing or planning safety thoroughfares it is shocking to realize that the building of Chicago elevated highways is being prevented by selfish interests which ignore the safety of thousands. Criticisms that have been filed lack reasonable argument and good sense.

We are told that elevated highways adjoining elevated railroads will furnish obstructions to cross transportation. But the railroad is already there. The objection that they will darken streets is of the same cloth.

Miles of the projected superhighways will parallel and become part of the present "L" structures. As with the steam railroads, the present steelwork or earth fillings will furnish a substantial part of the right of way, and those who blind themselves to the simplicity of such an arrangement are showing disregard for human life.

At the lower right hand corner of the page is shown a perspective of an existing railroad or elevated structure with an added section of an elevated highway. The diagram will assist the readers in visualizing the easy access to the western sections of the city that will be made possible by the elevated highways. Through the elimination of pedestrian crossings, left hand turns, level intersections, and the segregation of opposing streams of trafic, a safe flow of vehicles can be assured.

CHICKENS ON THE WAY HOME.

A detachment of Connecticut state troopers saved the federal government, particularly Secretary Perkins of the labor department, from an embarrassing dilemma last week. They ejected sitdown strikers who had taken possession of the plant at Groton, Conn., where six submarines are being built for the navy.

The chickens whom the secretary of labor blessed during the General Motors strike, with the declaration that the sitdown technic had not been established as illegal, were on their way home to roost. While the Groton sitdown was not aimed directly against the government, it took place in a plant engaged largely, if not wholly, on government contracts. When the state troopers acted the plant manager was already calling for marines to protect government property.

While the dispatches do not say so, it is to be presumed that to get its federal contracts the plant had qualified under the minimum wage, maximum work week, and other conditions of the Walsh-Healey act.

The strike was called by agents of Mr. Lewis' C. I. O., principally to force recognition of a C. I. O. union, while preparations were being made for a referendum of employés in the plant to determine whether they wished to be represented by that union or one sponsored by the company.

Reports differ as to whether union or company officials were responsible for blocking the election. Each side lays the blame on the other. This, however, is less material than the fact that both the Wagner labor act and Connecticut state law provide peaceful methods of determining the will of a majority of employés as to union representation. The C. I. O. representatives at Groton appear to have placed themselves in the position of claiming guarantees of collective bargaining under the laws while spurning the peaceful machinery provided by the same laws for achieving that end.

Such legislation as the Walsh-Healey and Wagner acts, as now written, imposes severe responsibility on employers and little, if any, on employés. Those who seek the benefits of those acts, while still inciting the industrial conflict which they were designed to prevent, are doing the one thing most likely to cause amendments to the statutes extending the federal control now sought over employers to employés as well. A glance at the government run labor unions of Italy and Germany should convince labor leaders that this is the last thing they, or any one else, want to see in this country.

Editorial of the Day

WORDS, NOT FACTS.

[Dallas Morning News.]

"Interrupting a lengthy speech by Senator Ashurst, who introduced the bill prepared by the administration to put six new justices on the Supreme court, Senator Joseph T. Robinson said: 'There is a strongly organized force seeking to control every publicity agency in the United States to cry down this plan for the reorganization of the judiciary as something unfair and subversive.' "—Associated Press.

The language of the Arkansas senator is characteristic of the unfortunate tendency of the New Deal to meet criticism with vituperation, to assail all opposition as "economic royalism," criminal interest, the money power, or what have you? It is effective campaigning with the far too many who refuse to seek facts behind words.

There is a strong force crying down the plan for the reorganization of the judiciary as something unfair or subversive. It is discernible in editorial criticism of packing the Supreme court in newspapers which supported Mr. Roosevelt for reëlection. It is so far from organized that it began the day the President threw his reorganization bombshell in his message to congress and it has continued without spur.

What organization there is has been formed in defense of the proposal and is represented by the daily statement of Roosevelt spokesmen, faithfully reported by the great news services and published by a fair-minded American press that believes in presenting both sides of any important national question.

Senator Robinson has, of course, the opportunity to prove his words. Let him define the "strongly organized force" or admit that he has indulged his imagination in libel of the honest conviction of those who believe packing the court is a process that will undermine the stability of the constitution.

RIDGE ROAD WINTER GALLERY.

The ridge road is a lonely trail; it feels
The winter's mood upon it at this hour.
Scarcer and scarcer grow the passing wheels,
It seems an age since any roadside flower
Bent in the wind; the sumacs are so bare
I try in vain to think of how they spread
Their autumn plumes along this hillside where
The last few ferns stood impotent and dead.

Men came today and took a fodder shock,
The last one left of all the seven score
Which stood like tepees; I have missed the flock
Of quail which lingered here a month or more.
I came each day all winter just to see
What etchings winter might have hung for me.

"Never Mind the Surgeon; Call a Joiner!"
(Waukon, Ia., Republic and Standard.)

Archie Dickson didn't even bother to call a doctor Saturday when he fell down the cellar stairs at his home and broke his leg.

The break was in the ankle joint of his artificial leg and Archie replaced the joint with one from an old limb and was out on the street within an hour.

Having a wooden leg has its compensations.

DORCY, who transmits the item, tells how another Archie astonished a yokel from the big city who stopped at the gas station where No. 2 works. One of this Archie's socks kept rolling down over his shoe, which annoyed him so much that he seized a hammer and a tack and viciously fastened the sock with resounding whacks to his leg. "I guess that'll hold you!" he cried. It was the traveling man who needed a doctor after viewing this operation.

SIR: Heaven forbid that I should mention it prematurely, but it begins to look like zero represents the unknown quantity in Chicago this winter. Red M.

BLEEDING HEART.

I tied a ribbon to my heart,
And hung it on my sleeve,
For all who needed sympathy,
For any who might grieve.
And now it is all bruised and torn;
To my chagrin I found
The ones I thought would profit most
Were kicking it around.
Margaret Lockerbie Richards.

SOMETHING HAS HAPPENED.

Isn't it about time I reported on the state of Prophetstown? You remember, the mayor received a threat to blow up the town. Well, it isn't blown up yet, but old Rock river has been on a rampage and every one along the river is going about by boat. One old river rat who resides on an island refused to leave. A rescue party rowed over and found him calmly cooking flapjacks with water whirling around his knees. The rescuers had to use a lot of persuasion to get him out. . . . One of our up and coming boys who has always been attired in the height of fashion owns three farms in the river bottom. He has been going around all week in muddy clothes and a worried expression. Guess he had to move a few hogs or got in the way while they were being moved. B. R. J.

YOUTH AND AGE.

Saw piece in the Line concerning old age successes of Verdi, Titian, etc. This reminded me of Bryant's Thanatopsis at 17, Alex the Great's conquest of the world at 30, Keats' poem on Chapman's Homer at 21, that feller Feller who tied the American league strikeout record at 17, and Byron, who died at 36. And then, there was a Tenn. gal who married at 9.

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP)—The senate Friday passed and sent to the white house the Summers bill to permit supreme court members to retire voluntarily on full pay at 10 years of age.

"PEPLESS"? LOOK TO BLOOD PRESSURE.
(Part II.)

In yesterday's article on low blood pressure the influence of lack of exercise and underweight were stressed particularly. But these factors alone cannot account for the state of affairs in all cases. Certainly some functions of the body must be grossly altered or perhaps some glandular secretions may be deficient or lacking.

If we take a cross-section of society between the ages of 20 and 50 we will discover that from 3 to 5 per cent of these perfectly healthy people will show blood pressures considerably below the average. Furthermore, Brower has reported a curious situation among bank clerks, namely, that 38 per cent of the men and 58 per cent of the women—who are otherwise normal—exhibit hypotension.

The explanation lies probably in the fact that their daily activities demand but a minimum expenditure of energy. There is little moving about and the procedures which engage many of them are monotonous. Here is a typical example of a group of persons leading sedentary lives. They are well but because the need does not exist blood is pumped to the tissues under a low tension.

Again, these individuals are likely to be poor breathers, that is, the amount of air taken with each respiration is relatively small. Many are narrow chested and the total amount of oxygen imbibed per minute may be but half or two-thirds that of the more active man or woman of the same age, size, and weight. As a whole, then, we look upon this fairly populous group as possessing relatively low vitality.

Of course, certain disease states may be responsible. If a careful physical examination shows a lack of thyroid secretion or a decreased output of the adrenal glands, if diabetes is present, we can account without difficulty for the condition. In shock, resulting from an accident or a burn or some surgical operation, we realize that the blood pressure falls and serves as a signpost of the patient's condition.

Granted that there is no disease to explain the situation, every low blood pressure sufferer must begin at once to renew his reserve. This means more sleep and rest and scrupulous attention to diet and clothing. Exercise is all important. It must be begun gradually and increased to the point where it can be carried out with zest and interest. Medicines are not indicated. For the most part they are useless and certainly no stimulants should be employed. Ultraviolet is of value and it may be used to the point where it will result in a slow tanning of the skin.

Massage and heat [physiotherapy] should be our chief reliance. This is exercise in disguise and a well conducted program of muscle manipulation will drive out wastes, increase the circulation, and bring new tone to tired muscles. Of course, infections should be cared for and more than ordinary precautions taken to avoid colds and bronchial attacks. The patient must be roused out of a sitting life but not so abruptly that undue fatigue will ensue. I have occasionally observed the good effects of a well balanced, full vitamin diet. Nothing is so certain to result in prostration and weakness as a fad diet from which meat or some other essential food has been eliminated.

If the blood is examined for sugar many of these individuals will show a low level and it is interesting sometimes to observe the response made by increasing the quantity of sugar used in each 24 hours. Forced sugar feeding, aided by insulin, may be a desirable procedure.

We may say, then, that the symptom of low blood pressure in health means a longer but slower and less productive life. The victim can have loads more fun if through attention to general hygienic measures the circulation can be brought to the point where blood is passing through the arteries in a somewhat increased volume. To those with high blood pressure we have stated repeatedly that they will probably lead shorter but more active lives.

"HARDENING" BABY.

A. C. writes: My sister thinks her infant is too old to be babied at 4 months, and lets him lie in the crib after his bath with just his shirt and diaper, stockings, booties, and a thin blanket. After he finishes his bottle he is very restless and won't sleep. His hands and feet are always cold and he sneezes a lot. He wets 12 to 14 diapers a day. I was taught to wrap a baby well after bathing so that he would go to sleep, but my sister says she is going to harden her youngster. Her apartment is rarely 68, and an adult does not feel comfortable unless the gas stove is on.

REPLY.

The so-called "hardening" process may be overdone in an adult, and may be criminal when practiced on a baby. A cold baby may soon be a sick baby. The room should be well ventilated and the temperature kept between 70 and 75. The child should be fully clothed or warmly covered.

DIZZINESS IN CHILD.

Mrs. S. C. writes: My 6 year old girl complains of aches in her arms and legs and dizziness. She is awakened with nausea and dizziness. In her last attack she started at about 6 a. m. with dizziness, a stomachache, and nausea. She regurgitated about ten times before 9 a. m. Her temperature was below normal. After this she fell into a deep sleep and awoke feeling fine and with a normal temperature. Her height is standard and she seems well otherwise.

REPLY.

Children are subject to digestive upsets. Be sure that the diet is well balanced. If the difficulty occurs again you should have her examined by a child specialist. Has she ever had earache, followed by a discharge of pus?

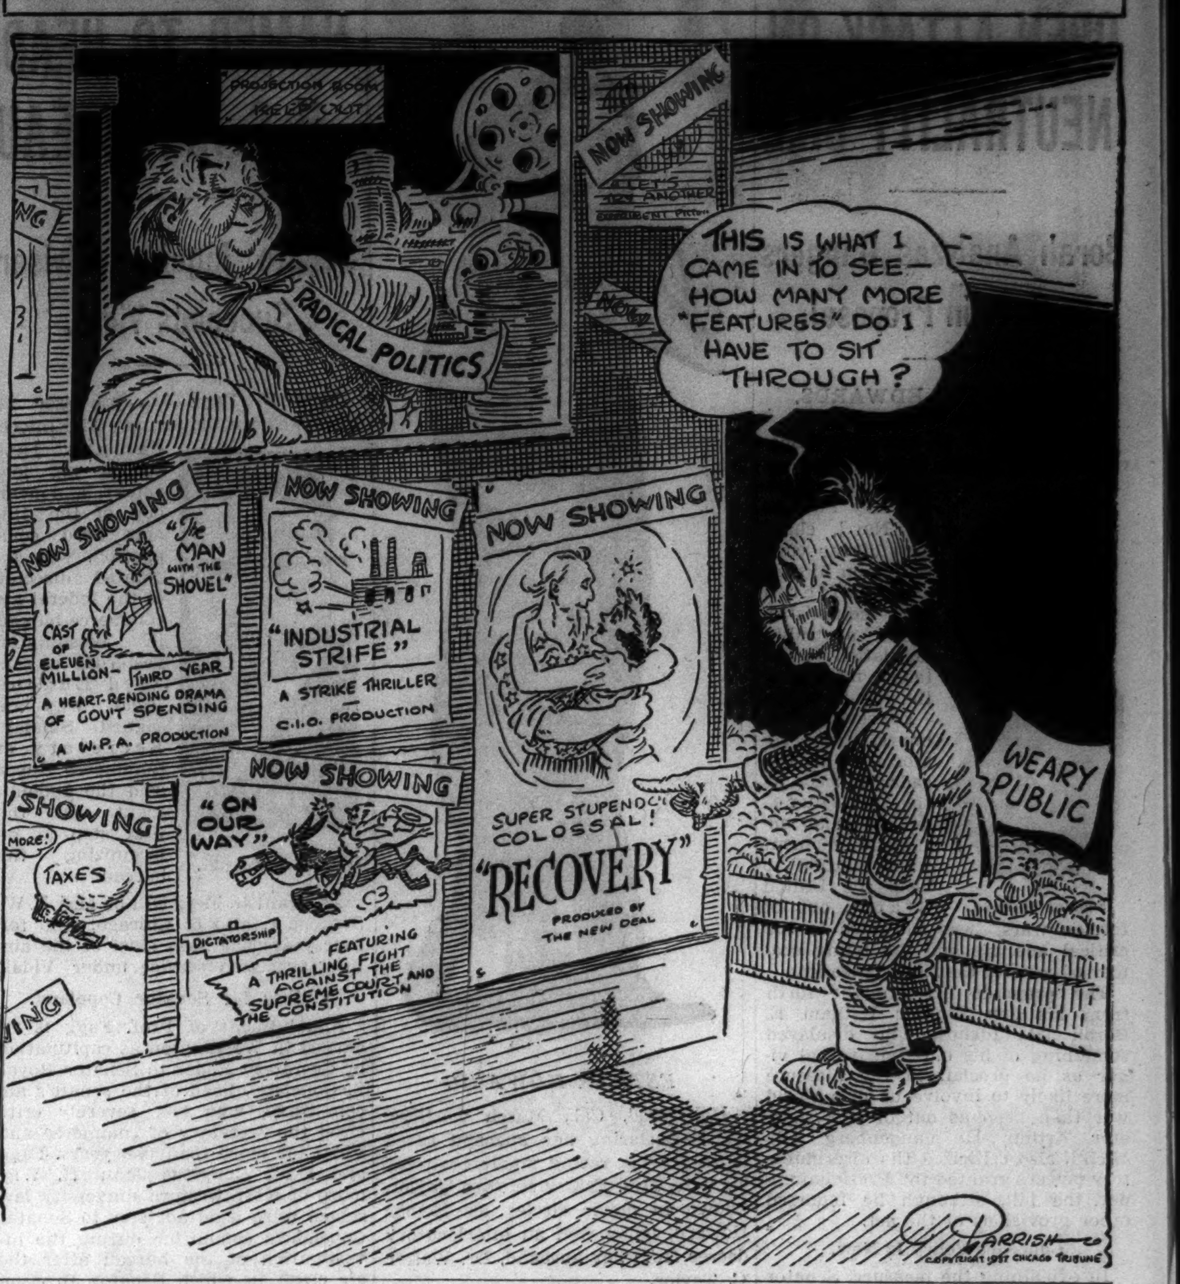
DRIED FRUITS.

F. E. A. writes: How do raisins and other dried fruits compare in value with the fresh fruits from which they are made?

REPLY.

Dried fruits are more nutritious, pound for pound, as water has been eliminated. The dried date is a staple article of diet of Arabs and Egyptians. Dried figs, weight for weight, are more nourishing than bread. Nevertheless, a dried fruit diet—if continued for a time—would soon prove unpalatable and indigestible. Every one should use a balanced menu containing all the essential food elements.

THE FELLOW WHO STARTED DOUBLE FEATURES WAS A PIKER



From the Tribune's Columns
20 Years Ago Today

MARCH 2, 1917.

WASHINGTON.—Unless the Berlin government promptly establishes its innocence of the charge of plotting to incite Japan and Mexico to war upon the United States, the American people soon may find themselves at war with Germany. President Wilson confirmed the published version of Foreign Minister Zimmerman's note containing the plot instructions as authentic and said the note itself is in the possession of this government.

LONDON.—The Germans are still swinging rapidly out of the Arras salient. Today the British advanced their line an average distance of 600 yards on a front of one and a half miles north of Miramount.

WASHINGTON.—The administration's measure empowering President Wilson to arm American ships and appropriating $100,000,000 for the purpose was passed by the house of representatives by a vote of 403 to 13.

PARIS.—Germany has a fleet of 100 battleship submarines, heavily armed and capable of bombarding seacoast cities and fortifications, according to a disclosure said to have been made by Admiral de Gouey of the French navy in a recent secret session of the French parliament. It is not impossible, experts say, that these submarines would be used along the American coast.

PEKING.—The French minister and the Belgian chargé d'affaires, representing the entente allies, have invited China to enter the war, offering her remission of the Boxer indemnity and a revision of the tarif as inducements. A cabinet crisis is imminent. The vice president and the premier are urging China to join the entente.

WINNIPEG.—In the Canadian official casualty list issued tonight Private George Boehn of Chicago is reported as having been killed in action while fighting in the ranks of the Canadian expeditionary force on the Somme front.

NEW YORK.—Withdrawal of all the Cuban military revolutionary leaders from public life has been offered President Menocal of Cuba in return for action on his part "to preserve independence and liberty" in Cuba and prevent American intervention in Cuba's affairs, it was announced here by Dr. Orestes Ferrara, speaker of the Cuban house of representatives.

WASHINGTON.—Spurred on by the latest developments in the international situation which have served to bring war nearer to the United States, the navy department is sparing no efforts to get the naval forces of the nation ready for war, officials of the department said.

DISTRIBUTION OF ESTATE.

Chicago, Feb. 26.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—My uncle in Brooklyn died two years ago leaving a will and some property. I am one of the beneficiaries. I received a copy of the will about a year and a half ago. The lawyer in New York wrote me it would take more than nine months or a year for the distribution.

It is now two years and he writes there is nothing done about it yet as [1] there is property to sell. But a church in New York was also named in the will and I wrote to the priest and asked if he received his share. He said he did about a year ago. The rest included in the wil' are in Europe. I cannot contact them, but the lawyer in New York tells me almost nothing about the affairs of the estate.

2. Why don't I receive my share and what action do you recommend? J. C.

1. If you are to receive cash and there is not enough cash available to pay the legacies then, obviously, the legacies cannot be paid until steps have been taken to realize cash. The lawyer in charge is in a better position to advise you than we are.

2. You might try writing to the clerk of the court in which the estate is being probated, asking him to bring pressure to bear to force closing of the estate.

HOW TO HANDLE A SITDOWN.

Chicago, Feb. 24.—My son started those sitdown strikes thirty-five years ago when he was 3 years old. If things didn't go his way he would sit right down in the middle of a boulevard and refuse to move until I gave him a nice little warm spanking that always worked wonders. Now I'm not offering any advice to our dear Uncle Sam, but I'm just wondering. ANNE JESTY ROGERS.

THE CITY'S TREASURE HOUSES.

Aurora, Ill., Feb. 25.—Your city has some of the more wonderful sights the general public at some time hopes to see. I refer to the planetarium, the aquarium, the Field museum, and several other places of interest.

In cities like Aurora the public endlessly seek entertainment in theaters with their primitive idea that noise and banter satisfy our desire for entertainment.

On visiting Chicago recently I visited these places. I can truthfully say, although I grew very tired, I thoroughly enjoyed myself, more than I have for a long time. If more people would visit Chicago oftener they would really find entertainment, enjoyment, and knowledge of the more educational things of life.
MISS MARIE BAUDREAU.

OXYGEN.

Sioux City, Ia., Feb. 22.—I read with interest your article on the oxygen room in Passavant hospital. As a former writer myself I want to say that it is perhaps the best technically descriptive article I ever read.

I would appreciate it very much if you could give an estimate of the cost of the oxygen room. I have some friends who recently lost a brother and I want to memorialize him and I think this would be an excellent means. N. C. GRAY,
St. Joseph's Hospital.

BY THY RIVERS GENTLY FLOWING.

Oak Park, Ill., Feb. 24.—Radio announcers, if not natives of Illinois, should be taught the correct pronunciation of the word "Illinois." Just recently over a Chicago station a very nice program was being broadcast. About half way through the program the announcer made his announcement, using the word "Illinois" a number of times, which he pronounced "Illinoise." JOHN WEHMAN.

SUBSIDIES.

Chicago, Feb. 19.—I noticed a recent news item that Chicago may lose the center of the passenger plane business unless the taxpayers give the air companies better fields to do business in. Did the taxpayers build the 65 million dollar Union station for the railroads, and do the railroads pay their taxes on this property they own and their right of way? Let them build their own air fields and pay taxes like every other corporation does on their property.

The interstate trucking and air lines have been getting away with plenty. All the capital needed to operate a truck is the truck. The taxpayer furnishes the right of way and terminals for them. No wonder they can cut rates and chisel business away from corporations that pay taxes and give an existence to some 800,000 persons.

If they are going to depend on Chicago's taxpayers to give them their depots as far as I am concerned they can go to any other place they want, the farther away the better. Why not an all-water route for the planes New York to Los Angeles?

The city of Chicago, with assistance of some state tax funds, is now going to widen State street from 11th to Archer avenue, and widen Archer avenue and do extensive paving of these streets so the air lines can get to and from their fields. Maybe the taxpayer should buy their planes and all they would have to worry over is collecting the cash for mail and passengers.

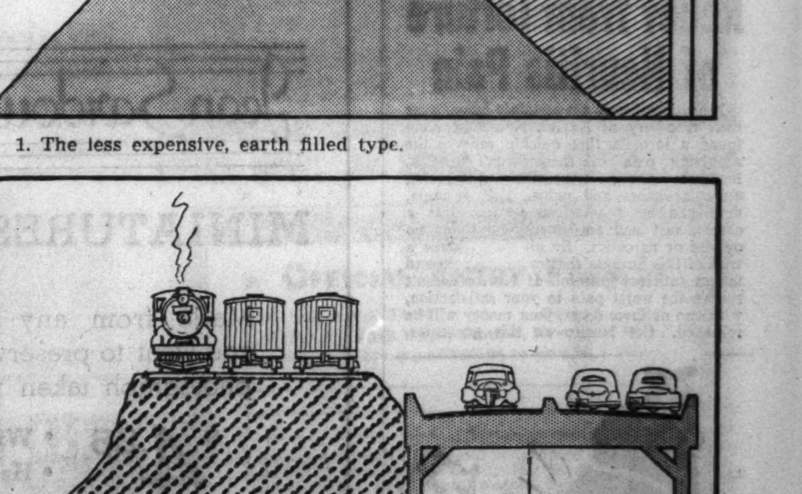
I now pay taxes of $352 on a nonincome home. If they raise the taxes on this any more I am going to get myself a nice cheap trailer home. Move out in the summer and in during the winter, and a nice cheap vacation trip on free roads. TAX SCREWY.

ONE STEP FARTHER.

Chicago, Feb. 24.—If the President succeeds in packing the Supreme court and making it a rubber stamp, the same as he has done with the house of representatives and the senate, I favor a movement to do away with the Supreme court, the house of representatives and the senate, thereby saving the tremendous cost of their upkeep, and correspondingly reducing our taxes. L. S. K.

Chicago's Elevated Highway System That Must Come

1. The less expensive, earth filled type.



2. The two level highway type.

Elevated roadways adjacent to existing railway or "L" structures may be built without substantially widening the present facilities. They will not form barriers to intercourse between different sections of the city, darken the streets or decrease property values, which are the principal objections raised by those who would defeat the plan and continue the massacre on Chicago's streets. See editorial.

STOP THAT COLD THE FIRST DAY!

Give It No Chance to Survive Thru the Use of Half-way Measures!

Let no cold get the start on you! The so-called "common cold" is the start of more serious trouble than anything else.

The moment a cold appears, act to kill it, not merely to suppress it!

Depend on no half-way measures. A cold, being an internal infection, must be got at from the inside.

Treat a cold with a cold preparation, not with a medicine good for all kinds of ailments.

The treatment you want is Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine.

Bromo Quinine is a cold tablet, made expressly for the treatment of colds.

It is also internal treatment and of four important effects.

First, Bromo Quinine opens the bowels, a desirable step in the treatment of colds.

Second, it checks the infection in the system, a vital step.

Third, it relieves the headache and fever.

Fourth, it tones the system and helps fortify against further attack.

Bromo Quinine tablets now come sugar-coated as well as plain. The sugar-coated are exactly the same as the regular, except that the tablets are coated with sugar for palatability.

Take no chances with any cold! The moment you feel a cold coming on, go right to your druggist for a package of Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine.

Begin taking the tablets immediately, two every four hours. That procedure will usually break up a cold the first day and that's the speed you want.

Bromo Quinine contains nothing harmful and is safe to take. Ask for, and insist upon, Grove's Bromo Quinine.

The small cost may save you dollars in medical bills.

SCIENCE TO TAKE LEADING ROLE AT WOMAN CONGRESS

Dr. Compton to Be Second Session Keynoter.

BY RUTH DE YOUNG.

Science and its rôle in present day living will be the theme of the second session of the fourth annual Woman Congress the afternoon of March 10 in the Palmer house.

One of the world's greatest scientists and six other leaders in varied fields will discuss this theme from the standpoint of the home—crime, transportation, and communication. These discussions will be heard by 5,000 women who are coming to Chicago to attend this nonpartisan forum under the sponsorship of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.

Dr. Arthur H. Compton, Nobel prize winning professor of physics at the University of Chicago, is the scientist who will sound the keynote of the session in an address entitled "Can Science Point the Way?"

Installs Fifth Cosmic Ray Station.

Two weeks ago Dr. Compton returned home from Mexico, where he completed the installation of another permanent cosmic ray recording station, the fifth of the chain he is establishing to trace the origin of cosmic rays.

The business as well as the scientific aspect of modern transportation will be treated by leaders in the railroad, aviation, and automobile industries. Ralph Budd, president of the Burlington Lines, will be the spokesman for the railroads. Richard Merrill, pilot for the Eastern Air Lines, will speak for aviation, and Paul Hoffman, president of the Studebaker corporation, will represent the automotive industry.

Thirty-seven Years on Railroads.

For thirty-seven years Mr. Budd has been in the employ of railroads. He came up through the engineering department, having served as chief engineer for the Panama railroad during the construction of the Panama canal. From the job of chief engineer for the Great Northern he succeeded to its presidency in 1919. Mr. Budd will talk on "Railroad Modernization."

Merrill piloted Harry Richman across the Atlantic and back again, and at the end of last December he brought a transport plane down on a mountain side near Port Jervis, N. Y., without injuring any of the eight passengers. These are two of the experiences he will tell about.

Hoffman to Talk on Safety.

As president of Studebaker Mr. Hoffman heads one of the country's oldest vehicle building companies. He has been active in the industry for more than twenty years. This year he heads the trafic committee of the Automobile Manufacturers' association. Mr. Hoffman will dwell particularly on the safety problem of modern motoring in addressing the Woman Congress.

What science has contributed to the solution of crime will be the topic of Hugh H. Clegg of Washington, D. C., assistant director of the federal bureau of investigation.

Inquiries concerning the program will be answered in the Woman Congress headquarters, room 1421, Tribune Tower, or through Superior 0100, local 305.

Speakers for Woman Congress

Ralph Budd. Dr. Arthur H. Compton. Paul G. Hoffman.

The second session of The Chicago Tribune's Fourth Annual Woman congress March 10 and 11 in the Palmer house will be distinguished by the addresses of leaders of science and business.

Dick Merrill. H. H. Clegg.

LIST 61 CONVICTS DUE FOR PAROLE IF THEY GET JOBS

A list of sixty-one convicts now eligible for parole was made public yesterday by Chairman W. C. Jones of the parole board under the new policy of full publicity on all actions of the board. Those named in the list will be eligible for release during the coming month provided they are able to obtain sponsors and promises of employment.

They are convicts who have completed the "setting" fixed for them by the board which fixes a time between the minimum and maximum of the sentences which, under Illinois law, are indeterminate for most crimes. From that "setting" the convicts may earn time off for good behavior. None on the list was notorious and the board members said all are lesser offenders.

One parolee, Michael Luna, 23 years old, 3027 Arthington street, recently released from the Pontiac reformatory, where he served a sentence for burglary, was held to the grand jury on a burglary charge yesterday by Magistrate Frank Pavek of Berwyn.

MAYOR TO PLACE 1ST NEW STREET SIGN THURSDAY

City to Start 2d Hundred Years Reidentified.

Shortly after Chicago begins on its second 100 years as an incorporated city it will be decorated with a complete new set of street signs providing better identification of its thoroughfares than the city has had in all of its first century.

The first signs will be installed by Mayer Kelly at State and Madison street on Thursday, the 100th anniversary of the incorporation.

"These signs will be the more legible of any in the country," said Oscar E. Hewitt, commissioner of public works. "Each sign will be 26 by 5½ inches and the names will appear in 4½ inch black letters on a federal yellow background. The United States bureau of standards says that color combination has greater visibility than any other."

One Sign on Most Corners.

Under the city's contract with the manufacturer, the Federal Electric company of Chicago, 16,862 units will be made. Each street corner will get one unit, but each intersection along State and Madison street will have two as they are the dividing lines for the numbering system. The corner of State and Madison will have four units as the directions stem out in four ways from that intersection.

Chicago has about 16,000 intersections, Hewitt said, but at outlying corners where no one lives signs are to be omitted.

Howard Brodman, chief of the bureau of maps, computed that Chicago has 1,363 street names, including numbers. By the method under which North and South Halsted, for instance, would be counted as two names, the city has 1,727. New York, he said, has 5,000; Philadelphia, 1,914; Baltimore, 3,923; Cleveland, 2,199; Detroit, 2,262; London, 5,350; and Paris within the walls of the city, 1,628.

46 Girls Are Remembered.

Nineteen Chicago streets are named after Presidents; 16 after States; 35 after trees, and 46 after girls. The shortest street names have three letters such as Oak and Ada; the two longest are Oakland Crescent [at 41st street and Ellis avenue] and Midway Plaisance with 15 letters each.

The longest street in Chicago, according to Brodman, is Western avenue with a length of 23½ miles. The shortest one is Armstrong street, which is exactly 86 feet long. It runs westward from Michigan avenue just south of Chicago avenue.

SHANAHAN WIDOW IS ENJOINED FROM HANDLING ESTATE

A further development in the court fight for the $500,000 estate left by State Representative David E. Shanahan on his death last Oct. 18, came yesterday when Circuit Judge Joseph Burke enjoined Mrs. Helen Troesch Shanahan, who claims the estate as the widow, from proceeding as exetrix of the estate under authority of the Probate court.

Judge Burke also denied a motion made by Mrs. Shanahan's attorney, Irwin N. Walker, to dismiss her suit for an accounting which has been pending in Circuit court for several months. The suit is against Miss Mary Flynn and Miss Margaret Flynn, cousins of Shanahan, who claim the estate as the sole heirs.

In an answer filed to the accounting suit the cousins charged that a will ostensibly signed by Shanahan two weeks before his death, was fraudulently drawn. They also allege Shanahan's marriage was void.

BACK INTO CELLS FOR 4 IN O'BRIEN CASE; 5 IN COURT

Back to jail yesterday went four of the men accused of kidnaping Assistant Corporation Counsel Quin O'Brien: James Norman, Joseph Abbatacola, Frank Penicaro, and George Casper. They couldn't raise the bonds of $4,000 each demanded in Felony court, when the arraignment was continued until March 19.

Penicaro lost a battle for freedom on a writ of habeas corpus. The fifth accused man, Dr. William Eustice, a dentist of Elizabeth, attended the arraignment, but he already had won freedom on bonds of $84,000.

Miss Marguerite Eustice, accused by O'Brien of kidnaping him and forcing him to marry her, in conspiracy with the men, announced in Clinton, Ia., that she was coming back to fight the accusation. "You don't kidnap the man you love," she said. She was placed under technical arrest there Sunday.

RECIPES TO END CONSTIPATION

Every woman can protect her family from common constipation by careful menu planning. Often the cause of illness from constipation is lack of "bulk" in the diet.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN supplies this "bulk" in generous quantity.

You can use ALL-BRAN in so many delightful ways. As a ready-to-eat cereal with milk or cream, fruits or honey added. Or make delicious bran muffins and breads—put it into griddle cakes, salads or soups, or over other cereals.

Just be sure each member of your family gets two tablespoonfuls every day—and forget the illness caused by constipation. Serve three times daily, in severe cases.

You can also forget pills and drugs that nobody likes to take—and that so often fail unless the dose is constantly increased.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN also supplies vitamin B to help tone the intestines, and iron for the blood. Sold by all grocers. Made and guaranteed by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Basque sources here said Jessica Lucy Freeman-Mitford, 19 years old, and Esmond Romilly, 18 years old, whom the London foreign office wants to warn not to wed, had been in Bilbao, Spain, since Feb. 19—"very much in love and full of anti-Fascist ardor."

The Basques said it was a "romance of love and war," and that "Romilly told us before he left here they were going to marry in Bilbao." They did not know, though, whether the couple had really wed.

Jessica Lucy is the daughter of British Lord Redesdale, who thought she was visiting Romilly's parents, Col. and Mrs. Bertram Romilly, at Dieppe. Romilly, who left school to enlist in the Madrid international brigade, is a red headed nephew of Winston Churchill.

Fulfillment

No one knows when man first dreamed of independence, security . . . an individual home.

But history records the determined mass march of mankind down the centuries to achieve this goal

—until today, in Philadelphia, man's hopes have reached their greatest fulfillment in the Western World.

For Philadelphia is a city where nine out of ten dwellings are single-family homes; a city with more single-family homes than any other in America . . . a city where individual home needs receive first consideration; where the art of joyful, contented living exists in fullest measure.

A Philadelphian buys endlessly for the comforts, conveniences and beauty of his single-family home. He buys all the year around. Winter, spring, summer and fall, each brings its quota of necessities and luxuries that he wants.

Because of these facts Philadelphia offers to the manufacturer of a product for the home the greatest home market in the nation, with continuous opportunity for sales and profits.

Greatest Home Center

Philadelphia has more single-family homes than New York City and Buffalo combined; more than Chicago and St. Louis added together; more than Detroit and Cleveland . . . U. S. Census 1930.
The Bulletin reaches 78.9% of Philadelphia families of every class and income; 89% of families with incomes of $3,000 or more; 94% with incomes of $10,000 or more . . . from survey conducted by the American Association of Advertising Agencies.

And in this vast market is one newspaper—The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin—read in nearly every home, which gives almost complete coverage to the advertiser at one of the lowest costs per reader in America.

The Evening Bulletin's circulation 1936 average daily, 521,057, is all net paid. Prizes, premiums or subscriber contests have never been used. Its circulation far exceeds that of any other Philadelphia daily newspaper, morning or evening; the third largest daily circulation in America.

Talk with your Advertising Agency about the complete and thorough advertising job The Evening Bulletin can do for you in Philadelphia—greatest market of individual homes.

In Philadelphia . . . .
nearly everybody reads The Evening Bulletin

Corn from the Can Fashions Varied Dishes

They're Quickly Prepared and Ideal for Lent.

BY MARY MEADE.

[Copyright: 1937: By The Chicago Tribune.]

Corn has been one of America's chief foods for at least a thousand years, if we can believe the mute evidence of fossilized ears of corn unearthed by geologists. A thousand years ago no white man had yet set foot on the red man's territory.

Science has proved that the American Indian cooked his corn before he ate it. But science can't prove that he preserved his corn for winter use, other than by drying it. That's where we have an advantage over this early American. We have canned corn in abundance, on the ear and off, packed whole, whole kernel, and cream style. Corn on the cob is available to us the year around, and delicious, hearty corn dishes are possible 365 days of the calendar.

Corn and tuna fish casserole is an excellent Lenten dish, and one easy to prepare. Mashed potatoes might be served as a topping for this casserole dish, as well as for the "one dish meal" which follows:

Corn and Tuna Fish Casserole.

2 cups tuna fish
2½ cups cream style corn
2 stalks celery, chopped
2 tablespoons green pepper, chopped
1 egg, beaten
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons chopped pimiento

Combine all ingredients and place in a buttered casserole. Cover the top with buttered crums and bake for 40 minutes in a moderate [350 degrees] oven.

One Dish Meal.

[Corn, Hamburger, Mashed Poatoes.]

1½ pounds hamburger
2 onions, sliced
6 thinly cut green pepper rings
1 No. 2 can corn, cream style
1 can tomato soup
4 strips bacon
Mashed potatoes

Season the hamburger and shape into patties. Brown the onions and green pepper rings in a little fat. Season the corn with salt, pepper, and butter. In a well buttered casserole place alternate layers of hamburger patties, onion and green pepper, corn and tomato soup. Place the strips of bacon over the top, cover, and bake at 350 degrees for an hour. Uncover, spread mashed and well seasoned potatoes over the top of the casserole dish, dot with butter, and return to the oven until the potatoes are brown.

Corn Toast.

[Serves six.]

1 teaspoon minced onion
1½ tablespoons butter
1 cup canned corn [either type]
1 pint heavy cream
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon paprika
6 slices toast

Brown onion in butter, add corn, cream, and seasonings. Bring to boiling point and let simmer for five minutes. Pour the mixture over toast and serve at once.

Corn Stuffed Peppers with Mushrooms

[Serves four.]

4 green peppers
⅓ cup chopped mushrooms
2 tablespoons chopped onion
¼ cup butter
¼ cup fine crums
1 cup canned corn, cream style
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ cup buttered crums

Remove tops and seeds of peppers and parboil peppers for five minutes. Place in custard cups and fill with mixture of onion and mushrooms browned in butter, crums, corn, and seasonings which have been heated together. Top with buttered crums and bake until brown at 400 degrees, basting the stuffed peppers occasionally with milk or butter.

Movie Expert Tells How to Apply Makeup

Go Easy, Watch Shadows, Plea of Mel Berns.

BY MARCIA WINN.

An expert who makes his living by applying makeup to the faces of screen stars yesterday appeared to say — astounding, this! — that he doesn't believe women should use makeup anyway. At least, not much of it.

The expert is Mel Berns, head of the makeup department for RKO-Radio studios in Hollywood, who first became interested in art when working as copyboy for Sidney Smith, late TRIBUNE cartoonist, back in 1911-'12. He spoke before the 14th annual midwest beauty trade show at the Hotel Sherman.

From the beauty standpoint, Mr. Berns pointed out, there are three important features—the three mediums of expression, eyes, eyebrows, and mouth. Yet, he said, many women try to ruin all three by an over-application of makeup.

"I could never go for a pair of lips gooey with lipstick," he said, "and most men feel the same way. Lots of women don't realize that all light comes from above and highlights their lower lip, making it much lighter than the higher. Instead, they apply equal doses of color to each lip."

The less cheek rouge a woman uses the greater her charm, he said. Rouge itself, he explained, is a shadow and unless applied skilfully, merely eccentuates sun wrinkles around the eyes and makes the face dark with shadows.

Eyebrows, too, should be natural. Keep away, he advised, from the pencil line. Remove only those superfluous hairs that grow between brow and eyelid or brow and brow. In coloring, use only a brown pencil, never black.

In applying shadow to the eyelid, greens and blues should be ignored, he said, as there is only one natural color—brown. It, he said, harmonizes with the pigment of the skin.

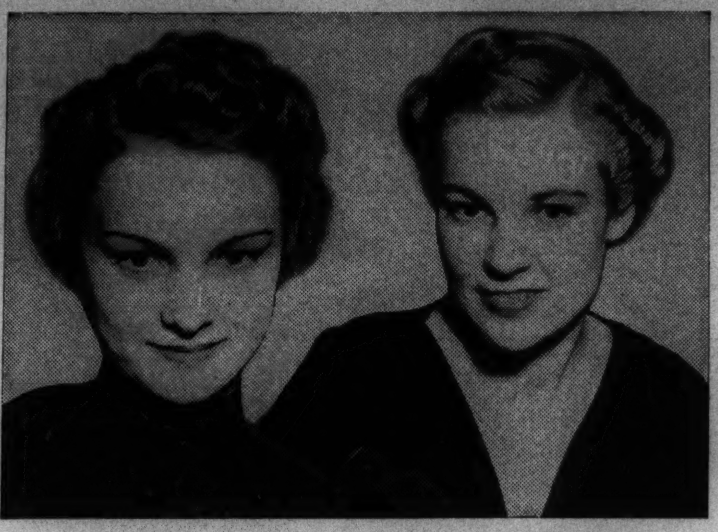
In putting it on, the heaviest part should be applied on the lid next to the lash, then blended upward until there is little, if any, near the eyebrows. Other colors than brown, he said, create unnatural shadows.

"People forget," he said, "that the only effect is the color of your eyes, and there is no reflection of the two colors—so why try and match your eye shadow to your eyes?"

But the ideal woman? She, says Mr. Bern, is the one without powder and with very little liprouge.

"That sort of face has a lot of appeal—for me," he concluded. "I as a man like to see it. It looks so nice and fresh, especially when it comes from behind good soap, water, and a rubbing with a towel."

Hair Styles from Europe



Prize coiffures from the beauty shows in Brussels (left) and from London were reproduced in Chicago yesterday at the midwest beauty trade show. Both emphasize rolls instead of clusters of curls for new hair styles.

Other views of the hairdress winners. The Brussels coiffure was modeled by Betty Sidlow and Helen Wirth displayed the London style.

Elaine Barrie Drops Plea for Temporary Alimony

Artist Group Given Praise at Exhibition

Association of Painters Announce Prizes.

BY ELEANOR JEWETT.

The Association of Chicago Painters and Sculptors has an interesting exhibition in the Chicago galleries, 215 North Michigan avenue, which will continue to March 15. There are many brilliant paintings in the show and several stunning pieces of sculpture.

A third and fourth viewing of the exhibit is necessary for a true appreciation of the worth of the work shown. From Ruth Van Sickle Ford's strong "Portrait Composition" to the beautiful "Tokens of Reverence" by Leo Marzolo a full gamut of subject matter is run.

Prizes have been announced. The gold medal of the association was awarded to the bronze bust of Mrs. Charles McIver by Emory P. Seidel. The Municipal Art league prize went to the same piece of sculpture. This beautiful portrait bust was finished in the new patina for bronze recently created by Mr. Seidel.

The L. L. Valentine prize went to J. Jeffry Grant for the marine "Rockport."

The second L. L. Valentine prize was awarded to John F. Stacey for his beautiful "Misty Morning on the Seine." The Chicago Galleries association first prize was won by "The Bad Egg" by Julius Moessel and the second prize went to Albin Polasek for the terra cotta figure "Man Carving His Own Destiny."

This piece of sculpture bears a strong resemblance to an earlier statue on the same theme by Polasek, which won an important Logan prize in the Art institute several years ago. The Logan prize figure wields a hammer, however, and the present figure holds a stone in his hand with which to strike the chisel.

The second Municipal Art league award was given to Benjamin Kanne for his portrait in oil of Mrs. Ruth Van Sickle Ford.

An exhibition of drawings and water colors by Picasso and Takal has been opened in the Katherine Kuh gallery, Diano Court building. The eighteen drawings and water colors by Picasso range over a chronological period of about fourteen or fifteen years, starting with 1909 and continuing through 1923. These are the years in which Picasso was busy with his cubistic and neo-classic theories.

Takal has not been an exhibitor in America before. He has shown extensively on the continent and particularly in Paris where he lives. He is essentially a draftsman; working occasionally in water color and line still remains his most important medium. His work is delicate, though his message is often bitter.

Hunting Experience.

One time when a young man I was hunting deer. I saw one standing near a tree and shot it. I ran over and took my hunting knife and cut its throat and stuck the knife into the tree. The tree happened to be a Bee tree. The honey started running out, I grabbed up hands full of leaves to plug the hole. In doing so, I accidentally caught a rabbit by the hind leg and it made me so mad I threw it into a brush pile and killed four quail—A. W. W., Calumet City, Ill.

Culbertson's "Gold Book of Bidding and Play"

[Copyright: 1937: By Ely Culbertson.]

The responses to opening suit bids of one, assuming that the intervening opponent has overcalled, are as follows:

1. Pass. Extended to include [a] hands containing adequate trump support but less than four winners, including one honor trick. [b] Suit and no trump take-outs of one containing less than one and a half honor tricks, and all no trump hands lacking a stopper in the opponent's suit. [c] Hands containing lower ranking biddable suits but less than two-plus honor tricks; or, in the case of six card suits, two honor tricks.

For example, partner having opened with one diamond, and second hand having overcalled with one spade, pass the following hands which would have justified responses had there been no intervening bid:

"Dear Mr. Culbertson:

"Will you please state plainly whether five diamonds can be made on this hand against the best defense?—S. W."

If, after the opening lead of a club and continuation, East makes the correct play at the proper time the contract is impossible of fulfilment. Declarer has no choice on this hand except to clear the spade suit. Dummy's ace and king of hearts are completely worthless as tricks, although, of course, they saved declarer from being further ruffed down. Declarer cannot afford to discard on the second club, since he also must lose a spade. Therefore, he must ruff, and his best play is a small spade to the ace and the jack return. East wins with the queen and, if he properly analyzes that the usually unwise play of giving declarer a ruff in one hand and a discard in the other is, in this instance, the essence of wisdom, declarer will be faced with a hopeless task.

On the lead of a third club by East, if declarer ruffs in his own hand he will have shortened himself to four trumps, while East retains five. If dummy's ace of diamonds is used to ruff the third club declarer will have no means of returning to his own hand to draw trumps without losing a trick. Overtaking the nine of diamonds will establish a certain trump trick for East. Leading a spade will allow East to ruff and, finally, for declarer to ruff a heart will, as before, shorten him below East's trump level.

Any other return by East, after winning the spade queen, would be fatal, because it would allow declarer to draw trumps without the loss of a trick.

As my correspondent pointed out in another part of his letter, five spades also could be defeated by the opening lead and ruff of a diamond.

TODAY'S QUESTION.

Question: In a duplicate game, if declarer designates a card in dummy to be played and his partner plays another card, what is the penalty?

Answer: The error must be corrected on demand of any player, if it is corrected before a defender plays. Otherwise, the card played from dummy stands as regular.

Shirley Temple Interviewed by Papal Journal

Declared First Movie Star Asked to Talk.

BY GEORGE SHAFFER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Hollywood, Cal., March 1.—[Special.]—What the Rev. Silvio Masante, of the Order of St. John, declares to be the first movie interview ever requested by the Osservatore Romano, regarded as the Vatican's official newspaper spokesman, took place with Shirley Temple on Friday, it was learned today.

Father Masante is the Italian born pastor of a parish in Sacramento, Cal. He is a special correspondent in this country for the Vatican newspaper.

The clergyman spent the afternoon with Shirley, Shirley's mother, Mrs. George Temple; Shirley's teacher, Miss Frances Klamt, and Shirley's stand-in and chum, Mary Lou Islieb.

The interview opened with the question whether Shirley "had any message for the children of Italy?"

"Yes," said the 7 year old curly head [she'll be 8 on April 23], "tell them, 'hello'."

The padre met Miss Klamt and wanted to know whether Shirley found it difficult to learn. Miss Klamt smiled as she told him that the contrary was true.

Then the churchman interviewed Mrs. Temple for a space. He wanted to know whether Shirley attends Sunday school regularly. This brougnt up a serious point; one that has been bothering the parents of the child star. Mrs. Temple explained that Shirley's popularity had made it impossible for her to attend regularly at any Sunday school, just as it likewise barred her chances of going to public schools, like other youngsters.

It had been found possible, Mrs. Temple went on to say, to take the little girl to the small nondenominational church known as the Village church in the Brentwood suburb.

Mrs. Temple further explained that she personally gives Shirley regular religious instruction.

Father Masante asked whether Shirley desired to visit Italy. Shirley told him that while she thought it would be interesting to do so sometime, she had only a general idea where Italy is.

"We have not come to that in geography," she reminded.

This made the padre chuckle.

Next question was: "Do you speak any Italian?"

Shirley came back with, "No, but I am learning French."

Then, with some pride, "I can speak Chinese."

It was the Osservatore Romano representative's turn to widen his eyes.

"Indeed?" he said.

"Yes," Shirley said, and rattled off a couple of Chinese phrases she had been taught for a recent picture, "Stowaway." [A friend on the set of "Wee Willie Winkle" confides that the Chinese with which Miss Temple bewildered the gentleman of the cloth, meant: "Are we mice or are we men?" but neither the surprised padre nor the proud little girl was aware of that.]

Turning to Miss Klamt Father Masante asked some detailed questions about Shirley's schooling and examined her school books. He said he was curious to know if the child star's emotion carried through after following a movie scene and affected her afterward. Both the school teacher and mother Temple said no; that when Shirley had completed a scene she came running quite naturally to her teacher and took up her lessons where she had left off.

The churchman inspected the portable trailer which serves as dressing room, lunchroom, and schoolroom for Shirley while she is on location.

When time for parting came the little girl, with her unerring instinct for the natural and human thing, signed the notebook on which Father Masante had been jotting his impressions of her. She signed it: "Love. Shirley Temple." The padre looked affected, but turned it off with a remark about Shirley's penmanship.

"Child," he said gently, "your penmanship already is better than mine."

As he left the padre unburdened himself of a secret. He said he was "so very, very happy" that he came to see Shirley. He explained that was because "in Italy as in other countries in Europe there is the persistent rumor that Shirley Temple is no child at all; but that she is a midget." The rumor, he said, probably was so vigorously spread, because many of the common people are unable to understand how such a child could do as many different things as Shirley does in her pictures.

"I have now seen the child," Father Masante said, "and can tell the people the truth."

Angna Enters Great Success in Pantomime

Provides Candid Pictures in Her 'Episodes.'

BY CECIL M. SMITH.

After Angna Enters had presented her mimed portrait of a spoiled, sensuous boy cardinal of sixteenth century Spain at the Civic theater last evening, the audience broke into applause which only a repetition could quiet.

In the course of two leisurely hours, Miss Enters appeared in twelve examples of her unique "episodes and compositions in dance form." This description is confusing and unnecessarily highbrow in sound. For the "episodes and compositions" are realistic candid camera shots of people both now and long ago. America in 1890, Spain in 1550, a mother picnicking with her baby, and a Gothic madonna are all equally her province. She is something of a Cornelia Otis Skinner acting in pantomime, replacing spoken words with authentic costumes and stage properties.

There is not much dancing in most of the "episodes." In fact, to be perfectly blunt, Miss Enters does not seem to be able to dance very well. If this were not the case, I am sure her satire on American theater dancing in 1914 would be much more pungent and much funnier.

The purely pictorial aspect of her pantomime is sensitive to qualities of line and color which are more interesting to a painter than to a dancer. Her whole art is chiefly a series of tableaux connected by the movement it takes to get from one to another. For this reason the most static "episodes" are often the most beautiful. "Queen of Heaven" is a superb summary of the gestures and attitudes with which medieval painters posed their madonnas.

A few of Miss Enters' divertissements are in a vein of precious whimsey. I could not decide whether she lacks a genuine sense of humor or whether I do. Be that as it may, I am sure that her demonstration of the undergarments worn by maiden ladies in 1900 will not stand many repetitions.

Maybe I am just a captious pedant, but I had a good bit of difficulty all evening telling where whimsey left off and where sober art began.

STRING QUARTET

BY EDWARD BARRY.

The Chicago Chamber of Music association brought the Philharmonic String quartet to the foyer of Orchestra hall last night for the fourth program of a five concert series. The Sowerby B Minor quartet was followed by the Mozart B Flat Major; that, in turn by Dvorak's A Major Quintet. Rudolph Reuter, pianist, joined the ensemble for the last work.

By far the most spectacular of these items was the Dvorak Quintet. It is anything but severe. Melodies are obvious, and richly treated. Emotional content is generous. The second and third movements are examples of Dvorak's fondness for national coloring [in this case, Czech], and the music, particularly the Dumka, profits notably by the warmth of a true folk motif.

The widespread belief that the string quartet form is "caviare to the general" should have been shaken a little by last night's Mozart. Certainly there was no sternness here, nothing to suggest the need for a laboriously acquired taste. Its lines were lucid, its tonal beauty an immediate enchantment to the ear.

The performance of Mr. Sowerby's poetic early quartet did not settle the controversy touched upon in John Palmer's program notes—the dispute as to whether the character of the first theme of the third movement suggests the American Indian or the folk tunes of the Trastevere [Italy?]. The composer holds to the latter view—and he should know.

THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS

You must have a beautiful back and beautiful arms to do justice to the new evening gowns. Arms and shoulders can be reduced or developed by correct exercise and a skilful professional treatment or two will make the skin as smooth as the satin of your gown.

Any woman who wears evening clothes frequently owes it to herself and her public to take excellent care of the skin on her arms and her back. And of their shape, too, we might add.

A too fat back, a billowing dowager's hump, or arms that are either much too fat or much too thin can make a Molyneux number look like something you slithered into on your way to a fire. Nothing can destroy chic like structural defects. Perfect clothes are made for perfect figures.

You can get professional treatments that will whittle down the fat. It's a slow process, but it works. If you're underdeveloped, with pipe stem arms, boney neck, and flattened chest, exercise is your dish. Right here in this town there are a couple of exercise geniuses who can fix you up if you'll do your part. We've seen what they can do in the way of changing figures. But we might as well repeat that just wishing doesn't do it. You've got to work at it.

It's fairly simple to beautify the skin of back and arms. It may be that all you need it a little persistent creaming at home. Use any good, rich cream and practically soak in it. If you have scaly skin or rough elbows follow up the creaming with a good scrubbing and hot and cold rinsings, then more cream.

But the best plan is to have professional treatments. One of our favorites begins with a back and arm treatment that involves oiling, massage, and a scrubbing with a mild soap, warm water, and a complexion brush. If bleaching is needed you can have that, too. After just one such treatment you'll find the skin lightened more than a few degrees—and that satin smoothness that does justice to the color and the fabric of your gown is yours.

Visitors Break Lenten Lull of Social Season

Italy-America Society to Give Reception.

BY JUDITH CASS.

JUST as the proverbial Lenten lull is beginning to take effect, the timely arrival of a number of distinguished visitors serves to enliven the social calendar. The Italy-America society today is sending out invitations to a reception for Signor Franco Fontana, the new Italian consul general, on Friday evening, March 12, at the Casino.

The attractive newcomer, like another recent arrival, Emil Baer, the German consul general, is a bachelor, and no doubt will be a welcome addition to the ranks of Chicago's masculine "diners out." He arrived here a week ago from Alexandria, Egypt, his last post.

Folowing the reception Prof. B. L. Ullman of the classical department at the University of Chicago will give an illustrated talk on "New Excavations Made in Italy Under Fascism," dealing with recent discoveries at Rome and Ostia, the ancient port of the capital. This lecture will be of especial interest, inasmuch as the 2,000th anniversary of the birth of Augustus is to be celebrated in September, and the Italy-America society here plans to join in what is to be a world-wide observance of the event.

Prof. Ullman was a professor for a year at the American Academy at Rome, the school supported by Americans for American artists, musicians, historians, and archæologists, which is now headed by Chester Aldrich of New York. Alfred E. Hamill, only Chicago trustee of the academy, will introduce Prof. Ullman. In the absence of Chauncey McCormick, president of the society, who is in Italy, Robert Hall McCormick, just back after two months in Boston, will preside.

The Italy-America society is preparing to welcome three other visitors this spring. Later this month Ercole Locatelli, the New York business man who is minister to the United States from the Republic of San Marino, the world's smallest republic, will come to Chicago as the society's guest, and later in the spring there will be a dinner for the Italian ambassador, Fulvio Suvich, and his lovely, blonde Venetian wife.

LaceHoseDrop WithinRange of Limited Budget

Worn for Many Purposes; 3 New Colors Offered.

BY RHEA SEEGER.

All the shoppers that have a weakness for lace patterned hosiery [and who hasn't?] are in for great news. The hosiery makers are out with some new spring shades and designs with the amazingly low price of a single dollar. For practically the first time in history these flattering, slenderizing affairs are obtainable at this rather startling low price.

After discovering how long-wearing such hosiery is, after finding out that lace hose goes with street clothes, spectator outfits and admirably with afternoon dresses of dull crépe, every one will trot to town to shop for spring wardrobes. The mesh or lace pattern is small, precise, more like a veil of tint than an open work lace effect, a close together all over mesh that skins down any extra inches on the ankle lines.

Heels are high and square cut, and the foot reënforced for good, long wear. There are three grand new colors. Kona is a slick, taupish color for printed silks, dress parade suits, and dresses for wear with all the blue shades in footwear, hats and other costume accessories. At last you can find a dark gray, a good gray without any hint of mauve, pink or too blue. It comes in this lace hosiery and is called Street. It goes with all gray, with black and with red.

Bahama is a glowing coppery sun tan shade, perfect with black, blue and green as well as all the smart black background prints splashed with printed flowers in bold colors. All three shades are exciting new spring finds, and the extremely low price should keep you all cheering for days.

SYNOPSIS.

Adrian Somervell and Diana Lake become engaged when the young scientist learns he is heir to the fortune of his late stepmother, Rose Somervell, ex-star of the theater, who was Diana's godmother. Until shortly before her death Adrian and she had been estranged. Adrian had lunched with her shortly before her death, with Nicholas Blundell, wealthy bachelor solicitor, who lived in the London flat below Rose. Blundell's neurotic secretary, Elsie Dilworth, was madly in love with Adrian, who'd repulsed her. She'd called during the luncheon on business. Blundell is Diana's godfather. She always disliked him. An autopsy reveals that Rose was poisoned. Then Diana's actress mother, Margaret Fairlamb, is murdered. Robbery is thought to be the motive. Adrian is arrested. Remnants of the poison which killed Rose are found in his pocket. Blundell persuades Diana to move to Rose's flat. He obtains a lawyer for Adrian. Diana sees Elsie Dilworth, who has left Blundell's employ, return and search the premises. Diana hires a private agent, Mortimer Bream. Watching Elsie's lodgings he sees an East Indian trying to break into the girl's room. Inspector Headcorn, assigned to the investigation of Diana's mother's murder, believes there is a link between the two murders. He discovers a secret stairs between Diana's flat and Blundell's. The East Indian is found dead, apparently a suicide. Diana receives a package of newspapers from Elsie, which she states contain clews to the murder. Then Elsie commits suicide. Lord Limpsfield and Sir Norbury Penge, who Blundell stated were at his home the night Margaret Fairlamb was murdered, are questioned and confirm Blundell's alibi. Adrian is tried and sentenced to death. Diana and Dr. Colin Ladbroke, a friend of Adrian's, search Rose's flat for further clews.

INSTALMENT XLIV.

A WILL FOUND.

As the execution approached Blundell earnestly begged Diana to get away from London. Her health, he could see, was suffering.

"Not now," was all she would say, and at last the subject was closed.

She had, it was true, a vague intention of quitting this flat for some obscure place of her own. If she had as yet made no move it was because, now all hope was gone, a leaden inertia kept her rooted to the spot. The date of Jan. 17 loomed ahead, red danger signal in a fog. Her faculties seemed submerged in a sort of wretched coma, wherein sensation was mercifully deadened.

In the state just described she sat one evening by the drawing room fire, dimly thankful that her godfather was dining out and that she could be left alone. Gaylord had removed her dinner tray and left the smaller tray with her coffee on the needlework stool before her. Through the smoke of her cigaret she saw not the room she had grown to loathe, but the harsh outlines of a condemned cell, with a trapped man sitting motionless on a camp bed.

She could sit still no longer. As she had done countless times before, she sprang up and began an aimless prowl, in one room and out another, lighting a fresh cigaret when the old one burnt her fingers.

How she came to be lying on the floor of the bedroom defied comprehension. She woke to the fact—though "woke" seemed the wrong word for one whose eyes had been wide open all along—through smelling singed wool, and becoming conscious of a hurt place on her temple, as though in falling she had struck her head. Had she fallen? Evidently—which must mean she had fainted. Very odd, for she had not the faintest recollection of feeling really faint.

The first question to stir her comfortably blank mind was why her head appeared to be inclosed in a sort of box, oblong and three sided.

Blinking, she saw that the box thing was simply the central space of the Queen Anne desk, which was built on the "knee hole" plan. It stood against the wall opposite the bed, and as she lay on her back she was looking up at the underside of the top which formed a bridge between two tiers of drawers. Inertly she continued to gaze, her eyes glued to a minute triangle of white paper affixed to the rough wood just where the left pedestal joined onto it. At last, idly, she raised her hand and touched it, to discover that it moved but would not come away. Then she saw why. It was the protruding corner of a larger sheet which had somehow got tightly wedged between the immovable top and the column of drawers.

Through her partly dormant brain shot a skyrocket idea. She scrambled to her feet, fetched a nail file and, squeezing back under the desk, began prodding at the triangular bit. She managed to draw it out another inch, but no more. She had guessed, though, just how it had come to be in its present position. It had been crowded out at the back of an overfilled drawer, doubled over against the wall behind, and then insinuated into the horizontal crack plainly visible from the rear.

The top would not come off! Well, then, she must smash it. She was in the act of sweeping the blotter and various accessories to the floor when the bell rang and Colin walked in, to find her with feverish red spots in her cheeks and gray eyes glittering.

She dragged him into the bedroom and showed him what she wanted done.

"I'd never have known anything was there if I hadn't tumbled over and ——"

"Tumbled over! You mean you fainted?"

"O, what does it matter?" Impatiently she shook off his hand. "We must break this open—quick! Shall I fetch a coal hammer?"

"Hold on." He transferred his eyes to the desk. "My mother's got one of these bits of furniture. If I'm not mistaken . . . Look!"

Under his manipulation the top had come loose. He lifted it up and Diana pounced upon a dusty folder, in part printed, the rest filled in with writing she recognized. Breathlessly they studied it.

"A will," Colin murmured. "There was one, after all."

Rose Somervell, four years previous, had bequeathed the bulk of her property to her friend and legal adviser, Nicholas Godfrey Blundell.

"I'll show this to Hull. Only you mustn't build any hopes. You buy these forms at a stationer's. Know who the witnesses are?"

"I've never heard of either. I'd say Eliza Tompkins was a charwoman and Henry Patterson some trades person."

"Which means she kept this to herself. Or does it? She may have told Blundell she'd made such a will, but never showed it to him."

Thinking it over, Diana declared that this was exactly the sort of thing Rose might have done.

"She was cunning, you know. That would explain his trying so desperately to find the document among her papers; only not finding it, he would conclude she'd invented a mythical will for the simple purpose of keeping him her slave. We don't actually know, though, if he did try to find it. Besides . . . O, dear!" She put her hands distractedly to her head. "I'm more hopelessly muddled than before. What's wrong that I can't think properly?"

"How about some coffee?" he suggested. "Shall I make it?"

"Coffee!" She moved into the drawing room. "There was some just now. I don't remember drinking it. If I didn't—Heavens! What a mess! Did I do that?"

Following, he found her gazing blankly down at a tray which was a brown lake of coffee—stone cold. A glance told him what had happened. She had poured her cup full and gone on pouring.

"There's some left in the pot," he said quietly. "I'll heat it up in a jiffy."

He returned from the kitchen to find her still staring at the drenched tray cloth.

"That's funny," she whispered. "Do you know, I seem to be doing the same sort of things she did. Rose Somervell. It's just come back to me how Adrian said that once he saw her pour tea in a cup already full. And a moment ago I found my cigaret burning a hole in the carpet. She did that—when she fell down in that attack. Do you see? That's the burnt place, there."

On the small table at his elbow was a box which had contained a hundred cigarets, the same brand as his own. About a dozen remained.

"Have you always smoked as much as you're doing now?" he asked. "Who buys these cigarets for you? Or do you buy them yourself?"

"Of course I buy them. Why, what on earth——" She stopped, stared at him and came a step closer. "What do you mean?" she demanded.

"Nothing. Tell me more about the fainting. What were you doing, and how long were you unconscious?"

Buy Edgar Allan Poe Home to Defeat Plan for Rooming House

Philadelphia, March 1.—[Special.]—A mortgage holders' proposal to make the Philadelphia home of Edgar Allen Poe a rooming house was blocked at a sherif's sale today by Richard Gimbel, president of the Richard Gimbel Foundation for Literary Research. Mr. Gimbel bought the three story house for $7,000 after spirited bidding against Egen Adams, a restaurant proprietor who holds a $7,250 mortgage.

GASOLINE ALLEY—IT WAS SUPPOSED TO BE AN INSULT

Token Handed to Beau Is Best Kissed Goodby

BY DORIS BLAKE.

[Copyright: 1937: By The Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Syndicate, Inc.]

We must repeat, young women, that if you insist upon handing over your ring, your photograph, or any other token of temporary affection, say goodby to it and let it go at that. If you see it again, when the temper of your present passion has waned, all well and good. If you don't, then be a sport about it! Don't join up with the sisterhood of loud moaners.

To begin with, no one forced you to part with the gift. Because a man asks for your photograph or for your friendship ring doesn't imply that he has to get it. Nine times out of ten he would feel better if you didn't wish it on him, even though he may have asked for it in an idle moment. What can men do with these photographs, anyway? They don't want them on their dressers for all the family to ask about unless you two are engaged.

It isn't the engaged ones who do most of the moaning, we notice. It's the girl who persuades herself into thinking her gift will give her a special hold on the chap. When her scheme fails, then her object appears to be to make the fellow suffer for turning her down.

How often this is written to us: "I wonder if you could tell me how to get my friendship ring back!" Or, "How can I get my picture back?" The confession always follows that a quarrel has ensued and the boy keeps the memento and he won't be reached for its return.

It seems in bad taste, anyway, for a young woman to present a man with her ring, friendship or otherwise. If there's any ring endowing let the man do it, even the friendship ring. It's the man's rôle to furnish the ring. So don't spoil them, young women. Because a man knows that the ring-giving belongs in his rôle he is embarrassed when a girl forces one on him, and to embarrass a man unduly is to estrange him, girls.

About photographs, don't you think that a girl is presuming a great deal to think that her's is a welcome attention? Some girls are so constituted, we know, as to think their picture is so good a man would want it around for purely decorative purposes. That may have been all right when walls were lined with pictures of the sort and dressers covered with them, but the modern interior decorative note rules out the cluttered walls and dressers.

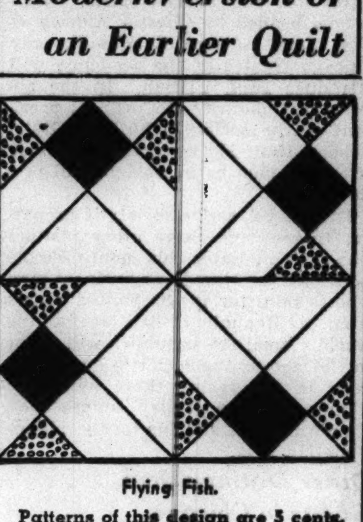
"Flying Fish" Is Modern Version of an Earlier Quilt



Flying Fish.

Patterns of this design are 5 cents, stamps or coin. Address Nancy Cabot, Chicago Tribune, or call at one of the Tribune Public Service offices, 1 South Dearborn street or Tribune Tower.

BY NANCY CABOT.

"Flying Fish" is a modern version of one of the first applique patterns of the same name. The theme still is the same, but the fish are pieced instead of appliqued in design. This block is extremely simple for the novice or beginning quilt maker. It is the type of pattern which lends itself to a combination of materials, both printed and plain. The blocks are set together, forming an all-over design, and the border is nothing more than a one-half inch bias binding.

For a limited time only, Nancy Cabot offers ten quilt patterns of her own selection for 10 cents, 12 cents in stamps by mail. They may be purchased at the Tribune Public Service offices, 1 South Dearborn street and Tribune Tower lobby, or by writing to Miss Cabot in care of the Chicago Tribune.

Mr. Meeker, a sophisticated gentle- an and a novelist himself, probably ould not feel under ordinary cir- mstances that he needed his par- ts' help in entertaining a guest, but y one who remembers what Miss elafield wrote about two popular hicago women in her "The Pro- ncial Lady in America" will rec- gnize readily why the aforesaid host els the need of friendly help.

His friends are coming to the res- e, however, in splendid style, so iss Delafield, Mrs. Arthur Paul ashwood in private life, will have a y time during her visit, the second e has paid to the Meekers. She as here about three and a half years o, and it was after that visit that e described their hospitality so owingly, but wrote so differently of e hospitality and the persons of two the Meekers' friends.

Meeker to repeat the invitation those terms. Mrs. Barnes [Mar- aret Ayer Barnes], is a talented and ever novelist, and would be a orthy antagonist in conversation or riting if the English visitor wanted have a word duel.

WOMAN'S AND MISS' DRESS.

Simplicity of line and simplicity of sewing are two attributes which make this dress particularly suitable. The former is in line with the new tailored trend for spring, and the latter is dear to the hearts of all home dressmakers. Shirtwaist styling predominates in this model, and it takes to a wide variety of fabrics and silhouettes. The contrasting collar is draped casually around the neckline and is accented by an equally casual bow. Buttons trim the bodice closing, and two pockets embellish the waist. The sleeves are puffed to just the right degree, and may be either long or short, with cuffs or without. The skirt achieves the maximum of chic, comfort and perfect fit by means of center seams in front and back.

The original of this frock is fashioned of bright sheer woolen, an effective material for early spring and the present late winter days. Silks, either plain or printed, also are perfect to wear now, under your heavy cloth coat, and later under your welcome lightweight one.

Style No. 2642 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18 and 20 years, and 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40 inches bust measurement. Size 16 requires 3⅝ yards of 39 inch material, with ½ yard of 35 inch contrasting.

Lent Is "Made to Order" for Your Reducing Program

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

[Copyright: 1937: By The Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Syndicate, Inc.]

Don't delay that reducing session any longer, my loves! Easter is early this year, as you know. And skirts are going up, an inch shorter, from latest reports. That doesn't mean only that legs should be trimmed down for the skirt emergency. But the shorter skirt makes the plumpish figure appear more rotund, as you know.

The reducing is urged now because you want this year's Easter outfit a perfect knockout success. You want to get the buoyant reaction of the lost pounds. Of course, we're speaking of extra pounds, as we never agreed with the young group who rob their silhouetts of beauty with their reducing zeal.

Lent is a grand time for reducing, even if you do get your moral and your physical merits mixed. If your case calls for food abstinence, it will chalk up in your favor regardless of whether you're doing it for a better figure or not.

True, in the old days winter foods were far heavier than they are today. Loads of people subsist the year around now on an equally proportioned calorie intake daily. The people aren't the ones with the spring figure remodeling need, as a rule. A large army still exists among women who do not worry about what they eat as long as they have a big fur coat behind which to hide the pounds. These are the ones we plead with now. Get on the reducing wagon, big girls. We like you "as is," of course, but we're going to love you when you get those spare tires rolled off and your hip and thigh line carry the new skirt with a sleeker, neater grace. It's because we want you to be happy that we urge you to begin today letting up on the food for 30 days. We urge you to get out of bed a few minutes earlier and take a little exercise.

Set the goal first at the five pound loss. When we get you over that five pound loss, nothing wil stop you from tossing the rest of the extras into kingdom-come. If you don't know what to do, what diet program to pursue to lose your extra poundage, rush your stamped, addressed envelope along pronto and we'll give you all the help you need.

The Beauty of your Hair is its Color

And any color can be lovely if it is highlighted with skill. Elizabeth Arden has opened a department in her Salon to specialize on this alone. Perhaps your hair is dull ... or has grown darker. Perhaps its color never really flattered you. These things can be remedied so that the world will know only that your hair is beautiful beyond comparison.

Two Writings Indicate Need for Tolerance

Women Are Friends Yet Often at Odds.

BY MURIEL STAFFORD.

[Copyright: 1937: By Muriel Stafford.]

Understanding should be the basis for all friendship. It is only when we don't understand our friends that they disappoint us. Actual understanding of the other's point of view will cover a multitude of sins.

Friends as different as the two persons whose handwriting is shown today always will have a hard time reaching that understanding. The best they can do is to cultivate more tolerance and say to themselves, "Well, that's her way. She is different, that's all, and she has her own reasons for the way she acts."

we irritate each other (1)

The first writer says: "I hope you can tell me how my best friend and I really get along. On the surface we like each other and yet we irritate each other often."

She has the suave, poised, charming and magnetic type of writing that is shown in rhythmical flow with large letters and u-shaped m's and n's. Also notice that the slant is a bit more to the left than to the right, though almost straight up and down.

Such a person is cool and restrained. The strength of the pressure shows that her feelings are strong, but the lack of forward slant shows that they never control her. A gifted writing, but not a really warm hearted writing. Charm that takes and deserves response from others, but not a charm that gives emotionally.

we seem all out of touch (2)

The handwriting of her friend is extremely emotional. She says, "I often criticize my friend for her quick temper and we seem to be all out of touch lately. Whose fault is it?"

Ironically, the first writer may sound as if she had a quick temper, but it never means a thing. The second writer thinks it does because she herself is so emotional.

Remember that because a person acts a certain way she is not necessarily feeling as you would feel acting in that manner.

Some Children Slow but Sure, Like 'Tortoise'

BY GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS

[Copyright: 1937: By The Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Syndicate, Inc.]

"How is Sally's arithmetic," a mother inquired of her daughter's teacher.

"She's failed," was the answer. "When the other children have done eighteen examples she usually has completed only about twelve.

That night in talking it over, Sally said, "I know I'm slow mother, and I know I can't work with my eye on the clock. We were given so much time to do those examples in and I didn't finish, although the others did. But I had the twelve right, and hardly any one else had twelve right out of the eighteen.

Slow, but painstaking and accurate.

"Some of the fellows certainly have it down pat," he said. "We have outside reading to do and some of them can read three or four books a semester in such a way that they are able to make good book reports, and that sure makes a hit with the instructors. They seem to know how to skim over them. I can't do that, but I sure wish I could. When I read I have to read thoroughly, and that slows me up."

A boy I know is quick and capable, but he must finish a thing without stopping once he has started it. He even wants to go without food until he is through.

A young girl I know is the most facile person. She is brilliant and can do almost anything quickly and with ease, but she works in rushes. A dress is made in a rush, then there is a lull. A school play is written in a rush, then she does nothing special with her spare time.

Children have different speeds. This usually is an inherent thing. It is natural for them to function at a certain rate. Nature has geared them to be slow, medium, or fast in mental or physical activities, or both. It is almost impossible to change that natural tempo. We find also a tendency in children to be intensely thorough, moderately painstaking, or superficial. While these traits are inherent, somehting can be accomplished here by good training. But it is the matter of speeds that I am most concerned with because they are more difficult, if not impossible, to change without doing harm.

Children are individual in the speed at which they work. They also vary in the quality and continuity of their work. We can make reasonable efforts to train them in thoroughness and concentration, but when it comes to changing their speed we should be careful not to interfere too much.

Most of us have a natural rhythm and tempo and manner of working. Try to find out what your child's is and interfere with it as little as possible.

News of the Radio Stations

BY LARRY WOLTERS.

Though Eddie Cantor failed to make good on the advance announcement that he would sing his own new song, "Garbo Loves Taylor," Sunday evening, he did get in a good boost for Chicago's Charter Jubilee celebrtion which is coming up Thursday. Haven McQuarrie called attention to the celebration on his "Do You Want to Be an Actor" broadcast from Hollywood. And on the evening of the centennial Maj. Bowes is to dedicate his program to Chicago and a portion of his amateur hour is to be aired for the audience at Chicago Stadium and in the various community centers where other groups are to gather.

Several broadcasts are to be made over local stations and the networks Thursday in connection with the observance. At noon W-G-N will carry a special program from City hall with Mayor Kelly, John McKinlay, chairman of the celebration committee, and Barnet Hodes among the speakers. Throughout the evening salutes will be offered on W-G-N feature programs.

From 8 to 8:30 p. m. NBC is picking up a special show from Chicago Stadium. This half hour will include a dramatic scene laid in Sauganash tavern on March 4, 1837, the date of Chicago's corporate birth, and songs by several national groups—Danish, Welsh, Bohemian, and Polish. Notable guest singers also are to be presented.

WBBM-CBS is to put on a half hour show from 10:30 to 11 p. m. with Truman Bradley as master of ceremonies. Bradley will put on a dramatic description of the great Chicago fire as it might have been handled had there been radio commentators at the time. Gertrude Niesen, Chez Paree congrstress, will present several tunes of the moment, and the chorus of the late "Then and Now" show, featuring the Doring Sisters and Wayne Van Dyne and Carlton Kelsey's orchestra will provide music. The radio show as well as the program of entertainment at Chicago Stadium is being directed by William Robson.

Well, Jack Benny has settled the debate as to whether he can play "The Bee." He did it Sunday evening and may tackle it again this evening as a guest on Ben Bernie's broadcast at 8 o'clock over WLS. Incidentally, when Fred Allen broadcasts those burlesques of Benny's fiddling it is Vladimir Selinsky, a member of Peter Van Steeden's orchestra and a virtuoso in his own right, who does the discordant scratching. He thinks it's fun, too.

Grace Moore, who made her first radio appearance of the season in New York a few days ago, will hop to Hollywood this week to play the title rôle in "Madame Butterfly" in the Radio Theater broadcast next Monday.

A new series of safety programs running Monday through Friday at 6:15 p. m. this week over WCFL. These broadcasts will give reports of motor accidents and will be furnished in coöperation with the accident prevention division of the trafic bureau in charge of Capt. David Flynn.

BAKE 16 MINUTES TO THE POUND ACCORDING TO YOUR FAVORITE RECIPE

An exciting thrill awaits you in this new Certified Tender Smoked Ham. There's just the right touch of smoky taste in its rich flavor to make it deeply satisfying—deliciously different from any other ham in the world . . . And that amazing tenderness, such as only Wilson knows how to impart, increases every delightful taste value.

It must be cooked before serving. To retain all of the delicious flavor which has been put into this miracle ham do not parboil, freshen, or cook it in water. Takes only sixteen minutes to the pound to cook, which definitely lessens cooking cost and cooking shrinkage.

HERE IS OUR SUGGESTION FOR ONE MIGHTY GOOD WAY TO PREPARE IT

Place a whole Wilson's Tender Extra Mild Ham in roaster, fat side up; add one cup of water. Bake for 16 minutes to the pound in oven 350° F. Take Ham from oven, score fat with knife; sprinkle with cup of sugar; dot with cloves. Return to hot oven, about 400° F. to brown. You may use fruit garnish in place of cloves if you prefer. Allow three minutes to the pound longer when cooking a half Ham.

SOX BATTERY MEN LEAVE FOR PASADENA CAMP

Take Along Plenty of Catchers.

BY EDWARD BURNS.

Pitching and catching members of the White Sox, forming the first training squad, got away for the Pasadena camp on schedule last evening to the cheers of 500 loyal south siders. At 6:16 o'clock their streamline speedster pulled out of the North Western station, bound to have them in Pasadena at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The departure, delayed one minute to get Luke Sewell, the veteran catcher, aboard, was somewhat prouder than that of some fifteen preceding spring getaways. The luxury of a new fangled train, the North Western's City of Los Angeles, was one thing, but it was the first time in many years that a White Sox team has left town in the spring with the prestige of being a first division outfit.

For the last decade and a half starting to spring training for the Sox has meant little more than starting eight months' work to stay out of last place. No one on the Sox roster ever played with a first division Sox team until last season.

It Develops Gags.

As the years rolled on, second division got to be a complex, a complex apparent the very day the first squad departed for spring training. Players frequently repeated an old baseball gag as they spent the first day en route to training camp. The gag: A stretch, a sigh and: "Gad, I wish the season was over."

Last night those who took the streamliner were representatives of a team that boasts the city championship without the old fluke and tempering of other years when the Cubs were tightened up and tired; the Sox relaxed. Moreover, they tasted post season sugar last year by cutting into the world series' disbursement. They liked it.

So this year business gets under way with the Sox shooting for the top. Their owner, J. Lou Comiskey, has mentioned the American league pennant as a reasonable goal. Their manager, Jim Dykes, not quite so optimistic, tomorrow will start inspiring on the basis of taking as high as second money.

Seek Young Catcher.

Last night's caravan was headed by Traveling Secretary Joseph T. Barry and Coaches Billy Webb and Muddy Ruel. Counting Ruel, though he's starting the season on the inactive player list for the first time, the first squad had more catchers than pitchers. The Sox feel their pitching staf is pretty well lined up, but are eager to get a youngster to break in as successor to 36 year old Luke Sewell. Other catchers on the roster are Merv Shea, 37 years old; George Rensa, 34 years old; Norm Schlueter, 19 years old; Ken Sylvestri, 20 years old, and Ed Skoronski, former Purdue football captain, who is 24 years old.

Owner Comiskey, who had planned to accompany the first squad but changed his mind because of aching legs, expects to be on the training scene when his full crew is assembled on March 9. At that time he expects to be able to greet his most important unsigned player, Zeke Bonura, and possibly the other two tardy peinmen, Jackie Hayes and Sugar Cain.

THE GUMPS—THE FICTION WRITER

SO LONG! SEE YOU IN THE WORLD SERIES?

Dungan Rigney, former Chicago prep and semi-pro star, says good-by to his mother (right) and his sister, Elizabeth (third from right), through the window of the Chicago and North Western-Union Pacific streamlined City of Los Angeles as the White Sox leave for their Pasadena training camp. Rigney is a pitcher. The Sox battery men left last night and report to Manager Jim Dykes on the coast tomorrow.

Five hundred were there and they had something to cheer about. It was the first time in fifteen years that the Sox have gone into training as a first division club with prospects of being important factors in the American league race. It was the best sendoff a Sox club has gotten since pre-Black Sox days. [TRIBUNE Photos.]

Ed Skoronski, once a great center at Purdue, later a great end with the Pittsburgh Pirates in the pro league, hopes to be a great catcher with the White Sox. He's looking for rule book to do some studying.

Pitcher Clint Brown (left) and Catcher Luke Sewell get ready to sample the output of the City of Los Angeles' famed cuisine. Luke held up the de luxe flyer a minute while he bought some gum.

Vernon Wilshire, the Indiana university lefty who starred and faded all in a year at Philadelphia (left), and Bill Dietrich, another old Mack, order steaks. Wilshire expects to come back under Dykes.

LASH'S SPRINT BEATS BECALLI IN 1½ MILE RACE

Cunningham Wins 1,000 Yard Event Easily.

Newark, N. J., March 1.—(AP)—Don Lash of Indiana defeated Luigi Becalli of Italy, Olympic 1,500 meter champion in 1932, tonight to win the mile and a half feature of the annual Seton hall college track carnival. The time was 6 minutes 47.9 seconds, ten seconds behind the record.

Lash, national outdoor 5,000 and 10,000 meter champion, won by six feet. Miklas Szabo of Hungary was third, about twenty yards behind, and Joe McCluskey of the New York A. C. was fourth.

Cunningham Wins.

Glenn Cunningham, the nation's mile champion, was to have faced Lash, but he chose to compete in the 1,000 yard special. He jogged to an easy victory in 2 minutes 18.6 seconds, beating Ed Brown of New York A. C.

McCluskey, who also ran in the 1,000 yards, stepped into the lead at the start of the mile and a half and held it for a lap and a half. Then Lash forged ahead and set the pace to the final.

Becalli and Szabo dogged his tracks all the way, the three keeping in perfect step around the flat armory track. McCluskey and the fifth starter, Harold Manning, Wichita, Kas., veteran, were soon outdistanced as the trio maintained a pace that carried them past the mile in 4 minutes 32.3 seconds.

Lash Rallies to Win.

Becalli passed Lash going into the final lap, but Lash then opened up his famed sprint and went back into the lead and victory.

The mile and a half indoor record is 6:37.8, set in New York ten years ago by the Swedish stylist, Edvin Wide.

Jim Herbert, colored sensation of the indoor season, added another trophy to his collection, winning the Waldron 600 in the closest race of the night. Wesley Wallace of Fordham caught the New York Curb exchange speedster off guard on the back stretch of the final lap and passed him on the curve. Wallace had a stride lead as they turned into the straightaway, but Herbert pulled out ahead by inches as they crossed the finish line. His time was 1:17.

ASK KANSAS TO SEEK SUCCESSOR FOR PHOG ALLEN

Topeka, Kas., March 1.—(AP)—The athletic board of the University of Kansas was instructed today by the state board of regents to hunt for candidates for director of athletics at the school, a post now held by Dr. F. C. [Phog] Allen.

Following a conference with members of the university's committee on athletics, C. M. Harger, chairman of the regents, said the committee had been asked to recommend some one and to report in about 15 days.

After Allen's successor is named June 1, the committee on athletic management will be dissolved.

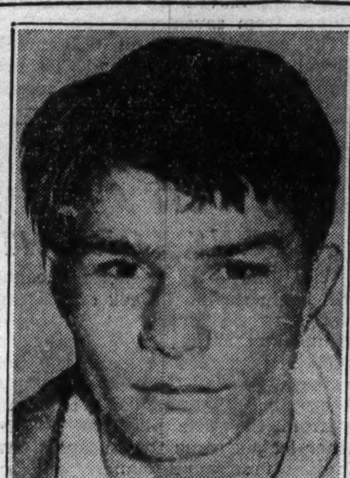
Harger said definitly that Dr. Allen would not be retained as the director of athletics. Mentioned as his successor, Harger said, were A. C. Lonborg of Northwestern university; A. B. Mackie of Kansas Wesleyan; Emil Liston of Baker university, Baldwin, Kas.; Tad Reid of Warrensburg, Mo., Teachers, and A. A. Schabinger, former basketball coach and director of athletics at Creighton university.

The new director will not coach any sport. All coaches will be directly responsible to him under the proposed plan, Harger said.

Quintana Stops Gentile in 4th; Salvatore Loses

New York, March 1.—(AP)—Carlos [Indian] Quintana of Panama stopped Harry Gentile of Hartford, Conn., after 2:40 of the fourth round of an eight round bout at St. Nicholas palace tonight. Quintana weighed 119¼ and Gentile 124½. Charlie Gomer, 135½, New York, won the decision over Geno Salvatore, 135¾, Chicago, in the eight round co-feature.

SEES HIS CHANCE



BEEBE RICH.

Wilson Gone; Who'll Stop Beebe Rich?

Kansas City Mo., March 1.—[Special.]—Beebe Rich, one of the four flyweights who will fight for the Chicagoland Golden Gloves championship Friday night at the Stadium, is something of a seer although he substitutes boxing gloves for a crystal sphere.

Last year in Chicago, Rich defeated Jimmy Urso of Detroit in a third round bout. His visions of a national title seemed to be coming true. But in the fourth round, he faced Jackie Wilson, whose long reach gave him an advantage Rich was unable to overcome.

"That Wilson ain't gonna be in the tournament next year," mused Rich on the return trip to Kansas City, "and I'm gonna win it."

Rich Gets His Chance.

Three years ago the coach of the Kansas City Athletic club was staging one of his weekly boxing smokers for the benefit of the club membership. A gentleman appeared before him leading in two dirty faced little youngsters in patched overalls. One was Rich, the other the gentleman's son, Delmar Rowland. Last year Rowland was a member of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat team which appeared in Chicago. Rich represented the Kansas City Star.

The coach protested that the lads were too young.

"We'll let the two put on a one round exhibition for you and then you decide," suggested the elder Rowland.

Coach Is Convinced.

That one round furnished the coach with more action than he had seen in years. Rich and Rowland, lacking science, tore into each other like a pair of strange bulldogs. For the coach one round was enough.

"It's no go," he said, "these kids, fighting that way, would be punched silly in a few years. If you want them to box let's teach them something."

The idea appealed to Rich and he began making a daily visit to the club. Within a year he had won the Missouri Valley A. A. U. championship. In his last fight in that tournament he bumped heads with his opponent and sustained a cut that

PALMER DEFEATS MANGIN IN U. S. INDOOR TENNIS

Eliminates Defending Champ, 6-3, 9-7.

New York, March 1.—(AP)—Ray Palmer Jr. of New York City upset Gregory S. Mangin, the defending champion, 6-3, 9-7, in the second round of the national men's indoor tennis tournament today.

Mangin, winner of the title four times in the last five years, followed Arthur Hendrix of Lakeland, Fla., third seeded player, into defeat.

Hendrix won his opening match today but lost in the second round, 8-6, 7-5, to Morris Adelsberg of New York.

Parker Advances.

Otherwise seeded players, headed by Frankie Parker of Milwaukee, the nation's second ranking player, had little trouble. Parker disposed of Joseph Fishbach, 16 year old Metropolitan indoor champion, 6-3, 6-1. Walter Senior of San Francisco, who came here with Hendrix after playing in Florida yesterday, won two matches in straight sets, beating John J. Morrison, Floral Park, N. Y., and J. Burke Wilkinson, West Orange, N. J.

David N. Jones of New York, former Columbia and Cambridge [England] college star; J. Gilbert Hall, South Orange, N. J.; Leonard Hartman, and Frank J. Bowden of New York, the other seeded players, also came through handily. All scored straight set victories except Hall, who drew a default from William T. Tilden III. of Philadelphia.

Evelyn Bouscaren Wins.

Norma Taubele of New York City led a field of thirty-two into the second round of the women's division when she defeated Dorothy McCann of Larchmont, N. Y., 6-1, 6-0.

Miss Taubele, 1934 champion and runner-up last year, a left-handed player, kept Miss McCann on the base line and had little difficulty in winning.

Mme. Sylvia Henrotin of France defeated Beatrice Ziegler of Huntington, N. Y., 6-4, 6-4. Evelyn Bouscaren, Winnetka, Ill., defeated Molla Archer, 2-6, 7-5, 6-3 in other first round matches.

THREE EX-STARS MAY JOIN PITT COACHING STAF

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 1.—(AP)—Three University of Pittsburgh football stars of recent years probably will be placed in important positions on the coaching staf of Dr. John B. [Jock] Sutherland as soon as the controversy between the coach and Athletic Director W. Don Harrison is settled. The Sun-Telegraph said today they will be Averell Daniell, tackle coach; Ted Dailey, end coach; and Robert La Rue, back field coach.

Daniell was a tackle with last year's eleven and Bobby La Rue, playing a regular half back, rated high praise from Sutherland and others. Both will be graduated in June. Dailey was graduated in 1932.

GOPHERS MOVE INTO TIE FOR BIG TEN LEAD

Young Sets Record; Purdue Is Whipped.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 1.—[Special.]—The University of Minnesota basketball team moved into a tie with Illinois for the lead in the Big Ten race by defeating Northwestern, 34 to 33, in an overtime game here tonight.

Robert Manly.

The championship will be decided in Saturday night's three games which will conclude the Big Ten season. Minnesota will play at Chicago, Illinois at Northwestern, and Wisconsin at Michigan. If both Illinois and Minnesota should lose, Michigan could join them in a three way tie for the title by beating Wisconsin. Purdue, Indiana, Ohio State, and Iowa have completed their schedules with no chance for the championship.

Northwestern was leading Minnesota, 30 to 28, with ten seconds to go tonight when Gordie Addington dribbled straight for the goal, eluded two Northwestern men, and scored from under the basket.

Free Throw Decides It.

In the overtime, Paul Maki of Minnesota flipped in a shot for a 32 to 30 lead. Voigts made it closer with a free throw, but Kundla restored the Gophers' two point margain with another free throw. McMichael's shot from near the center of the floor tied it up again. Don Currie then fouled Robert Manly with five seconds to go, and while the crowd of 12,000 watched breathlessly, Manly rolled in the free throw that gove the Gophers a 34 to 33 lead. Then the gun was fired.

The Gophers were ahead only once in the first period at 11 to 10. The Wildcats held a 14 to 12 lead at the intermission. The Gophers took a 15 to 14 advantage in the second half, lost it at 15 to 16, regained it at 17 to 16, then did not get back on even terms until Addington's basket in the last ten seconds.

INDIANA, 31; MICHIGAN, 27

Bloomington, Ind., March 1.—[Special.]—The Indiana university basketball team concluded its Big Ten schedule here tonight with a surprising 31 to 27 victory over Michigan.

The Hoosiers, by avenging a 55 to 31 setback suffered at the hands of Michigan two weeks ago, knocked the Wolverines farther back from the pace setting Illinois quintet in the conference title race.

Indiana won six and lost six conference games. For Michigan it was the third defeat in eleven contests.

After coasting into a 13 to 6 lead at half time by bottling up the Wolverines through an effective delayed offense, Indiana was forced to the limit in the last seven minutes when Johnny Gee, Michigan's 6 foot 9 inch center, led a Wolverine rally which threatened to turn the battle into anybody's game. The tall center paced Michigan with nine points, scored on three field goals and three free throws.

Johnson, Etnire Lead Scoring.

Sharing high scoring honors were Indiana's two forwards, Bill Johnson and Bob Etnire. Co-Captain Ken Gunning's floor game enabled the Hoosiers to control the ball at critical periods, while Jim Birr held Gee to one free throw in the first period and took the ball of the Wolverine backboard time after time.

The lineup:

INDIANA [31].	B	F	P	MICHIGAN [27].	B	F	P

WISCONSIN, 46; PURDUE, 43

BLACKHAWKS TO MEET BRUINS AT BOSTON TONIGHT

Marty Burke Gets Back Into Chicago Lineup.

Games Tonight

Chicago at Boston.
Detroit at Montreal Maroons.

The Blackhawks yesterday left for Boston, where tonight they are to play the Bruins for the seventh time this season. The Boston sextet, with seven games remaining on their National Hockey league schedule, are half a game in front of the third place New York Rangers. Neither the Bruins nor the Rangers expect to overhaul the Detroit Red Wings, who are three and a half games ahead of Boston and four in front of New York.

Fourteen Blackhawks made the eastern trip which also takes them to Montreal for a final game with the Canadiens, who are leading the international division. Marty Burke, who has not seen action for three games due to a severely bruised left shoulder, has recovered and left with the team. He will take his old position alongside of Levinsky, replacing Art Wiebe, who was left at home. Glenn Brydson, whose injured leg still is in a cast, also remained in Chicago.

Only one other league game is scheduled for tonight, the Red Wings engaging the Maroons at Montreal. At St. Louis the Rangers will play the Flyers, leader of the American Association, in an exhibition contest. The Flyers defeated the Hawks, 2 to 0, in December.

Lineup for the Blackhawk-Bruin game:

Seibert	R.D.	Portland
Blair	L.D.	Smith

Cooper Wins St. Petersburg Golf Playoff

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 1.—(AP)—Harry Cooper, veteran Chicago professional and leading money winner of the winter campaign, today won the St. Petersburg open golf tournament in a three man playoff.

Harry Cooper.

Cooper defeated Horton Smith and Ralph Guldahl, two other Chicago pros, in an 18 hole playoff at the Pasadena Golf club after the three had tied at the end of the 72 hole tournament last Friday with cards of 284, four under par.

Wins $700 Prize.

Cooper's 72, even par, bested Smith by two strokes and Guldahl by four in the playoff.

Cooper won the $700 first prize money, Smith taking $450 for second place, and Guldahl $350 for third place. Their cards:

Par, out	443	445	354—36
Cooper, out	444	445	354—37
Smith, out	544	445	354—38
Guldahl, out	633	556	354—40
Par, in	444	435	435—36—72
Cooper, in	444	425	435—35—72
Smith, in	443	534	445—36—74
Guldahl, in	445	335	534—36—76

Playing steady, methodical golf, Cooper led from the first hole. He started off with five straight fours and took a one stroke lead over Smith, holding this until the 12th hole, when Smith pulled even by holing a 10 foot putt for a birdie three.

Cooper Regains Lead.

Cooper regained the lead at the 13th with a par four. He took a two stroke lead at the 14th, laying his tee shot within four feet of the cup and holing his putt for a deuce.

Smith made a belated attempt to overhaul him on the long 15th, where he chipped up within two feet of the cup from off the edge of the green and holed his putt for a birdie four. At the 17th, however, he missed the green, chipped eight feet past the cup and missed his putt.

Wins Three A. A. U. Titles.

Last year Rich, whose name is Benjamin Bruce, captured the Kansas City Star's Golden Gloves title and became a member of the team which competed in Chicago. So far as his immediate territory was concerned he had reached the top and in place of the dirty faced little lad who two years ago had stood before the coach there now was a manly little chap with ambitions to turn his talents to some account. His coach now points to him as an example of what value an interest in amateur boxing can have for a youngster.

Rich, who is 18 years old, is the only boxer who has won the Missouri Valley A. A. U. title three times in a row. And he sees no reason at all why he shouldn't go through the semi-final and final round in Chicago next Friday night.

CUBAN FANS SOUR ON GIANTS; IRKED BY $1 ADMISSION

Terry Orders Long Batting Workout.

HAVANA, March 1.—[Special.]—Five hurlers pitched to the New York Giant hitters for more than an hour today as Bill Terry took notice of the offense in the three exhibition games played here. Hubbell, Castleman, Smith, Melton, and Ferrick did the pitching.

The squad has hit safely only 22 times against Cuban hurlers, for an average of .210, and scored only three runs, one in each game. Unless it improves it faces the possibility of a shower of ripe tropical fruit and refuse. Local fans are outspoken about their disappointment in the National league champions. They also object to having to pay a dollar to see the Giants play themselves into condition.

Their only praise is for the three inning performances of Castleman and Gabler, both of whom hurled hitless ball. Now both are on the hospital list. Castleman has a charley horse and Gabler a swollen knee.

DRESSEN CITES BIG IF.

Cincinnati, O., March 1.—(AP)—Charley Dressen, manager of the Cincinnati Reds, told an annual civic baseball dinner gathering tonight that "if our pitchers come through this season we'll be a hard team to beat. We stand a good chance at fourth place this year—and any team than can make fourth place can make first."

The team will leave Wednesday for Tampa, Fla., to open training the following day.

DODGERS LIMBER UP.

Clearwater, Fla., March 1.—(AP)—With nearly all the batterymen on hand and several others who were not scheduled to report until next week, Burleigh Grimes, Brooklyn's new manager, opened the Dodger training today with two hours of light exercise. Van Lingle Mungo, Fred Frankhouse, and Buddy Hasset, all unsigned, are in camp and expect to work out while negotiating their salaries.

INDIANS SIGN GALEHOUSE.

New Orleans, La., March 1.—(AP)—The battery men went through a two hour workout today as the Cleveland Indians settled down to spring training. With the signing of Denny Galehouse a few hours earlier, the only holdout pitchers were Johnny Allen and Willis Hudlin. Manager Steve O'Neill, after catching Rookie Tom Drake, remarked: "He's got a better hook now than a lot of big leaguers will have in July."

DI MAGGIO NO. 3 REPORTS.

San Francisco, Cal., March 1.—(AP)—Joe Di Maggio, the New York Yankee holdout, pushed his younger brother into organized baseball in a wheelbarrow today.

The stunt featured ceremonies attending 20 year old Dominic Di Maggio's signing with San Francisco of the Pacific Coast league.

A third Di Maggio, Vince, reports to the Boston Bees this spring.

Dominic has attracted such attention the Seals paid a bonus for his signature. A slugging semi-pro shortstop, he is slated to play center field opening day. He is 5 feet 9 inches tall and weighs 158 pounds.

BEE ROOKIES STAR.

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 1.—(AP)—Two rookies, Louis Menendez, an infielder, and Charles [Chief] Marcella, former Providence college outfielder and Cape Cod league graduate, were impressive today in the Boston Bees' practice.

Orlando, Fla., March 1.—(AP)—The Washington Senators had a brief workout today, closing their practice at noon. Meanwhile, Manager Clark Griffith, viewed with interest his launching of a new "freshman" training camp at nearby Sanford. There 175 youngsters went into training with the Washington owned Chattanooga club under supervision of Joe Engel, general manager of the Senators' farm system.

YANKS SIGN PEARSON.

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 1.—(AP)—Manager Joe McCarthy of the New York Yankees reduced his holdout difficulties today before sending the Yankee batterymen through their first drill. He persuaded Pitcher Monte Pearson to sign for a reported $12,000 salary, then he had a long conference with Bill Dickey and announced the catcher probably will sign in a few days.

MAXES GOING AND COMING; GARDEN RANTS AND RAVES

Ocean Liner Becomes Boxing Focal Point.

New York, March 1.—[Special.]—The Cunard White Star liner Berengaria will steam into port tomorrow and become the focal point in a strange pugilistic situation. The ship is bringing Max Schmeling, former world's heavyweight champion, to see what, if anything, is happening to his contract to fight James J. Braddock for the title on June 3 under auspices of the Madison Square Garden corporation.

And when the ship sails Wednesday she will carry with her, unless some high sounding legal instrumentality dictates otherwise, Max Baer, another former holder of the heavyweight title. Baer, it is claimed, is running away from a Garden contract to fight.

Baer Books Passage.

Schmeling, accompanied by Trainer Max Machon, is completing a mad dash from Germany. He left here a few weeks back satisfied his chance to regain the title was secured by a contract signed in the presence of the state athletic commission. Since then, however, Joe Gould, manager of Braddock, with a sudden change of heart and an awakened interest in financial returns, has signed Braddock to fight Joe Louis in Chicago on June 22. Gould, according to his public utterances, is committed to a policy of completely ignoring the Garden-Schmeling contract.

Baer, with his manager, Ancil Hoffman, and their wives, is booked to sail for London, where he has two fights in prospect with a promise of receiving $50,000. But James J. Johnston, boxing director at the Garden, insists Baer is committed by contract to fight Bob Pastor here on March 19 or on any date previous to departing for London, and is promising an exciting time when and if Baer and party attempt to board the ship.

Wires of legal entanglements have been dispatched to Manager Hoffman and Baer, as well as Brig. Gen. A. C. Critchley, British promoter, who is to direct Baer's English battles. No direct check has been placed on Baer or his manager, Johnston said today. But, he added significantly, "We'll be looking for him at the time the ship pulls out."

Garden Really Serious.

Of course, Johnston's protests over the proposed Baer sailing are made despite the denial by Manager Hoffman of any contract dodging on the part of Baer, either by intent or execution. Hoffman maintains his contract with the Garden was automatically obviated when the Garden failed to get the state athletic commission's approval to a bout between Baer and Pastor on or before Feb. 24, an extension of two weeks, Hoffman maintains he gave the Garden when complications prevented the indorsement on Feb. 10.

Johnston inferred that failure to contact Hoffman, Baer, or Critchley today was the only thing that interferred with service of a body attachment or something equally drastic. He insisted, however, that even if Baer should slip aboard the Berengaria Wednesday a legal battle to enjoin him from fighting in England before he meets Pastor here will be pushed by the British department of the Garden's legal staff.

wiped out Purdue's last chance for a share in the title.

Young made two field goals and five free throws to pass the former conference record of 168 points, set by Joe Reiff of Northwestern in 1933. When Young dropped his second field goal midway in the first half to set the new record the crowd of more than 9,500 stood in their seats and gave him a tremendous hand.

Badgers Take Lead.

Wisconsin was off to an early lead and held a 25 to 18 advantage at the intermission. Purdue rallied early in the last period to shoot into a 33 to 32 lead after six minutes of play. The teams fought on even terms until Fuller and Rooney popped in six points in rapid succession.

Purdue scored 15 free throws out of 16 chances. Wisconsin made 12 out of 17 chances.

Pete Lello, former Chicago Golden Gloves lightweight titleholder, last night dealt Carl Fasnaugh a decisive beating in an eight round bout at Marigold Gardens. It was Lello's sixteenth consecutive victory and showed the Gary stablemate of Champion Barney Ross at his best.

Throughout the encounter he tantalized Fasnaugh with a left jab which had the Toledo, O., fighter's nose bleeding from the opening bell.

An overflow crowd of 1,740 attended. Receipts were $1,896.

Billy Marquart, Winnipeg, Man., featherweight, scored his ninth consecutive triumph by stopping Jimmy Buckler of Louisville, Ky., in the fourth round of a bout scheduled for eight rounds.

Young Mickey Walker, Sioux City, Ia., junior lightweight, defeated Johnny Campbell, Lethridge, Alta, in a four round slugging match.

Bout for Title Under Illinois Law—Triner

Chairman Joe Triner of the Illinois boxing commission yesterday explained the reason the signed contracts do not specify that James J. Braddock's heavyweight championship will be at stake in his bout against Joe Louis at Comiskey park June 22.

"The contest is closed for 15 rounds to a decision," Triner pointed out "and that automatically makes it a title contest as our rules provide, if Braddock is champion when he enters the ring against Louis."

Has No Intention of Meeting Max.

By the latter statement the commissioner meant: In case Braddock changes his mind and decides to go through with the encounter with Max Schmeling, scheduled at Madison Square Garden bowl June 3, and loses the crown.

However, the chairman indicated that Braddock had no intention of fighting Schmeling, as listed.

"We are aware that a prior agreement exists between the Garden and the champion for a title defense against Schmeling," Triner asserted. "At no time during the negotiations have we, as a commisioner or an individual, attempted to interfere with the Garden's contract with Jim."

Triner was a factor in bringing the encounter to Chicago.

Champion Postpones Return.

Meanwhile, Joe Foley, nominal promoter of the Braddock-Louis bout, announced that the champion and his manager, Joe Gould, have postponed their return to Chicago. Braddock and his family have departed for a month's vacation in Florida before Jim opens preliminary training in the Wisconsin woods, while Gould, scheduled to reach the city this week to search for a permanent camp, said he will not come in until the middle of the month.

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla., March 1.—Ye ed's barber, during a tonsorial gabfest, was informed that James Knight, Evanston capitalist, owner of the new Lauderdale Beach hotel, intended to build this fall another new hotel of 250 rooms about two blocks farther north along the ocean, with a prevailing lower scale of rates. When informed of this report, Mr. Knight said such a hotel probably would not be erected this year, that the number of rooms, location and scale of rates, when, as, and if erected, had not been determined. Otherwise the report was substantially correct. Mr. Knight is one of the hustling, alert winter visitors investing northern capital in our thriving city.

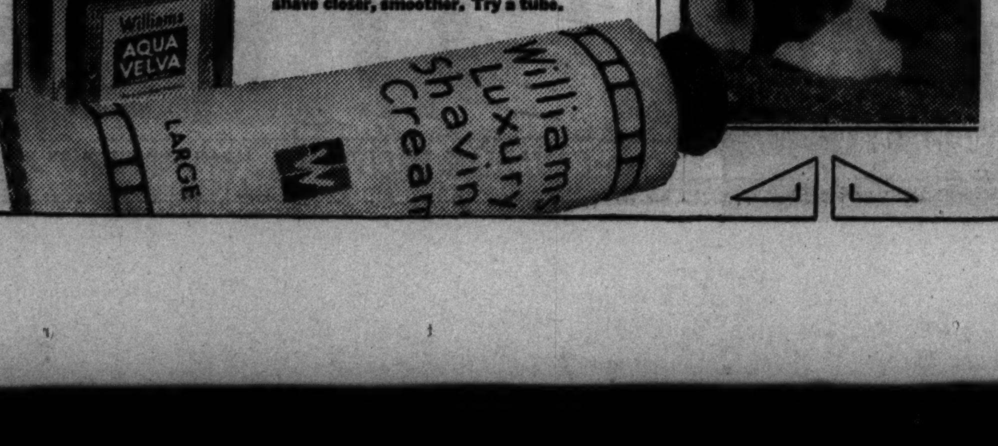
Soaks Whiskers Softer

Made by a special homogenizing process, Williams Shaving Cream has a greater capacity to hold water than ordinary creams. 1. It soaks the "starch" out of your whiskers quicker than any other popular cream, tests show. 2. It instantly softens the scaly outer skin on your face—allows razor to shave closer, smoother. Try a tube.



Williams "TWIN-ACTION" Shaving Cream Softens Outer Skin . . . Wilts Whiskers Down to the Base

WHAT makes razor blades dull? You guessed it—tough whiskers! Cutting through 40,000 hard, horny whiskers is a real job for any blade.

Here's how you can get 2 or 3 extra shaves from each blade. And also put an end to pulling, scraping and razor burn.

Switch to Williams for two weeks. Try this famous "twin-action" cream. See for yourself how it dissolves that film of oil around each whisker. How its thick, wet lather drenches each hair to the base . . . penetrates and softens the scaly outer skin so your blade edge can shave closely and cleanly without irritating your face. Williams gives better shaves. Get a tube today.

The perfect finish to a Williams shave is a dash of AquaVelva. It closes the pores in your skin . . . fights off irritations . . . leaves your face feeling cool and clean.

DENEMARK PAIR RUNS ONE-TWO AT HIALEAH PARK

Miami, Fla., March 1.—(AP)—Genie Palatine, one of the most consistent of Mrs. Emil Denemark's good horses, added another feature race triumph to the Chicago sportswoman's long list in accounting for the mile of the Marianno purse at Hialeah Park today.

The steadily campaigned 4 year old daughter of Genie-Sun Palatine, scored by three lengths over a stablemate, Chance Ray, for her fifth victory in nine starts this year. In two other races she finished third. So completely did the Denemark entry monopolize the race that W. J. Sprow's Indian was beaten five length's for runner-up honors.

Winner Pays $9.30.

The Denemark entry paid $9.30, $8.10, and $5.50 across the board although only six horses and five interests were in the field. This was because Mrs. John D. Hertz's Our Reigh, 6 to 5 favorite, ran out of the money. The son of Reigh Count, second in his only other Hialeah start, was considered a good thing in the heavy going.

Genie Palatine and Chance Ray, purchased along with Sir Quest at private terms from W. Plunkett Stewart Saturday, were in the thick of the battle all the way. They combined to put Liberal away early and had the issue between them through the final three furlongs.

LARO KEYS WINS.

New Orleans, La., March 1.—(AP)—Laro Keys, 4 year old gelding, today won the mile and sixteenth feature at the Fair Grounds. In contrast to his other races, in which he set the pace only to quit in the stretch, the son of Phalaros came from far back to register by three lengths over Still Alarm. Despite his habit of quitting, Laro Keys paid $6.60 for a $2 win ticket.

SANTA ANITA AIDS CHARITY.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 1.—(AP)—Gleeman won the $1,500 Al Malaikah Temple handicap race in a special Santa Anita program today which brought an estimated $40,000 for charity. Lady Bowman was second and Bubblesome third.

Fifteen thousand bet more than half a million dollars in the charity event. After operating expenses were deducted, the track turned over the balance from its pari-mutuel take, admissions, and concessions' profits to a fund to be distributed by the Shrine, Jewish, Catholic, and Elks welfare bureaus.

Artillery Trio to Play Gold Hats Saturday

Defending the title it won in 1936, the 124th Field Artillery team will meet the Detroit Gold Hats Saturday night at the armory, Lieut. A. J. Strak, manager of the Metropolitan Polo league tourney, announced yesterday.

The other game of the double header will be between Cardinals and the Rangers in the junior division. The Rangers are in the running for the title honors.

Unless injuries interfere, the 124th Field Artillery will line up with Lieut. Don. Rice, Capt. Romeo Mura and Capt. Bill Everett, each rated at three goals.

The Detroit trio, who met the Ramblers over the week-end, have returned home for intensive drills. Its ponies were left at the 124th Field Artillery stables. Perry Williams, Volney Bayley and Maury Lightman are expected to ride for Detroit.

INFIDOX WINS OAKLAWN STAKE BY 3 LENGTHS

Hot Springs, Ark., March 1.—(AP)—Infidox, D. L. Ogle's four year old chestnut colt, showed a burst of speed in the stretch to win the $1,000 Mayor Leo P. McLaughlin handicap inaugurating Oaklawn's 30 day spring meeting today. A crowd of 6,237 cheered Jocky R. Eccard as he pulled the winner in three lengths ahead.

Infidox sprinted over the Oaklawn course, 165 feet less than six furlongs, in 1:10 3-5.

Professor Paul finished second, Aroused third, and Bill Donoghue fourth in the field of 14. The event was run under ideal weather conditions and on a good track.

Racing Commission Secretary Ed Ferris reported $88,052 was handled by the pari-mutuels the first day, with $14,000 wagered on the handicap.

Track Stars Assemble for Chicago Meet

The vanguard of the nation's track and field stars gathered in Chicago yesterday for workouts in preparation for the Chicago relays at the International amphitheater Saturday night. Among the early arrivals were Sam Allen of Oklahoma Baptist and the Rideout Twins from Texas. Allen joined with Wayne and Blaine Rideout for a light drill at University of Chicago late yesterday.

The Rideouts, victors over Don Lash in the two mile event at the New Orleans' Sugar Bowl games, are hoping the Indiana star will seek revenge. Lash is reported eager to drop from the two mile event in order to challenge Glenn Cunningham in the mile. Even though Lash does tackle the Rideouts again, Cunningham will have plenty of competition in the Banker's mile from Archie San Romani of Kansas and Gene Venzke, the former Pennsylvania star. Romani hurtled to the fore over the week end with a 1,500 meter victory in the National A. A. U. meet.

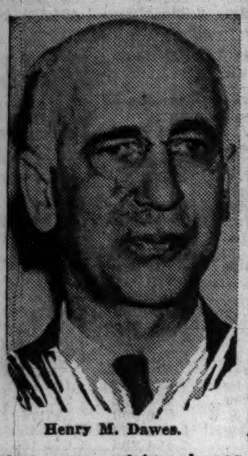
LARGE OIL WELL IS DISCOVERED IN CLAY COUNTY

Strike at 2,600 Feet Is Disclosed.

BY PHILIP HAMPSON.

After months of prospecting and drilling in the southeastern part of Illinois, the Pure Oil company on Sunday brought in a substantial sized oil well in Clay county, three and a half miles southeast of Clay City, officials disclosed yesterday. News of the success spread through out the area, raising hopes of inhabitants that oil exists in sufficient amount to restore Illinois to the position it once held as a leading oil producing state.



Henry M. Dawes.

Headquarters of the Pure Oil company, of which Henry M. Dawes is president, are in Chicago. It controls large fields in Texas and Oklahoma and played a leading part in the development of fields in Michigan in recent years.

Runs 100 Barrels a Day.

Although the Clay county well has not been completely drilled, oil is now gushing from it at the rate of 100 barrels a day—an amount said to be satisfactory for this part of the country.

The well is 2,600 feet deep and the oil produced is described as 38 gravity, compared with the 36 gravity oil average for the Mid-Continent area. This is said to be of a little better quality than the mid-continent. The oil comes from a Cyprus sand formation—the same formation as that in the Lawrenceville area, forty miles to the east—from which oil is now being produced. The Clay county field is entirely separate from that near Lawrenceville.

Officials of Pure Oil said they do not know what the rate of production will be when the well has been thoroughly cleaned out, but the rate is expected to show a substantial increase.

Plan Large Development.

Discovery of the well means that the Pure Oil company will start immediate development on a large scale throughout the area, officials said. The company after preliminary exploration work last year assembled a block of 250,000 acres throughout the district, which includes Clay, Jasper, Richland, Edwards, Effingham, and White counties.

Other companies prospecting throughout the district are the Shell Petroleum corporation, Ohio Oil company, Gulf Producing company, and the Carter Oil company, a subsidiary of Standard Oil Company of New Jersey.

It is said the depth at which the oil was found, 2,600 feet, is normal for this part of the country, but comparatively shallow for other sections. Pure Oil was prepared to drill to a depth of 8,000 feet and had expected to find oil at 6,000 feet. It will continue its exploration down to 8,000 feet despite the discovery at the higher level.

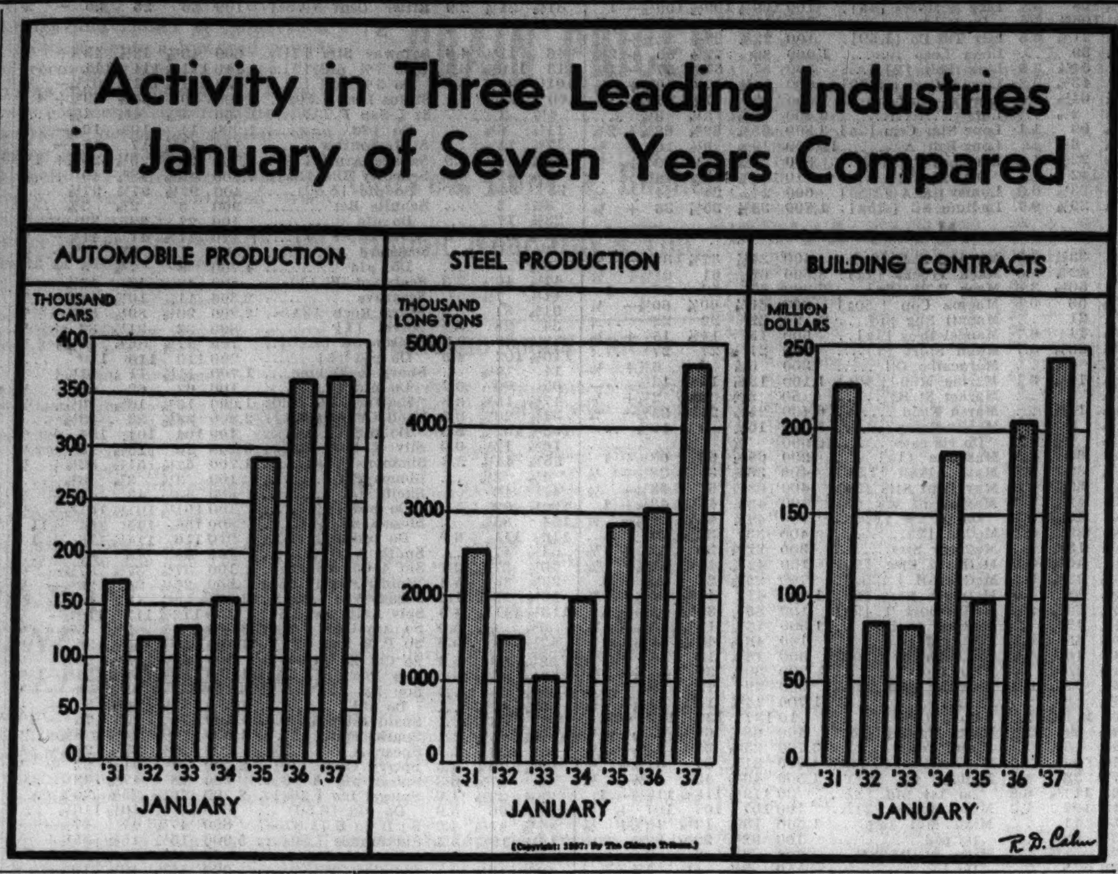
Farmers' Hopes Aroused.

Finding of the oil has aroused the hopes of farmers throughout the district since their royalties on land normally is about one-eighth of production.

The first oil was found in Illinois in 1867, just after the civil war. Because of imperfect methods in raising it from the ground production was abandoned. Forty years later real development was started and by 1908 Illinois ranked third among the states in the value of oil produced annually. With the discovery of the large fields in the west production here slumped and the state now ranks twelfth.

Aluminum Price Boosted Cent a Pound on Ingots

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 1.—(AP)—The Aluminum Company of America raised the price of aluminum ingots one cent a pound today, effective immediately.



SEVEN ILLINOIS ROADS AND TERMINALS SEEK PERMISSION TO MERGE

Washington, D. C., March 1.—[Special.]—Seven railroads and terminal companies, operating about 700 miles of lines which spread out in a great fan in Illinois with its apex at St. Louis, applied today to the interstate commerce commission for permission to consolidate. The companies involved have a total outstanding capital and stock of $27,114,300 and are all controlled by the Illinois Power and Light company, which in turn is controlled by the North American company through another subsidiary.

The companies concerned are the Illinois Terminal Railroad company, Illinois Traction, Inc.; St. Louis, Troy and Eastern; Alton and Eastern, St. Louis and Illinois Belt Railway company, Alton Terminal Railway company, and St. Louis Electric Railroad company.

In their petition the first six companies listed stated they plan to consolidate under the name of Illinois Terminal Railroad company and to join in purchasing the St. Louis Electric Terminal Railroad company and the McKinley Bridge across the Mississippi river between St. Louis and East St. Louis.

Plans to Recapitalize.

Champaign, Ill., March 1.—(AP)—J. E. Johnson, vice president of the Illinois Power and Light corporation, announced today a plan for recapitalization of the company. The plan included reclassification of the present stock into new preferred and common stock issues at specified rights of exchange and options of holders.

FOREIGN COPPER PRICE DECLINES BELOW 16 CENTS

An easing of the foreign price of copper and the lull in turnover was viewed with relief yesterday by major American producers, who held to the 15 cents a pound quotation on the hope that further reaction is due from the perpendicular rise which speculation has brought about in Europe. The export price was nominally quoted at the equivalent of 15.925 cents c. i. f. European base ports. On Saturday export copper sold at 16.475 to 16.375 cents a pound.

Sugar futures declined slightly on liquidation due to President Roosevelt's message advocating a processing tax of ¾ cent a pound. Coffee dipped 10 to 15 points lower on scattered liquidation and weakness in Brazil.

Other commodities were uneven. Cotton and hides made the largest gains. Old crop cotton sold at the highest levels of the season. Closing prices on principal commodities follow:

Steel Shares Bound, Other Issues Follow

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, March 1.—The lethargy which characterized recent trade in the stock market ended in the final hour today when a spurt in U. S. Steel carried rubbers, rails, oils, and miscellaneous issues to an irregularly higher close. However, transactions of 1,661,700 shares were the smallest in several weeks.

The market was quiet until activity in the steel section developed.

Reports that steel production would be 85.9 per cent of capacity and that a shortage of steel is to be expected in view of the piling up of orders provided the stimulus for the late hour rush.

U. S. Steel touched a high mark of 115⅜, the best price since early 1931. Crucible Steel and Interlake Iron both were at the best levels since 1930.

Low Priced Group Halts Rise.

A notable development of the day was the halt to the advance in the low priced stocks, especially mining shares. A contributing factor was a break in the price of copper in London. However, high priced metal shares improved, Cerro de Pasco gaining 2¼ and closing at 80⅛ after setting a new high at 81.

Continuing with the buoyancy which developed last week, retail store stocks continued to strengthen on improved trade reports. Associated Dry Goods, Allied Stores, and Gimbels moved up fractionally. Montgomery Ward and Marshall Field, however, could make no headway. Woolworth, which is having labor trouble in Detroit, eased 1¼.

Utility Group Dull.

Utilities were dull, although a good earnings statement for American Telephone and Telegraph resulted in a 2 point increase on the day.

Oil shares were irregular. Price changes generally did not exceed fractions.

Rails, which appeared to be marking time, gained ground on good January earnings reports, which were ahead of last year. Predictions by the heads of large roads that February earnings would also be substantial sent the group upward, although the majority of gains were small.

Chicago Park District Starts Redeeming Bonds

The Chicago Park District yesterday started the redemption of $3,880,000 of series D refunding bonds from bond and interest tax collections. These are the first bonds issued under the park district's huge refunding program, to be retired.

Shorts and Longs.

A reader asks us to explain short selling.

"I understand the process when I buy a stock and later sell it," he writes, "but how can I sell something which I haven't got?"

An investor who buys a stock, bond, or commodity, holds it for a time, and later sells, is known as a "long." A "short" is one who sells first, then buys.

The reason a short can sell something which he doesn't own is simple. He is merely guaranteeing to make delivery to the purchaser at a future date.

Assume a salesman calls at your home, demonstrates a vacuum cleaner, and obtains your order. You make a deposit. The salesman leaves, taking with him his demonstrator. Two weeks later your vacuum cleaner is delivered. That salesman sold short. He sold you something which he didn't have at the time, but which he promised to deliver later.

In a market transaction a similar procedure is followed. The short seller believes prices will decline, and that if he sells now, promising to make delivery later, he will be able to buy what he promised to deliver at a lower price than that at which he sold. This difference between the two prices would represent his profit, just as the difference between the price the "long" paid for his purchase, and the price at which he sold, represents his profit.

Tomorrow: "Profit Taking."

STEEL OUTPUT REACHES NEW PEAK SINCE 1929

Steel production this week was estimated yesterday at 85.8 per cent of capacity, the highest rate since the early weeks of October, 1929, when operations were at 87.5 per cent of capacity, the American Iron and Steel institute reported.

The estimate represents an increase of 3.3 points, or 4 per cent, over the preceding week, when the scheduled rate was at 82.5 per cent. A month ago the rate was 79.6 per cent, and a year ago it was 53.5 per cent.

ROOSEVELT ASKS NEW SUGAR TAX, QUOTA SYSTEM

1st Move to Replace Voided Levies.

Washington, D. C., March 1.—(AP)—President Roosevelt proposed to congress today the enactment of a sugar quota system financed by an excise tax on raw sugar. The tax, the President said in a special message, should be not less than three-fourths of 1 cent a pound on sugar, raw value. Income from the tax, estimated at $100,000,000 annually, would make possible the resumption of benefit payments to sugar producers, which the President proposed.

"I am definitly advised," Mr. Roosevelt said, "that such a tax would not increase the average cost of sugar to consumers."

Urges Banning Child Labor.

He recommended that in evolving a new control system provision should be made for preventing child labor and establishing a minimum wage standard.

The request marked the first move by the New Deal to enact levies to replace those voided by the Supreme court decision invalidating salient provisions of the agricultural adjustment act.

The Jones-Costigan act, which expired last December but was continued in principle through this year, authorized the secretary of agriculture to allot the estimated annual sugar consumption of the country among beet and cane domestic producers and such "off-shore" producers as those in Hawaii, the Philippines, and similar insular growers.

Law Made Inoperative.

The act originally became law as an amendment to the agricultural adjustment act. Certain provisions, principally that imposing a processing tax, became inoperative when the AAA was ruled unconstitutional and benefit payments to producers ceased.

The President asked special safeguards, in any legislation, for the rights of small producers to assure them "an equitable share of the benefits offered by the program."

The interests of the consumer should be protected, he said, by a provision "to prevent any possible restriction of the supply of sugar that would result in prices to consumers in excess of those reasonably necessary, together with conditional payments to producers, to maintain the domestic industry as a whole and to make the production of sugar beets and sugar cane as profitable as the production of the principal other agricultural crops."

Regarded Blow to Cuba.

HAVANA, March 1.—(AP)—Cuban sugar men tonight said they considered President Roosevelt's proposal of a three-fourths of a cent a pound tax on raw sugar a severe blow against this country's sugar industry.

Sugar Price Falls.

New York, March 1.—(AP)—The No. 3 contract in the sugar futures market suffered a severe decline today as a result of the President's message to congress urging an excise tax on raw sugar.

The proposed ¾ cent levy came as a surprise to many of the trade who had looked for a ⅓ cent impost.

Edison Stock Plan Hearing Postponed to March 10

Washington, D. C., March 1.—[Special.]—The hearing before the Securities and Exchange commission scheduled for today on the application of the Commonwealth Edison company of Chicago, for approval of an offer to exchange its shares for the outstanding stocks of the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois was adjourned until March 10.

High Court Again Upholds Gold Clause Abrogation Act

Washington, D. C., March 1.—[Special.]—In a 5 to 4 decision the United States Supreme court today upheld the constitutionality of the New Deal's gold clause abrogation act as applied to leases. The validity of the act as applied to private contracts was upheld in a momentous 5 to 4 decision in 1935, while the court at the same time unanimously held the statute unconstitutional as applied to the government's obligations.

The same justices who dissented in the original gold clause case—McReynolds, Sutherland, Butler, and Vandevanter—dissented today, without handing down a separate opinion. Justice Benjamin N. Cardozo delivered the majority opinion in the case of the Holyoke Water Power company against the American Writing Paper company.

Labor Case Still Delayed.

While the court had a busy session, handing down fourteen written opinions, there were no decisions in the pending cases which are being watched with great anxiety by both proponents and opponents of President Roosevelt's scheme to add a maximum of six new justices.

These cases involve the Wagner labor relations act, most important New Deal statute to be tested at this session; Washington state's minimum wage law for women and children and New York state's unemployment insurance law. The latter statute was permitted to stand by an equal division of the court—4 to 4—but a rehearing by a full bench has been requested.

The Holyoke Water company at various times prior to the act of 1934 leased water power rights to the American Writing Paper company, stipulating in the lease that the grantee should pay "a quantity of gold which shall be equal in amount to fifteen hundred [$1,500] dollars of the gold coin of the United States of the standard and weight and fineness of the year 1894, or the equivalent of this commodity in United States currency."

Contentions in Case.

The lessee contended that the payment should be made dollar for dollar, while the lessor argued that payment should be made on the basis of the new price of gold—$35 an ounce.

"A contract for the payment of gold as the equivalent of money and a fortiori a contract for the payment of money measurable in gold, is within the letter of the joint resolution of June 5, 1933," Justice Cardozo's opinion said.

"A particular covenant, if viewed in isolation, may have a slight, perhaps a trivial influence upon the effectiveness and symmetry of a new money policy. The aggregate of many covenants, each contributing its mite, may bring the system to destruction. "Rivulets in combination make up a stream of tendency that may attain engulfing power. No principle of constitutional law, no dictate of their dealing, lays a duty upon the congress to single out for special treatment an individual or a few among the members of a common mass."

Among other decisions, the court declared invalid California's 1935 "caravan act," requiring a $15 fee for each motor vehicle driven or towed into the state for sale.

PROFITS OF 940 LARGE CONCERNS RISE 51 PCT. IN 1936, SURVEY FINDS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, March 1.—The National City bank in its monthly bank letter for March reports that 940 of the country's leading industrial and trading corporations which have issued financial statements for 1936 show a combined net profit of about $1,624,000,000 an increase of 51 per cent over 1935. Based on the net worth of these corporations, the profit was at the rate of 10.1 per cent, against the 1935 rate of return of 6.7.

The bank points out that even should the rate of return on the net worth of corporations recover to the 1930 level, the amount of profits in dollars would be considerably less now because of the reductions in capital.

"The downward revaluation of assets tends to reduce operating and overhead charges and to permit book profits to be shown on a smaller volume of business than formerly, even though such reported 'profits' are in a sense derived from capital," the letter states.

FILENE DIVIDEND IS BOOSTED ON COMMON STOCK

The dividend rate of William Filene's Sons company was increased yesterday when the directors declared a quarterly payment on the common stock of 50 cents, compared with a payment of 20 cents on Jan. 27.

An extra dividend of 22½ cents and a regular quarterly dividend of 37½ cents were declared by the directors of the South Penn Oil company on the common stock.

The Timken-Detroit Axle company postponed action on the regular quarterly dividend of 25 cents, due at this time, until the labor situation clears. A sitdown strike in which 250 workers are taking part is in progress at the company's Detroit plant.

It was stated in THE TRIBUNE on Feb. 27 that the General Candy company in 1936 paid quarterly dividends of 15 cents and a year-end dividend of 75 cents. The company reports that it paid 15 cents each quarter, with extras of 15 cents the second quarter, 30 cents the third and 75 cents the fourth, or a total for the year of $1.80 per share.

Two Eastern Companies Announce Wage Increases

The Consolidated Gas, Electric Light and Power company of Baltimore notified its 5,000 employés yesterday of a 5 per cent wage increase, boosting the annual pay roll by $400,000. The Chase Brass and Copper company, Waterbury, Conn., announced wage increases affecting 4,000 workers. Employés paid on an hourly basis will receive a raise of 5 cents an hour, and all piece rates will be increased 7 per cent.

Railroad Unions Demand 20 Pct. Increase in Wages

Cleveland, O., March 1.—(AP)—A. F. Whitney, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, announced today that five of the railroad brotherhoods instructed their general chairmen to file demands with railroads for a 20 per cent wage increase. Representatives of the five brotherhoods—trainmen and switchmen, engineers, firemen, engine men, and conductors—met here today. The chairmen were instructed to file the demands by March 22 and ask that the wage increase become effective May 1.

HOW YOU CAN HELP STOP AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS

A Motor Accident Will Injure 2 of Every 3 Children

By Robert E. Kenyon

If the present rate of automobile accidents continues, two out of every three children now living can look forward to being injured by a motor vehicle—and many will be killed! If we go on killing more than 38,000 people with motor vehicles as we did in 1936, at least one out of every 20 persons now living in the United States will be killed or injured within five years. That's the outlook unless we cut motor accidents.

Such facts as "annual traffic deaths more than total population of cities like Moline, Illinois, or Santa Barbara, California" and "more Americans killed in 18 months in motor accidents than in 18 months of World War" have failed to impress our millions of drivers. The "scare" campaign has not brought results, and now, we believe, more and more effort must be devoted toward properly educating drivers and pedestrians in safety precautions.

Drivers must be told what causes accidents and what specifically can be done to prevent them. There are many related factors in the problem of automobile accidents, such as drivers' license laws, stern law enforcement, better highway construction, more effective traffic control, more safety in automobiles, the matter of speed, education of children, the reckless driver and others. Each one must be understood by our people if they can act to help in cutting motor accidents.

With this in view we intend to present discussions of these factors as a series of safety messages, of which this is the first. These suggestions follow those advocated by the National Safety Council, which is working vigorously in a five-year campaign to reduce motor accidents by 40% by the end of 1940. We hope we can help in this humanitarian crusade in this way.

First of a Series

Complete insurance protection for every driver is a vital part of the campaign for more safety on our streets and highways. It is the one thing every driver can do to help—not only for his own protection but that of others as well. Chicago Lloyds insures only careful drivers, those who take every possible precaution to insure safe driving. As a result, our losses are fewer and this makes it possible to insure these drivers with savings in cost to them of from 20% to 28%. If you can qualify as a careful driver, write or call Chicago Lloyds, 135 South La Salle Street, Chicago (telephone Andover 3300). Let us tell you how much you can save on your automobile insurance.

Other Firms Report Larger Earnings.

The Coca Cola company last year earned its largest profit, the third consecutive year in which earnings set a new high mark. Other prominent companies also figured in favorable earning reports announced yesterday.

R. W. Woodruff.

Coca Cola had $18,598,078 applicable for dividends on the 4,000,000 shares of common stock, after reserves for taxes and class "A" stock dividends, compared with $13,895,986 in 1935, R. W. Woodruff, president, announced in a preliminary statement for 1936. The 1936 earnings were equal to $4.65 a share on the common stock, against $3.48 a share in the preceding year.

Earnings for Final Quarter.

In the last quarter of 1936 Coca Cola earned $3,683,556 for the common stock after class "A" dividends and other charges, compared with $2,960,736 in the fourth quarter of 1935. The quarter's earnings were equal to 92 cents a common share, against 74 cents a share in the final quarter of 1935.

Directors of the company yesterday declared a quarterly dividend of 50 cents on the common stock, the same as paid on Dec. 15 when an extra of $2 also was distributed.

The 1936 earnings of A. E. Staley Manufacturing company, which makes corn products and has headquarters at Decatur, Ill., were $1,460,568, equal to $26.44 a common share on 42,000 shares outstanding, and compared with $299,200, or $5.98 a share on 50,000 shares of preferred in 1935.

W. W. Coleman, president of Bucyrus-Erie company, makers of excavating machinery, said the volume of business on the books at the end of 1936, while not as large as at the end

HALF OF BOOST IN EFFECT ON BANK RESERVES

Marks Effort to Sterilize Excess Credit.

New York, March 1.—[Special.]—An additional 16.66 per cent of the nation's excess bank credit was sterlized in the federal reserve banks of the country today when the first half of the board's higher reserve requirements went into effect. Having had more than a month in which to get their position adjusted, member banks will be able to put up the additional funds without borrowing, it is confidently expected.

As a result of the fresh boost in requirements it is believed that at the close of business last Wednesday excess reserves of all federal reserve banks will be down to around $1,333,000,000 from the $2,100,000,000 figure as of last Wednesday.

Rest of Boost on May 1.

The new percentage of required reserves will apply through April 30. On May 1 the last half of the reserve board's recent boost will become effective.

Figures released today by the federal reserve board covering the condition of member banks in 101 leading cities as of Feb. 24, disclosed that bank holdings of United States obligations declined 14 million dollars, but still stand 412 millions above the amount held a year ago. Reserves with federal reserve banks declined 42 millions and balances with domestic banks declined 115 millions. Interbank deposits declined 65 millions.

COUNTY BOARD URGED TO REFUND 12 MILLION BONDS

May Retire Half of Debt; RFC Approves Plan.

A plan for refunding $12,252,000 Cook county bonds held by the Reconstruction Finance corporation and the retirement of half of the obligations soon was recommended to the county board yesterday by Clayton F. Smith, president. Smith said that Jesse H. Jones, RFC chairman, had agreed to the terms of the plan.

The bonds now held by the RFC are 5 per cent poor relief obligations. They are in technical default as the government agency did not turn them in under the refunding program carried out by the county last year. The obligations which would be exchanged for these issues are 4 per cent refunding bonds.

Report Funds Available.

Smith said the county has sufficient money in its bond sinking funds to pay off half the RFC obligations, and under the plan the RFC agrees to sell back to the county half of the new bonds at par. The RFC would surrender $1,000,000 of the new bonds which would be callable immediately and proportionate parts of other issues which would not be callable until 1938 to 1949.

Smith said the county now has a cash balance of $8,152,926 in its sinking funds. Of this amount approximately $2,000,000 must be held for interest requirements on outstanding bonds, with the balance free for retirement of bonds.

As no other bonds of the county are now callable and the obligations are selling above par, it would be impossible to use the sinking fund money for purchase for retirement of outstanding issues, he said. The plan agreed to by the RFC, he added, makes it possible to use the idle money for debt retirement purposes.

May Retire 20% of Debt.

Smith said that additional county bonds will become callable next Jan. 1 in the amount of $3,148,000, and as the sinking fund will be built up with receipts from 1936 taxes, the program now outlined will permit retirement of more than $9,000,000, or approximately 20 per cent of the county's total bonded debt in the next year.

Maurice F. Kavanagh, chairman of the board's finance committee, called a meeting of commissioners for next Friday morning to consider the proposal.

Although the RFC now holds 5 per cent bonds, it charges the county only 3 per cent, paying back the additional 2 per cent. The RFC would retain the full 4 per cent on the new refunding bonds, however.

POTATO FUTURES RALLY SHARPLY FROM EARLY DIP

Potato futures staged a broad rally on the Chicago Mercantile exchange yesterday and closed at gains ranging up to 45 cents a hundred pounds after recovering from a sharp drop in prices during the opening hour.

Trade comment attributed the sharp recovery to deliveries smaller than expected and the reverse of the recent decline. Potatoes for immediate delivery, however, continued weak with demand slow.

Butter and egg futures were quiet. Prices of futures follow:

'MO-KAN' PIPE LINE COMPANY ELECTS BOARD

Wilmington, Del., March 1.—[Special.]—Election of directors of the Missouri-Kansas Pipeline company, in receivership since March 18, 1932, was held in Chancery court here today as a step in the reorganization of the company. Albert W. Massey, special master in chancery, announced that the majority of the 18,500 stockholders had voted, although only forty appeared in person. Tabulation of the votes probably will be completed in two days.

Henry T. Bush and C. Ray Phillips are receivers for the company, appointed in 1932. Since that time the readjustment of the affairs of the company have been in progress in court. The master's report of today's election will be made to Chancellor Wolcott on March 17.

Illinois Bell Reports Gain in Telephones Being Used

The Illinois Bell Telephone company continued to show a gain in telephones in service during February, according to preliminary figures. With about a week still unreported, gains during February amounted to more than 5,000 telephones, placing the total in service throughout the state at more than 1,314,000, or more than 9 per cent of the total in the Bell system. The company has now recovered more than half of the 300,825 telephones lost from the high point in April, 1930.

WHEAT LEADS MODEST RISE IN GRAIN PRICES

Closes Cent a Bushel Higher Near Day's Top.

CHICAGO GRAIN PRICES

Yesterday's closing prices on grain for delivery in May, with comparisons, follow:

	Yester-day.	Satur-day.	*Wk. ago.	Month ago.
Wheat	$1.32¾	$1.31⅞	....	$1.27⅛
Corn	1.07½	1.07⅛	....	1.05⅛
Oats	.47	.46⅝	....	.49½
Rye	1.06⅝	1.05¼	....	1.09⅜
Soy beans	1.54	1.53¼	....	1.56

*Holiday.

Grain prices were strong yesterday, particularly wheat, which advanced a cent a bushel and closed within a small fraction of the highest level of the day. Corn, oats and soy beans gained major fractions of a cent while rye climbed as much as 1⅜ cents a bushel.

Commercial sales of 141,000 bushels of wheat by Chicago handlers, strength in Liverpool futures and unfavorable crop comments from part of the southwest combined to stimulate buying of futures on the Chicago Board of Trade.

Export Demand Small.

Foreign demand for Canadian and southern hemisphere wheat was light. A feature of the export business was the sale of a moderate amount of new crop Canadian wheat for shipment in October, the first time that buyers have shown any interest in grain from the 1937 harvest.

Deliveries of 624,000 bushels of wheat on March contracts in Liverpool failed to have any effect on the English market. Futures there closed as much as 1⅛ cents a bushel higher. Winnipeg more than kept pace with Chicago and gained 1¼ to 1⅝ cents.

No Rain in Southwest.

No rain was reported in the southwestern winter wheat belt over the week-end and additional moisture was said to be needed urgently. Some sections of Kansas received only trifling amounts of rain last week, and a recurrence of dust storms in that area is feared, as March is normally a period of high winds.

A decrease of 1,519,000 bushels in the domestic visible supply of wheat last week brought the total down to 39,992,000 bushels, the smallest holding at this season since 1926, compared with 54,606,000 bushels in 1936.

FIRST FREIGHT REPORTS SHOW DROP FOR WEEK

NORTH SHORE LINE HAS SMALLER LOSS FOR YEAR

Deficit Totals $1,203,167; Low Fares Cut Income.

The Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee railroad in 1936 had an operating loss of $119,187, compared with an operating loss of $348,105 in 1935, Bernard J. Fallon, president, reported to stockholders at their annual meeting yesterday. This loss does not include interest on obligations and other charges which are not being paid by the receivers for the road. Giving effect to these charges, the 1936 deficit was $1,203,167 against a deficit of $1,318,747 in 1935.

Total revenues from the railway operation and other income for 1936 amounted to $4,269,646, against $3,832,521 in 1935, an increase of $437,125, or 11.41 per cent.

Expenses Heavier.

Operating expenses, taxes, and other deductions, totaled $4,231,971, compared with $4,059,941 for the preceding year, an increase of $170,030, or 4.24 per cent. Before taxes assignable to railway operations, including the social security tax, net revenue from operation was $81,042, against a loss of $87,905 in 1935.

Fallon said that the receiver's operations resulted in a net income for 1936 of $27,674 against a loss of $227,420 in 1935. This figure is arrived at before deductions of interest and expense on obligations not assumed by the receiver, loss on retirement of property, and other charges.

Fallon said that the establishment of the low passenger fares which have been in effect for three years has not worked out satisfactorily.

In 1936, he pointed out, there were transported 1,963,366, or 30.79 per cent, more interurban passengers than in 1932, but the 1936 revenue from this source increased only $106,126, or 4.35 per cent.

Interurban Passenger Revenues.

Total interurban passenger revenue for 1936 was $2,543,242, against $2,318,756 in 1935, an increase of $224,486, or 9.68 per cent. The number of interurban passengers carried in 1936 was 8,340,814, against 7,765,722 in 1935, a gain of 575,092, or 15.80 per cent.

Freight revenues for 1936 totaled $831,867 against $682,281 in 1935, a gain of $149,585, or 21.9 per cent.

Stockholders reëlected three directors whose three year terms had expired.

New York, March 1.—(AP)—Prices worked higher in the bond market today but the movement was a halting one in which the narrow rise and fall of the general level left the outcome in doubt until the final bell.

Railroad and industrial issues showed stamina and finished generally higher, while foreign bonds faltered again to close off on the day. Utility loans were about even at the end of trading as were most of the high grade corporates. The U. S. government section, however, gave ground slowly and stood 1/32 to 5/32 of a point lower at the close.

Reserve Boost Takes Effect.

Losses in the federal group were regarded as of little significance since today's was the first session under the higher reserve requirements of federal reserve member banks.

If large scale selling of governments to lift reserves to the mandatory level had been anticipated, those inclining to such an expectancy found little confirmation in the final results. Many financial quarters felt most of the large banks had long since completed whatever steps were necessary by the higher requirements.

Several Rail Issues Rise.

New York, Ontario and Western 4s recovered sharply following recent heavy setbacks and finished 3⅛ higher. Other gainers included Illinois Central 4¾s, North Western 4¾s, New Haven 6s, and Southern Pacific 4½s. Among the losers were St. Paul 5s of 1975, Central of Georgia 5s, and Alleghany 5s.

South American and continental European bonds were fractionally lower for the most part. Polish issues continue to break ground before increased offerings. The 7s lost 7 points and the 6s dropped 4½ points.

COCOA

NEW YORK, March 1.—[Special.]—Cocoa futures showed fair strength early in sympathy with London, but weakened later on profit taking through commission houses. The close was 1 to 4 points higher. Sales, 333 lots, or 4,980 tons. Range of prices [cents per pound]:

National Steel.

Investors' Guide: Please send me a report on National Steel corporation.—Mrs. M. A. C.

Answer: Formed in November, 1929, at the outset of the depression, this corporation is in the unique position of being the only major steel producer to ride through the last seven years without a loss.

Natural advantages of location have been combined with an aggressive and extensive program of expansion, improvement and modernization of facilities to establish the company as one of the lower cost producers. It is the seventh largest unit in the steel industry and the second largest producer of tin plate, one of the more profitable branches of the industry.

Plants are located close to important consumers—at Weirton, W. Va., at Steubenville, O., and at Detroit, capital of the automobile industry, which is estimated to take about one-third of finished output. Cheap water transportation is available for bringing raw materials to the company's plants.

National Steel is a completely integrated unit—mining and transporting raw materials, making pig iron in blast furnaces, manufacturing steel ingots by open hearth treatment of scrap and pig iron, and rolling of steel ingots into finished strips, bars, and sheets.

Iron ore reserves are estimated at 150 million tons, a 50 year supply, and 7,000 acres of property in Pennsylvania and West Virginia provide adequate coal reserves.

After falling behind 1935 figures in the first half of 1936, the company went ahead to establish another new earnings record last year. Contributing to this were the opening of a new continuous strip mill, new furnaces, and improved tin plate facilities which increased capacity and effected economies. Net income was $12,542,000, or $5.80 per share, in 1936, after $629,000 had been set aside for payment of the tax on undistributed profits, according to preliminary figures.

The record of preceding years:

	Sales.	Net income.	Income per share.
1935	$103,177,000	$11,136,000	$5.16
1934	76,329,000	6,051,000	2.81
1933	60,822,000	2,812,000	1.30
1932	43,604,000	1,663,000	.77

Capitalization of the company consists of 2,162,277 shares of $25 par common stock. Funded debt amounts to $59,000,000.

Dividends have been paid regularly since formation of the company. Payments were 32 each in 1930 and 1931, 75 cents in 1932, 60 cents in 1933, $1 in 1934, $1.50 in 1935, and $3.12½ in 1936, including an extra of $1.62½.

★ THE RULES ★

This contest consists of a series of crossword puzzles. Beneath each puzzle is a biographical item representing an event in the life of former President Theodore Roosevelt. A word or words in such items will be missing. Such word or words will be found in the puzzle. The public is invited to solve the puzzles, find the missing word or words, and complete these biographical items.

The Chicago Tribune will pay $5,000 in cash prizes for the best answers submitted in accordance with these rules.

This offer is open free to every one except employes of the Chicago Tribune and their families.

A new puzzle will be published in the Chicago Daily Tribune each weekday for 42 consecutive days. Puzzles are to be submitted only in complete sets. Don't send in each puzzle separately. When you have completed the series, send your answers to: "Roosevelt Crosswords," Chicago Tribune, Postoffice Box 1718, Chicago, Illinois. All entries must be in by midnight 15 days after Puzzle No. 42 has been printed.

You do not have to solve ALL the puzzles correctly to win. Prizes will be paid to persons whose entries rank highest. Only one entry may be submitted by any one person.

Entries should be sent by First Class Mail, Postage Prepaid. Each entry must be accompanied by a letter giving your name and address and stating in 100 words or less which event in the life of Theodore Roosevelt, in your opinion, is the most interesting, and why. Letters will be considered only if two or more contestants submit equally correct solutions of the puzzles; in such event letters will be judged on the basis of human interest and originality. Accuracy in the solution of the puzzles will be the first consideration in awarding the prizes.

You need not buy the Chicago Tribune. You may copy or trace the puzzles. The Chicago Tribune may be examined free at its offices or at Public Libraries. STEERS ADVANCE TO BEST MARCH LEVEL SINCE 1930

Top Climbs to $14.90; Hogs Sell Higher.

Top steers soared to $14.90 yesterday, the highest level since January last year and highest for March since 1930. Improved demand for fresh beef in the wholesale market, coupled with small receipts, formed the basis for the advances yesterday.

Beef sold to retailers at steady to strong prices in Chicago, while gains of as much as $1 per hundred pounds were registered at eastern distributing points.

Competition for cattle was liveliest in better grade steers yielding the most beef. These grades rose 15 to 25 cents, while prices of other cattle ranged from steady to 25 cents higher.

Hog Market Is Strong.

A strong to 5 cents higher market for hogs raised the average price yesterday to $10.10 and the top for full loads to $10.30 despite issuance of a report showing further accumulation last month of pork and lard in storage in the Chicago area.

Hog receipts yesterday were larger than a week ago, but below normal for a Monday. Most sales of 200 to 350 pound butchers were made at $10.05 to $10.25, with most 400 to 550 pound sows at $9.50 to $9.60.

A run of 42 carloads of Colorado lambs swelled receipts of sheep, and prices weakened 10 to 25 cents. There was a good clearance, however, most lambs selling at $10.40 to $10.75, with the top at $10.90.

Supply Near 50 Year Low.

Receipts of live stock dropped sharply here last month to 753,073 head, the smallest total with one exception in more than half a century.

CHICAGO STOCKS DULL; ALUMINUM ISSUE ADVANCES

Common stock of Advance Aluminum Castings corporation of Chicago, makers of aluminum kitchen utensils, provided interest in an otherwise listless session on the Chicago Stock exchange yesterday. The issue led in volume at 6,250 shares and closed 1¼ points higher at 11⅝, a new high mark for the year.

National Leather common continued active, but closed unchanged at 1⅛. Butler Brothers common was ¼ point higher at 17½. Chicago corporation common was unchanged at 6. Armour common was ⅛ point lower at 13½.

LARD LOSES EARLY UPTURN; PRICES ARE MIXED AT CLOSE

Lard futures advanced in early trading yesterday on scattered commission house buying induced by strength in cotten seed oil. A reaction followed on hedging and profit taking sales, and the close was 5 cents lower to 2½ cents higher. Deliveries of 1,000,000 pounds of lard were made on March contracts.

Cash lard was quoted at $12.47; loose, $11.87½; leaf, $11.25 and clear bellies at $16 per 100 pounds. Prices follow:

Day By Day Story of the Experimental Farms

By Frank Ridgway

Lime for Soil Arrives

March 1, 1937.

The first carload of crushed limestone to be used in the soil building program now in progress on the Tribune's Yorkville Experimental farm arrived last week and was spread at the rate of approximately three tons to the acre in field No. 8 on the north side of Fox river. Another car of limestone will be shipped to the farm this week provided weather conditions are favorable for spreading it.

Samples of both surface and subsoil were taken last fall from the 80 acre field on which the limestone is being spread. They were analyzed by the soils department of the University of Illinois to determine the amount of lime and phosphorous needed. The analyses showed that most of the field was in need of two to three tons of limestone an acre. There were only a few spots in the field where the soil was sweet enough to require no lime. Rye was sown on the field last fall.

Ideal for Spreading.

Weather was ideal last week for handling and spreading the limestone. The ground was frozen in the field, there was comparatively little wind, and no rain to interfere. When limestone is shipped during winter, care must be taken to see that it does not get wet in the railroad car. This exposes the material to freezing, which makes it difficult to unload and spread on the ground.

The car shipped last week contained 66.65 tons. The material cost the farm $1.75 a ton delivered to the field where it was to be used. This included trucking charges from the railroad station nearly four miles away. The limestone was spread evenly over the ground with a spreader pulled back of a truck.

Fruit trees on the Wheaton farm will be given a dormant spray of lime-sulphur this week if weather conditions permit. The workers hope to find a time when the wind is not blowing and the temperature is high enough to prevent the spray material from freezing. The men finished pruning the orchards last week.

Smoke Ham and Bacon.

Row after row of hams and bacon slabs, cured old Virginia style, will be hung to be smoked this week. A fire pit has been dug in the earthen floor near the center of the smokehouse. In the pit a mixture of chips from hickory and apple trees will be used to keep a smouldering fire going under the hams and bacon during the smoking process.

The curing and smoking require several weeks, but families at the farm find that the Virginia hams and bacon are worth the extra time and effort. This is the third year the pioneer method has been used at the Wheaton place.

USED AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE.

WE KNOW AND YOU KNOW that used car prices will advance sharply in spring. We are aware of the fact that we can get much higher prices for our cars then.

BUT
the facts are that we are loaded to the rafters with used cars—and we have no more place to put them. The "Trade-Ins" are pouring in on new 1937 Studebakers, and we must do something at once to "get out from under." So—gave orders—unload at once—sacrifice all cars in stock for a few cents on the dollar—but get rid of them at once!
